Prioce in Breslau for a year, and accompanied appointed chief of the general staff. In that Vice les chouz! position it fell to his lot to inspect the whole of the northern coast, to arrange a system of deespecially averse to the idea of a German fleet Danish war he was in command of the general remain for the winter. staff, after the storming of Duppel, and he projected the attack on Alsen and the occupation | RED RIVER EXPEDITION. - Lieutenant-Colonel any doubts about the justice of that war The to England. question was far too complex for general discussion. Most Englishmen asked whether Den-

(To be concluded in our next.)

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 19.

SEE LAST PAGE. Remember to pay your Gas Account by the 20th and save the discount.

mortal conflicts by either party without energy strained to the highest pitch, sleep- opening of their new Masonic Hall. less watchfulness, keen and anxious obser. vation, consummate prudence, backed by devotion, patriotism and military genius. When armies are opposed upon the wide battle-field of a country, the game of chess may be played out by tactitians; or, by great chance, success may be obtained by an unexpected sortie or a dashing coup de main, but in important sieges, man is like the stag brought to bay; every faculty is word surrender. It is wonderful to observe how many sieges there are on record, whose fate has been decided by means with which the art of war had nothing to do. The capitol o Rome was saved by the clacking of geeser took her by the arm "in a very unbecoming is computed there are three bundred mutes in the Barbarians in 885 by a heroic soldier along the floor. Some of the others, among mission have been already received. Preparahamed Gerbaut, who with five others rushwhom was Riley, "pulled her about," when in day ed to the breach, hurled the invaders into that position until she was ultimately rescued the ditch, and defended themselves brave- by one of her boarders. The prisoner called a A New Article of Canadian Manufac- dame, lamenting the waste of time and money, ly against a host until assistance arrived. witness by the name of Mitchell, who happened TURE —The Vindicator of last week was printed went to the publichouse and remonstrated with The allies little expected to see those gigan- to call at the tavern during the time the row at the Joseph Hall Works upon the first steam her droughty lord. The result was that the they landed in the Crimea, that taxed their did not strike any one nor in any way injure the town the contract of the prisoners after a good wash and some dinner, went away the contract of the prisoners after a good wash and some dinner, went away they landed in the Crimea, that taxed their did not strike any one nor in any way injure press for the purpose invented. The appear- to his loom. Knowing well the temptation energies, and put their courage and endu- Mrs Devine. He said there was a pretty general ance of the inside pages of the Vindicator is a that might befal him on his way, his wife acrance to proof for months against all squabble, and the parties were fighting "through testimony of the excellence of the work it does companied him; and, after seeing him safely the rules and conditions of modern warfare, and which were only captured at a fearful promised upon the opening, the magistrate fined works. Once it was fairly in motion, it did to be a six o'clock bell sent the factory hands sacrifice of human life. There seems to be each of the prisoners $5, and bound them over first class printing, although no one at work home for the evening. Accordingly she sat a wonderful instinct implanted in the heart keep the peace. Peter Silk, a sailor, was fined upon it that night had ever operated such a herself under a tree on a wooded brae opposite of mankind, similar to that in other animals,

$2 for being drunk. Ellen Little and Catherine

McGuiness were each sent to gool for 60 days.

The printers of the Dominion have now a home-made press, superior in style broken, she directed that her tea might be sent. ious abodes and their young at the expense of their lives. There is no situation in which the higher virtues have been put to a severer test; in which courage, firmness. Horse Stolen at Whitey.—The Kingston portant branch of their manufactures.—Oshawa tained. When the evening bell rang she men, and even children. The siege of Paris, and the advent of Garibaldi on the theatre of war, may yet be the turning points i this dreadful tragedy.

The French are remarkable for possessing | Charging Extra Fare. - A gentleman from a characteristic in that they readily adapt Perth, who was on his way to Chicago, Illinois, taking. adapt themselves to circumstances comes to- possession of the stranger's valise, which he day from Paris. It has been reported that retained until ordered to return it by a policeman, the Dominion of Canada, we find the following without the most blasphemous ribaldry his continent. fact sufficiently accounted for by the length extra demand had been paid to him to prevent of time during which Paris has been closely further trouble or detention over night. Such invested. But for this effect the Parisians conduct as the above has been the case on more have found a remedy. They have planted than one occasion recently, and is becoming incabbages and cauliflowers in the squares tolerable and should be treated with the fuli and gardens of Paris; and as for cutting extent of the law governing such cases. off the cherished supply of these necessities,

We learn from the North China Herald that they now bid an insolent defiance to their be- one of the victims of the Tientsin massacre was siegers. Such is the tenor of the news today: a young Irish lady, a Miss Alice Sullivan.

long popularly believed that he was dead. In and though it may at first seem laughable his leisure hours Moltke carefully studied Rome that in all the pretty little public gardens. The effects of the gale on Tuerday. This new steamer, which has been built and its vicinity, and made some drawings there should be green cabbages growing morning are m ch more serious than was for the Canadian Inland Navigation Com-It became his daty to bring back to Prussia instead of lovely flowers, yet the changed at first anticipated. On Lake Ontario Puny was launched yesterday at Cantin's the dead body of Prince Heinrich. In the great aspect of these spots will preach its lesson storm of '48 he was ordered to Magdeburgh as to every passer-by, telling indeed of the chief of the general staff of his corps. His promotion was now rapid; in 1850 lieutenant- changed condition of things, but inculcatcolonel; in 1852 colonel; in 1856 major-general; ing self-reliance and inspiring hope. The in 1859 lieutenant-general. In this year, having planting of these homely cabbages is but the Crown Prince, he accompanied him to another way of hidding defiance, less glo-Balmora!, and was present at his betrothal to mous no doubt than by the cannon's mouth, the Princess Royal. He was with the Crown but still a definnce. We may expect the him twice to England first on the occasion of l'arisian to vary occasionally his cry of the funeral of the Prince Coasort. He was live la Republique with the new one of fence which might be applied to all states bor- QUEBEC BATTALION. -No. 2 Company, Quedering on the sea. Nothing, lowever, was bec Battalion, Red River Expedition, which done at that time. The German Diet voted passed down on the Royal Mail steamer, from against every Prussian proposition, and were Thunder Bay to Montreal a few days ago, has being put under Prussian direction. In the been stationed on St. Helen's Island, where they of Jutland. His reputation was now consider- Jarvis, formerly Deputy Assistant Adjutant knew that in 'the man in the spectacles' the General of Kingston, and now commandant of country possessed her best general and highest the Red River Expeditionary force, stationed at strategist. On the merits of the Danish war Fort Garry, passed down on Monday from To we shall not enter here. Most Englishmen felt ron'o to Ottawa, where he is now stopping But we never met with any German who had prior to his departure for New York and thence mark wasn't a little state and l'russia a big state, the sidewalk at the corner of Johnson and On not also a princess of Wales? and having given turio screets, which had long been in a defecthese questions their obvious affirmative, they tive condition, has entirely disappeared on acalso gave their sympathies to the side of Den- count of having been broken through and subs quently taken up by the corporation workmen for the purpose of being repaired. However, it has now remained in this dangerous condition three or four days, without the least protection, and greatly to the risk of passengers who may venture in the locality in question after

OPENING OF THE DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM RELLEVILLE. The Ontario Deaf and Dumb Asybe raised by screw jacks upon a temporary new system of planking the bottom is lum, which has just been completed, building ways and launched, a work attended with con- lound to be a great improvement, making at Belleville, will be formally opened on Thurssiderable expense. The schooner Orion and it much safer in running the rapids. We day. The Governor General, Lieutenant Governor, and Hon. J. S. Macdonald, together with other notables of the Dominion, will be their moorings at the time the gale sprung up but were securely fastened together and anchorpresent. The day has been proclaimed a public holiday. The Governor General will be met ed about one hundred yards from the harbour at the Grand Trunk station at 11 o'clock by the \" with no other damage than the loss of the fore. Not the least event of this wonderful war | County and Town Councils, a guard of honour is the siege of Paris. Another link is added from the different volunteer battalions, the to the great sieges of history; and who county firemen and citizens, and escorted to the shall predict its results? There is hardly institution: At the conclusion of the ceremoa recorded siege barren of instruction both | nies a lunch will be given to the distinguished to besieged and besiegers, but the principle guests, and in the evening the visitors will of it is, that little can be achieved in these attend a grand ball, under the auspices of the and A. Masons, on the occasion of the > last week. The prices have again taken an upward tendency; sales today being effected at 80c the highest. There is little doing in other grains at unchanged rates. Rye 65c. peas 65c, and wheat $1 to $1.05.

irretrievable ruin with such consequences the row at the tavern of Thomas Devine, corner still busy on it putting on the finishing touches. as no other event presents. In great battles of Barrack and Ontario streets, on Monday The furniture has not been placed in the rooms armies may be annihilated, but in captured afternoon. The evidence given by the comcities, people are immolated, and humanity plainant was the same as that given yesterday, is degraded by the wild indulgence of its with the addition that Aussam threw a chair in most brutal passions; but yet often do the the bar at him, which struck him on the foreheroic virtues shine out in uncomplainingly | head and knocked off one of the beer taps. The bearing hunger and thirst, fire and water, witness could not swear to the identity of ties have finally appointed Thursday for the disease and death, sooner than utter the Riley. Both prisoners, however, confessed to ceremony. having been present, but denied having committed any violence. Elizabeth Devine, wife ins of complainant, was sworn, and commenced her the States this morning, and stops at present at evidence by politely alluding to the prisoners as "those gentlemen," corroborated the evidence manner," threw her down and dragged her Ontario, and about eighty applications for ad-McGuiness, were each sent to gaol for 60 days of workmanship, and at least equal in utility to to her under the greenwood. The guidwife as vagrants. They are notoriously abandoned the presses of United States manufacture, at sat all afternoon knitting her stockings and shone with a purer and more lasting lustre another valuable horse had been stolen from than in besieged communities of men, wo- Whitby on Tuesday evening, of which the following is the description furnished :- Bay mare, three years old; star in forehead; shoulder galled with collar-$20 reward. It is thought

DEFECTIVE SIDEWALKS .- A large portion

BARLEY .- Barley in Kingston is now very il, comparatively little of that grain coming o market, in comparison with the receipts of of them has the appearance of a steamer.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday .- William Ausforced into intense action, and the slightest sam, better known as "Billy Barlow," and George will commence work immediately. The building errors, the faintest relaxation, may produce Riley, were charged with being implicated in is hardly fit for occupation, and workmen are Kempster, the contractors, are hurrying forward preparations, but there is little prospect that themselves to circumstances. This is a complained at the police station on Tuesday Fifth of November.—A grand Orange cele- The STATE of Lyons.—Cluseret, the valuable quality in war time, and the pos- evening that one of the cabmen had charged bration is appointed to take place in Trenton mischief-maker, has turned up in Lyons. session of it has done much to make the mi- him extra fare, more than had been previously on the 5th of November, to be participated in There he is now at the head of the Red Relitary reputation of the French. A French settled upon. It appears that on the arrival of land Prince Edward and Hastings. The Dublicans of the place. The General's body soldier makes himself at home in the camp; the complainant in the city yesterday afternoon cession will be formed on the market square at erated from the galleys, and these, with a he is skillful in cookery, and economises his be wished to engage a back for the purpose of lo 30 a.m., and will proceed through the prinfew kindred spirits, form what is called the rations to the best extent; he puts things driving to Rockwood Asylum to see a friend cipal streets to the drill shed, where an ox will be roasted whole, and where digner will be orights, where perhaps an English soldier would grumble and require to be carefully shown, and might not even then profit by axample. The French soldier in short example. The French soldier in short example are the first example and require to be carefully be roasted whole, and where dianer will be served at 1 pm. Amongst the speakers and nonced to be present are M. Bowell, Esq. M.P.

Grand Master of B.N.A.; William Anderson, Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Mr John G.

Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Mr John G.

Moore County Master. South Hastings: Hon the Lime Street of the County Master of B.N.A.; William Anderson, Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Mr John G.

Moore County Master. South Hastings: Hon the Lime Street of the County Master of B.N.A.; William Anderson, Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Mr John G.

Moore County Master. South Hastings: Hon the Lime Street of the County Master of B.N.A.; William Anderson, Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Mr John G.

Moore County Master. South Hastings: Hon the County Master of B.N.A.; William Anderson, Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Information to the cabmen, several surrounded who is confined there. On communicating because he served at 1 pm. Amongst the speakers and or the County Master of B.N.A.; William Anderson, Esq. M.P.P., Grand Tiessurer; Information to the cabmen, several surrounded who is confined there. On communicating who is confined there. On communicatin expected that this characteristic would show finally amployed on condition that he should Colonel Brown, M.r., and a number of other which governs Lyons is composed of some which governs Lyons is composed of some the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the same character, which are now so the contract of the con itself in the present invasion of France; and wait half an hour for him. He was accordingly The evening's entertainment will consist of a 6,000 men who have been liberated from much liked by all lovers of Fine Black Teas in it certainly has done so on many occasions, taken to the asylum and thence back to the grand amateur concert. The proceeds of the the criminal gaols. Here Cluseret is in his England, and which give so much satisfaction. as the letters of correspondents attest. One depot, on reaching were, the driver, P. Lennan, an Omnge Hall in Trenton.—Belleville Intelli-

> Baptists 326

THE STEAMER CORSICAN. between here and Toronto, nom rous vessels dockyard at one o'clock. The launch was year.

THE GALE ON TUESDAY.

under sail, of which the following are a few, neighbouring whistles sounded the hour of suffered and experienced the roughest treatment. one, a score of sledge hammers were raised, The schooner Cora, with a cargo of barley from and wedges, blocks and stays were sent Kingston, went ashore near Oswego, and the flying in all directions. The steamer rested Nathan Hill, of Durham, N.H., ia 1863 schooner Flying Cloud was driven aground at upon skids parallel with the dock into thanked God that he lived in a hilly country, Blind Sodus Bay, American shore. The schr. Which she was destined shortly to glide, where it was impossible to build railroads." She had therefore to be launched sideways, Today the cars of the Air Line Railroad run Ariadne, from Oswego to Kingston, arrived in which seemed to the uninitiated rather a through the dooryard of his place between his port on Tuesday afternoon, minus her fere and peculiar way of doing it, and one attended main sails, which were entirely carried away, with some danger. By the time one o'clock door. leaving nothing but bare masts to catch the had arrived, a considerable number of peowind. Her captain reports two schooners ashore | ple had collected in the yard, watching at Timber Island, names unknown. Another with the greatest interest the disappearance schooner, which it is said could not weather the upon the water-side. After about ten minof wedge after wedge, which shoved her storm from the position she occupied, went hard utes' hammering the blocks were all re- for rain has been shown to be impracticable, for, aground at South Bay Point; and bree others moved, and then commenced the work of as the aged farmer remarked after being visited | GROS GRAIN SILKS, in the Upper Gap, the latter part of which state- starting her. About two minutes sufficed by a hurricane, "they always over-do a thing." ment, however, cannot be credited in the absence for this work, and, once started, she glided Mr Powers has learned, as a good many of our of definite information. The schooner Flying down the skids without any further assistance, and rushed into the water wish a charges of gunpowder are invariably followed charges of gunpowder are invariable charges of gunpowder are inva Soud, laden with barley, from Kingston, and sound like a small cataract, driving a wave by rain, and this is the suggestion he will act which was previously mentioned as having up over the opposite bank which nearly upon. He will get all the information be can returned, was caught in the gale at the foot of overwhelmed a crowd of small boys who -and people who have any to spare will ad-Wolf Island, losing her gib and anchor. The were gathered there to witness the event. dress him at box 45, Chicago-and then he steamer Hiram A. Calvin left Garden Island The water having gained its equanimity will place one or more propositions before Conon Wednesday morning to pick up the raft of timber, which broke away from that place and trawing 5 feet 5 inches of water aft, and 4 toet the demands of their victorious enemies, floated down the river among the adjacent leet 3 inches forward. The keel of the they can hardly be called upon for sacrifices so islands. The new schooner Benedict, Corsican was laid in April last. She is great as they were compelled to make in paybelonging to Messrs Rathbun & Son, Millpoint, built of composite, with heavy wooden ment for the hundred days' Empire they peraground at the Military Cottages, commenced | plank bottom and iron top and sides of great strength. Her dimensions are 180 feet over even the hosts of Germans who are swarming unloading her cargo of lumber on Wednesday all; 27 feet beam; and 11½ depth of hold. in and toward France now, and all Europe, morning. As she now lies at water mark, she can Her from work was done by Mr A. A. Gil- from the Ural mountains to the Atlantic, was be safely floated off when lightened. The bert of this city; and the ship carpenters filled with camps. For that three months'en-American schooner, Kate Robinson, of Chicago, work by Mr Cantin; the whole being under thusiasm France paid down 1,535,000,000 will require both unloading and pumping before the superintendence of Captain Howard. francs, maintained 150,000 of her enemies for it is pessible to attempt her removal from where The Corsican has very large cabin three years in her territories, and when they and freight accommodation, indeed left, commuted the cost of supporting them for she is at present stranded. Her bottom is the largest of any of the line. Her engine two years more at 205,000,000 francs. The HANDSOME MADE UP DRESstated to be badly damaged by the violent man- and boiler were made by Gilbert. Her money cost of her defeat was at the lowest ner in which she was beaten and rolled on the engine is known as an horizontal engine, calculation 2,200,000,000 francs, or $440,000,rocks at the farthest point of Point Frederick. on iron frame, with 44 inch cylinder and 000 in gold, besides the expenses of her own The barque Pride of America, lying between 10 feet stroke. Her whole digit is seven troops and preparations. If there is anyone the Benedict and Kate Robinson, occupies the leet. Her fitting and style throughout are most difficult position of the three, requiring to her trial trip to Hamilton next week. The or the same as the Spartan. She will make barque Robert Gaskin were also forced from understand that the Company intend planking all the boats of their line in the same way . - Montreal News. A Naval Court of Inquiry will convene on the 20th instant at the Navy Yard, to inquire rigging of the former. A large number of vessels how much liquor was drunk previous to the are thought to be ashore at different places west grounding of the United States steamer Guer-

of Kingston, but on account of the lines of both | riere. the Dominion and Montreal Telegraph Com-WESLEY AND HIS WIFE. -Mr George Dawson. panies being interrupted, com nunications, exin a late lecture on the great founder of Methocept with a few places, cannot be obtained. The dism, gave the following details: - When Wesley settled he said, "It would be more useful to steamer Watertown arrived from Cape Vincent marry." There is nothing like giving that sort on Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock. A telegram of pretty facing to your wishes. I have known from Picton this afternoon states that the a friend, when he was going to move from a schooners Plough Boy and Belle Case are ashore | because he was going to "a large sphere of usefulon Wapoose Island. The schooner Marie, lying ness." A certain witty man used to say that at anchor in South Bay, dragged and went whenever a a clergyman went fr m a little ashore. A big vessel, name unknown, is ashore living to a large one, he did so because he had on Timber Island. There are two vessels, balloo to take him from a large to a little living." names unknown, ashore on the False Ducks; one Wesley married a widow, who, through her to her-"Know me and know yourself. Sus-Belleville, Oct. 18 .- The Institution for the fect me no more; provoke me no more; do not Deaf and Dumb erected by the Province in this any longer contend for mastery, for power, nioney, or traise; be content to be a private susignificant person." After twenty years of squietude she one day left him. He bore it losophically. He went even beyond it-be took his diary and put the most pithy entry into t I ever met with in a diary :- "Non eam reliand but little has yet been delivered. Messrs a, non dimisi, non revocaba," which he tran-send her away; I shan't send for her back." And so ended the married life of John Wesley.

The following is the number of publications Thursday will see the building in complete condition. Mr Langmuir, Government Inspector of Asylums, &c., fixed Tuesday for the for- in the six Provinces, 44 of which are issued mal opening, but the county and town authori. | daily :-Ontario 256 Quebec. 99

Dr. W. J. Palmer, Principal of the State institution in North Carolina, has been appoint-New Brunswick 34 ed principal. He arrived with his family from Prince Edward Island Messrs Coleman and Green accompany him of her husband, and further said that Aussam also occupies a position in the institution. It How a Hawick Watty Eluded his Meg -One day lately a hand-loom weaver, whose originality of character might be illustrated by many good stories, took it into his head to make a holiday at the beershop, and was soon snugly characters, from Barriefield, in the vicinity of from $200 to $500 less price. When its merits' musing on the griefs of those coupled to unbecome known, we believe that the Joseph thinking mates, and actually had her teasent Hall Works will find this to become a most im- to her in order that the watch might be main-watched for her husband coming down the stair. LORD LISGAR AT THE DOMINION DIRECTORY but watched in vain, as he never appeared to Office -His Excellency the Governor General, thank her for all her care. Thinking something Lord Lisgar, yesterday paid a visit to the must be wrong, she made inquiry of the men, Printing Office of Mr John Lovell, to notice the and was told that the delinquent had been progress of the Canadian Dominion Directory. down the town drinking since half-past three He was accompanied by his aid-le-camp, Col. o'clock. Further inquiries brought out the facts the thief with the horse will attempt to cross His Excellency was conducted through the basket used for carrying bobbins from the McNeill, V. C., and by the Hon. Thomas Ryan. that the clever fellow had got into a large several departments of Mr Lovell's extensive spinning mules, and in it two of his companions establishment. On leaving he said he had been had carried him right past his wife's nose to the exceedingly well pleased with his visit, and wish- back of the factory, from which he soon found ed Mr Lovell all prosperity in his great under- a clear run down Union street.—Hawick Adver-

THE DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.

According to Lovell's Directory of clergy in and public worship cannot be carried on and Gunpowder which are to be met with on ir from such of the Reds as happen to be near. Church of Ehgland Clergy...... 633 ments. All the silk factories have stopped, the lowest prices. but Cluseret has the public treasury, which Presbyterians 464 a reign of terror, in which no person and no house is safe. Thus the second city in France is under the control of an American ty by the mob.

Total 4181

Though there are now nearly four thousand people employed in Chatham Dockyard, there is more than enough work cut out for them to execute before the close of the present financial

The steamboats Robert E. Lee and Natchez are to run a race from New Orleans to Natchez for $20,000. The merchants of New Orleans are to raise $16,000 and each boat subscribes $2,000. house and barn, and within four feet of his side

To produce rain at will is the present business of Edward Powers of Chicago. The drouths of the rast summer have caused immence damage to the gnowing crops, and he proposes to put a stop to them. The old plan mitted to the First Napoleon in 1815. Then JAPANESE SILKS, who thinks the resources of France can be exhausted in five weeks, let him recall these proofs ! of what the country could do after twenty

MONEY TO LOAN IN SUMS of $400 and upwards, repayable by instalment or otherwise, to suit borrowers. Good Mortgages purchased. Interest 8 per cent. No commission. Charges greatly re-

JAMES SHANNON. Appraiser. Trust and Loan Co. Kingston, 19th October, 1870.

AUCTION.

DRY GOODS BY AUCTION & PRIVATE SALE,

CORNER OF jeaiousy, led him a life of wretchedness and PHINCESS AND BAGOT STREETS, KINGSTON.

W. P. LACEY & Co.

1 17 OULD beg to inform the citizens of King-VV ston and vicinity that on account of I their making a change in their business, they are I slated thus:-"I did not leave her; I did not prising a general assortment of determined to clear out their entire Stock, com- !

MILLINERY, MANTLES, &c, &c,

COMMENCING ON SATURDAY next, the 22nd inst PRIVATE SALE from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M. AUCTION SALE at 7 P.M. each evening. W. P. LACEY & CO.

J. J. LINTON. Auctioneer. Kingston, Oct. 19, 1870.

Sultana Raisins. W. R. MCRAE & CO.

Honey Syrup. W. R. MCRAE & CO.

Layer Raisins. In qr. boxes. For sale. W. R. MCRAE & CO.

New Lemon, Citron and Orange Peels.

W. R. MCRAE & CO.

Our Green Teas mittee; the clergy are insulted in the streets | Comprise the finest selections of Young Hyson | is very rich, in his hands. Lyons is under Our Java and slave and whose power is held by authoriflavour (being the finest imported), they are the most economical to use.

Are now showing

SILKS, in twenty shades of colour-

SES for Evening Wear,

SILK MANTLE VELVETS,

OSTRICH PLUMES,

FRENCH FLOWERS,

FRENCH KID GLOVES,

MALTESE AND CLUNY LACES,

EMBROIDERIES ANDMINGS,

With a profusion of the Newest Novelties of Splendid Value in Wool Hosiery, the season, selected by our own buyers now Blankets at Manufacturers' Prices, in the European markets.

Our entire Stock of SILKS, SATINS and | VELVETS having been purchased before the advance in price, caused by the Franco-Prussian War, we are enabled to offer this class' of Goods at remarkably Low Prices for Ready Money.

R. & J. GARDINER. Kingston, 1st September, 1870.

1 MR T. H. SMITH, Organist of St. George's Cathedral, and Bandmaster P. W. O. Rifles, is prepared to give lessons on the Organ, Piano, and Violin at the residence the pupil and his own.

RESIDENCE-Queen Street, • 1e door above Sydenham Street. PIANOES TUNED.

Aug. 23.

SARAH COPLESTONE. THE CLIFTON FAMILY HOTEL, SATCHELS,

upon the subject of emigration can be procured at the hotel, and will be furnished with pleasure. Persons arriving from the Colonies will find the hotel a comfortable temporary home. Liverpool, Sept., 1870.

W. C. HAVEN & Co., CITOCK AND EXCHANGE BROKERS, and General Insurance Agents, Masonic Buildings, King Street. KINGSTON, Ont. W. C. HAVEN. August 19.

TO RENT.

TINTIL the first of May next, the house and premises on William street, lately occupied by Mr McAlister, and adjoining the resi-Mocha Coffees immediate possession. Apply to D. MACAROW Esq. dence of Isaac Simpson, Esq. Rent low, and Barrister at Law.

Princess street. Kingston, 17th Oct. 1870.

FRENCH MERIN

GLASGOW

Elegant Assortment

... U. Merinos at 50 cents.

WADDELL & CO. are showing has had been suddenly crowned with success. ter

Merinoes at 65, 70, 75, 80, 85 last three weeks. An hour afterward there

HE above goods were bought at least manufacturers' prices, and are decided bargain. Compare our prices parison the true test of cheapness.

Oct. 17. New Fall and Winter Dry Govern

Beautiful Wool Reps, Clan Tartan Plaids, Cheap, French Merinoes, excellent value, Magnificent Irish Poplins, Black Lustres, decidedly Cheap, Silk Mantle Velvets, 27, 30 and 34 inches Sash Ribbons, a large lot. French Kid Gloves in all colours. Wool Shawls in all the Clans, ~, | Scarlet Flannels from 101d, Water Proof Cloakings in Dark Blue, and Grey, Grey and Black. Fancy Beavers for Jackets, TRIM- Fancy Flannels, Cheaper than ever offere 4,000 yards Hoyles' Prints, 71d, worth In All Colours in Fingering Yarns, che Beantitul Stock of Quilted Under Skin 1 Case French Wool Corseis, good,

A S all New Goods are Cheap, you pend on getting the best value

R. WALDRON, Wilson's Buil . (X7ANTED, an experienced Salesm

. AUTUMN and WINTER

THE Stock will now be found er all Departments, and best value in

Coloured and Fancy Silks in Magnificent Black Silks. New Wool Serges and Satin French Merinoes, splendid val Fancy Dress Goods. Wool and Mixed Tartans. Paramattas, Persian Cords. Baratheas, etc. Winceys, very cheap, Mantle Velvets and Velveteens Fancy Cloakings, white and col Millinery, Mantles, Feathers Flowers in great variety. Sash Ribbons.

Real Thread Laces, black and New Kid Gloves. New Tweeds, Beavers and Table Linens, Towellings, Sheet Pillow Cottons, White and Grey Cottons, remain low prices.

Carpers and Oil Cloths. Kingston, Sept. 23, 1870. WORK DRESSING CASES,

Cotton Bags, Cotton Yarn,

JEWEL CASES,

PURSES, &c.,

A LARGE ASSORTMENT

NEW FANCY COOP

SUITABLE FOR PRESENTS.

PRINCESS STREET.

DR HENRY B. EVANS, M.R.C.S., L. Residence—PRINCESS STREET, formely occupied by Dr. Maclean. March 8.

NESDAY EVENING, OCT. 19 SER FIRST PAGE.

TELEGRAPH. CABLE NEWS.

don, Oct. 17 .- A letter from 'rours, dated ' 14th inst., says that within the past! M. WADDELL & French have been brought into unusual pro-A RE SHOWING FRENCH MERINA, of Orleans. The defeat of the France reurs and National Guards was owing to ctive arms. It is said that the Mayor fled a cowardly manner. The Prussians have WADDELL & CO. are showing to Government Departments are full of ation and excitement, and books and nave been hastily packed. Detachments rance Tireurs were marched hurriedly off iu WADDELL & CO. are showing direction of Orleans, followed by a strong! of Chasseurs de Vincennes. The South-

Railroad Depot was besieged with families. WADDELL & CO. are showing brooms actually left with nothing but what they and the was an ounced. Large But what they are to escape, and the departure of extra d carry on their persons. Today everything Ea erg ne a magical change. Early in the | ter afternoon an official notice has posted to ffect that the garrison of Paris made a WADDELL & CO. are showing puts, and captured the positions occupied for Fr report calculated that the Prussians a fall retreat from Orleans. The excitement

siasm was as extreme as the recent The Rue Royale was filled with a rowd of cavalry, infantry, artillery, eurs and National Guards, brandishing and shouting and singing in a terrible | me and declaring what feats they intended against the Prussians. Non ats mingled in great numbers among ary; old men, women and children at en masse to swell the ever-increasing It seemed as if Tours for a time bad By nightfall the numbers diminished, cafes were filled to overflowing, and in them groups congregated, dispersed gregated again, eagerly discussing each sh rumour to which wine and, liquor did not apart a high colouring. e evening, Gambetta gave an address, ating the people on the hopeful nature r, mentioning the names of the posieptured, and calling upon the people sed activity and energy, and to emu- Yo example of the defenders of Paris. roclamation of the suspension of the as and promotions in the army during to that men may rise according to merit | ced revolutionary war of the First Napoadded to the excitement. The military was discussed and met with a noisy d to the fermentation of the day, arrived in the afternoon, and as the ad, crowds rushed to obtain a glimpse an who is regarded as one of the best the army. He appeared dressed in a tary suit, covered with dust, looked drugged, and certainly did not seem inffered much at Metz. His age is over he looks ten years younger. Bourbaki red a regiment of Zonaves, and early shed himself at Zaatcha, where he led It with a cigar in his mouth and a stick At Alma he had charge of the to corps; at Inkerman he was the first with the Zouaves to the assistance of

At the taking of the Malakoff he | ed wounded. A distinguished trait of | bal acter is his frank, outspoken manner. his mind on all occasions and to the authorities. It is currently reported | the asked immediately on his arrival to be by to organize an army specially for the There is great need here, and, a lack of arms. The following is rue, and on undoubted authority: loss of 200,000 stand of arms at | har s Government sent to England to re- flo loss by a purchase of as many rifles as

They obtained some, but nothing | tor umber anticipated. When the French | hol rrived at Birmingham, they found that ssian authorities in England had aderge sums of money on all stock in the | me offered for sale, with the special t that mortgages should be foreclosed rere made to the French. The consa as the French agents were only able! p chance lots not covered by a bill of rance now offers to buy any number of America at 250 francs each, delivered

Oct. 17.—The Hamburg American Pr Thuringia, while proceeding from to to Hamburg, was pursued by several ed the French fleet. In escaping, she ran | def collier, which immediately sunk. No ag . Oct. 17 .- The report that General ! left Metz for Versailles to negotiate a da of the fortress is considered to be Ir here. The rumour that negotiations ing for peace on the basis of the Alsace and Luxemburg to Prussia, elieved to be well founded, and it is nat another interview between Bisand Favre to that end will soon take Oct. 17.—The Moniteur notes with he utter absence of any efforts thus far |-Co he railway communications behind P ssians, and thus jeopardize their sup- | 8 the writer thinks that only a slight would be needed, anywhere between d the Rhine, to compel the sudden wal of the German Army from before | ter on, Oct. 17.—The correspondent of the iting from Berlin, says the bombard. St. Cloud is condemned by the semi | ove and evening papers as an act of vandalmmitted by the very ones who deplore essity for bombarding Paris. On the comb, fired from Fort Mont du Valeri. nto the bedroom of Napoleon I. at St. breaking the famous mirrors. Three shots of the Prussian bombardment of re fired from Bellerue on Friday, the Oct. 17.-The Tablet (Catholic orats the protests of the Pope and Cardimelli against the Italian encroachments . Oct. 17.—The Journal this morning an appeal in favour of the Pope, which ssued by the Catholics of various na-assembled here. e. Oct. 17.—Mazzini, the notorious a agitator, has been set at liberty. Cialdini is said to be in favour of ination of the Duke of Aosta for King

gard, Oct. 17.—The Diet of Wurtemburg the 21st inst. don, Oct. 17 .- The marriage of Princess and the Marquis of Lorne will take place | " Bagally has been elected to Parliament

the Mid-Division of Surrey in place of Hon. steamer City of Baltimore, which arrived from New York, was prevented by a gale calling at Queenstown. portion of a boat with the name American ess on it was washed ashore at Portland don, midnight, Oct. 18.-Negotiaat Brussels, between General Burnsideothers, have resulted in total failure. oreign Office was to-night informed failure, and abandoned all hopes of a The bombardment of Paris commence immediately. The siege were planted yesterday at Chatillon. in, Oct. 18 — The people of Strasbourg y are satisfied with the new order gs. French sentiment has not shown offensively since the capitulation. have been one or two instances of firom the windows on German soldiers ing the city, but the culprits were imh the approbation of all. The official