and subdued, increased in power with varying intensity until it culminated in a cry-a cry of despair. There was a wildness in the sudden rise of the ballad, with strict musical canons, but human - there is no other word for it intensely human, as all Irish music is-mus which, in its subtle and varied shades of meaning, is capable of being expressed by the human voice alone. And Ida sang with true feeling as Miles had taught her. Of herself she cou the genius of the melody. She had character or originality; but, endowed with nature exquisitely sensitive and impress it with a delicacy of finish which he himself had he been gifted with a voice equal to hers. might, perhaps, have failed in attaining. After copies of the News can be procured the prolonged high note came a quick passage this office. like a succession of short passionate sobs, and then a "dying fall," passing into a strain of intensest mournfulness. How utterly powerless are words to convey the hopeless grief, the |abandon of wretchedness, embodied in those plaintive wailing tones! Suddenly the song broke into a glorious major-a swelling tri umphal shout, and ended as with the clash of arms. Miles smiled quietly to himself, and closed the instrument. There was perfect sil- The leading organ announces with great ence for a few moments. Then Lady Emily satisfaction that this much-vexed question asked for something more; but Kavanagh did not choose to comply. He was as intractable wards him, "if we are to be friends at all shouldn't be by halves." Miles instantly offered his hand. Sir Stepher was rather unprepared for this unexpected ad vance; but after the speech he had just made, mantel-piece, gazed into it absently.

"Well, Miles," said Sir Stephen, coming to "Do you want me to gooseberry? Come here, She came and stood between them. Miles drew his arm round her waist. Sir Stephen was staggered. "You'd better kiss her, hadn't you ?" he said roughly. Miles took her hand and lifted it reverently to his lips. There was a delicate and touching grace in the action.

towards her with a smile at once grave and

"And me, too, Miles," she answered. Some years after the scenes I have attemptand enthusiasm of his nature in advocating the claims of his native land. Pshaw! enough of fancy.

The reality is too terrible. not in Parliament, which he will never enter. nor yet at Brabazon Castle, for no such place exists-I saw him in prison.

GANANOQUE. - Next week the annual social of the Wesleyan Methodist Church at Ganan- He has views of his own. He is a native oque, of which the Rev. Mr Sutherland, late of Canadian with instincts and feelings which ing there was a grand gathering of mariners the City Hall to-night by the Herndon troupe. this city, is the esteemed pastor, comes off. It these two Scotchmen cannot share. He has and shipowners and friends at St. Catharines, It is their last night. Give them a bumper. will be attended by many from this city. The already shown a disposition to kick over the and the News of that town says that the event They deserve it. choir will assist in the musical programme, and Rev. Mr Carson will be one of the

THE INQUEST. - Yesterday afternoon Coroner Shaw held an investigation as to the death of the man Cameron, found a corpse near the entrance to the lawn of the Hon. A. hold in check. He is either moodily silent Dominion. Campbell's residence. The facts as related in or unwisely loquacious, talking of "reour last issue were elicited in evidence, and other The Band Concert.—The agreeable weathrecently engaged in the service of a gentleman it he felt that he had lost his leadership, the jury, after a short deliberation, rendered things new and strange, which were never er of last evening induced a large number of at Cape Vincent. All went well for a while; and would hereafter act according to his a verdict to the effect that in an intoxicated down in the Grit programme. He has not persons to attend the concert of the Garrison but yesterday she could no longer resist the own judgment entirely. condition he had fallen or laid down in the yet learned the first lesson of Gritism- Baud in the Ontario Hall. The music was in- temptation, and robbed her employer of about disappointment has been experienced at constituency for Mr Brown and ask him to derly fit, arising from inxtoxication, smashed Londou over the concert of this troupe, owing to Miss Patti's illness with a sore threat at Fort Wavne Michigan. However the Free Fort Wavne Michigan. However the Free them to inglorious defeat so repeatedly, and the party in the House. But the windows of Mr Thornton's restaurant last night. The case was settled by the prisoner paying all damages and law costs. Mrs Campaying all damages and law costs. M management, the audience, which was num- incubus of his party. Doubtless the counerous, accepted the exceeding amiability of try reaps the benefit, for whilst the Great the rest, as some compensation for her non- Blunderer retains his present relation to the St. Patrick's Society hold their adjourned gencer. appearance. Signor Mario was received rather the Opposition party in the House of Com- meeting to make the necessary preparation for in a spirit of reverence, than enthusiasm. mens, the affairs of the country will con-As we listen to his notes—some broken, tinue to be controlled by a body of men imperfect, and wanting in viger and fresh. who from long experience added to great ness, we wonder at the decadence of the administrative ability, have become emvoice that, in its time, has held Europe in inently versed in the management of liminaries for observance of the same event. be the Mario of old. Yet here is a strain of delicious sweetness, a cadence of perfect and exquisite melody—a flash of divine music, springing out like a glad memory of the past. It is a brief reminiscence of the Mario that was. In short, the concert was a good is winding up. The Maple Leaf Club hold dellar's worth, but not two dellar's worth, their closing assembly on Thursday evening.

DAILY NEWS

LHEADS, CIRCULARS, POSTERS PAMPHLETS, HAND BILLS, AND EVERY OTHER DESCRIPTION OF PRINTING

DAILY NEWS

JAMES SHANNON, PROPRIETOR.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. attention. Everything forwarded for insertion must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of authenticity It is also requested that correspondents will only write on one side of the sheet of paper. cannot undertake to return against purchasing copies of the News from Carrier Boys. The should be discouraged. Single at any of the Bookstores and at

THE LEADERSHIP OF THE OPPOSITION.

has finally been set at rest, and that Mr a being as existed. He walked across the Mackenzie has been "unanimously elected room to the fire, and leaning his arm on the to the leadership." It is further stated that -"private and personal consideracaused Mr Blake's name | need ever fear to follow. grasped Miles's hand warmly enough, looking half curiously, half amused, at the grave, inhalf curiously, half amused, scrutable physiognomy of the boy. Standing eral, who shall marshal the forces of the of describing him. He is a Barrister by pro. in the water, but is rescued from drowning Lord Palmerston to the effect that such a On Monday of last week, February 17, there together they presented a striking con- Opposition party in our House of Com- fession, and resides at Brockville. He was by The Stranger, who is so reticent and fos- society belonged to the middle ages, and the Lord Bishop of Huron, accompanied been handsome, garnished with a pro- for one over another, even among those fusion of black hair and whiskers-Miles, with whose political views we don't letic, the rich waves of his chestnut hair il. sympathise. We may be permitted to say Cameron. luminating his pale, youthful face, of which then frankly what we think about it, and no beard yet concealed the severe Greek beau-ty. Of the two Miles looked the aristocrat. that is—we dont believe Mr McKenzie is of the House. Next to Mr Crooks, and at the cal strength to organize a society aimed interpreter. Among those who were con-Strength was a characteristic of both men; by any means so representative a man as Mr third desk, sits the Hon. R. W. Scott, Com. Court. He does so, and encounters his wife. but in one it might be termed active and in the Blake. In the first place he is not a Cana- missioner of Crewn Lands. Probably no mem. Act five exhibits an affecting interview between passive. In Sir Stephen's mien and bearing there was power, passionate and fitful; in that there was power, passionate and fitful; in that three very passio of Miles a latent force, still unswerving, inof Miles a latent force, still unswerving, inHon. E. Wood supported the amenddelighted to meet the Bishop, and would when they chose, inexpressibly winning. 'Let at the present stage of its history, it should years a member of the old; Canadian Parlia, wrongs. The children are brought her for a ment. At the general election of 1862 to ment last look and kiss; she holds one in her arms have for its leading statesmen men who are ment. At the general election of 1863 he was last look and kiss; she holds one in her arms, to the amendment. Sir Stephen hardly knew whether to be thoroughly Canadian in feeling and sentiamused or angry at the boy's naive boldness. ment, who have the strongest feeling of attachment to this land as the one round

We have no doubt Mr Mackenzie was claims to be a Reformer. the Globe's candidate for the leadership of Next to Mr Scott sits Mr McKim, member the Opposition, and, we presume, it was for the North Riding of Wellington. Mr Sir Stephen could stand no more. Turning owing to the fact that the Globe's candidate McKim is a plain man, of not unpleasant feato his wife, he exclaimed, "Emily, he kisses had to be chosen nolens volens, that the party tures, and a steady Grit in so far as voting is "Mr Kavanagh!" was all she could utter. have made their present choice. Such a concerned. He sat in the last Parliament,-Miles drew Ida over to her sofa, and, bending result is the natural consequence of the Yours, sweet, he said, "He gave me leave, Lady anomalous constitution of the party, with its real leader outside of the House. We can quite understand that Mr Brown has Putnam's funeral sermon on Sunday evening years, the fine days will likely come in a rush. ed to portray I saw Miles Kavanagh again. far greater sympathy with Mr Mackenzie at St. i'aul's Church. It was in the British House of Commons. He | than he has with Mr Blake. They are both rose to speak. I listened with eager atten- Scotchmen, of very much the same type and from hislips, while he displayed his rare powers class, their minds run very much in the thedral to-morrow at 11 o'clock. of thought and intellect will all the courage same grooves (decidedly narrow-gauge they are) and they have shivered together in the cannot get down to it. Then Mr Blake is somewhat dangerous. traces, and when his blood is up he will w assert his independence, and inform the in closer bonds of friendshipall those who have bakels of barley, 5,310 bbls butter, besides Toronto a year age, that he is the leader of our country's marine. Too little attention has the United States via Cape Vincent. the reform party of Ontario, outside as well been paid to this important class of our comas inside the House. He is a rash young man munity, who are bound to exercise such an imwith deep ambitions which he cannot always portant influence on the future of our great proclivities, for the exercise of which she has and Orangemen had done more for Catholics than the Reformers had every done a course for yourself." This kind of thing little trouble and inconvenience for the band THE MARKET.—The inclement weather was is of course injurious to the party, and has to hold so many pleasant entertainments as PATTI MARIO CONCERT.—Censiderable net hybrid, is this—they would find a Strange, P.M.)—Thomas Wheeler, in a disor- we do with it?

> It is said that Mr Alexander McKenzie has been elected leader of the Opposition at Ottawa, Mr Blake declining the honour.

NEAR A CLOSE, -The terpischorian season row evening.

Toronto, March 6 .- Dear Sir, -I think I

Toronto Correspondence.

closed my last letter by referring to the Hon. exening by Herndon's Opera House Company, the two first desks in the front row, on the unprecedented popularity, as general faright of the Speaker, while on his left on the vourities, which they have been in all places Opposition side of the House, the two first they have visited throughout the Province. I desks are occupied by the Hon. M. C. Cameron | The Stranger there was nothing to excite unand Mr H. S. McDonald.

and is probably the best speaker and debater tion of husband and wife. "Mrs Halder" ing the position of Provincial Secretary for teen," captivated at an English the Hon. Stephen Richards in the position of Healey) and with pledges of eternal devotion, Mr Merrick moved an amendment that tested the Riding with him and defeated him, lessly from his heart and forgotten; on the Ontario was rejected yesterday. The public are strictly cautioned Mr McDougall retiring to North Lanark, where contrary, although her unfaith futness and un-Mr Robert Bell resigned to make way for him. pardonable conduct, crushed his aspirations boys receive the papers only for At the general election of 1867, Mr Cameron and peace of conscience forever, he loved her regular subscribers, and any boy was a candidate for North Ontario for the madly still. The children were placed under referred back to the committee with i was, however, returned to the Ontario Assem- Stranger quits the home with which his bill and pass the other clauses of the bil bly for East Toronto, and has ever since con- brightest recollections are entwined, and retinued to represent that constituency. Mr tires to live as a hermit, with only a servant Cameron is a stannch Conservative, and a man to hold converse with, and to break at inter- rancorous spirit between the opposite relis right, he might have more apparent success | ments, his sorrowful expression of countenance are brown in colour. He is lame, and frequent- fort" (Mr Miller) to a friend's residence near | reverence in which King William's mem-returned in the Conservative interest for ters such a hatred for society that he refus- was out of place at the present time.

1867 he was returned as a member of the On. falls into her husband's arms—dead. The tario Assembly, and has ever since sat for Ot. Omnibus (with Mr Ward as "Pat Rooney") tawa in that House. Mr Scott wears his hair | concluded the programme with "side-splitting" which all they value mest is centered, and very long; also his beard. Both are of a light laughter. The New York sensation, Under who dont borrow their political inspirations | yellow colour, inclined to become grey. Mr | the Gaslight, will be played this evening, when Scott was formerly a Conservative, but now the Company make their last appearance.

CORRESPONDENT.

The Dean of Ontario will preach in the Ca-

The Returning Officer has issued his proclacold shades of Opposition in years gone by. mation, announcing that the nomination for Mr McKenzie knows what will suit the the office of Reeve of the township of King-1 saw Miles Kavanagh again; but it was Globe, and how far the Globe can be made ston, will be held in the Town Hall, Cataraqui, to suit the party. Mr Blake hardly conde- on Tuesday, the 11th inst., at 1 p.m. We hope scends to such knowledge, it is too low, he that Mr Vanluven's friends will strain overy nerve to increase his majority.

will form a new era in the nautical history of

-"Don't thing of attempting to chalk out ciated by the audience. It is a matter of no cent and Kingston are on her trail.

REMINDERS. "Under the Gas Light" in the City Hall

this evening. Funeral sermon in St. Paul's Church to-mor-Adjourned meeting of the St. Patrick's So-

THE THEATRE. -- Kotzebue's pathetic five act play of The Stranger, was presented last Treasurer Crooks. He and Mr Mowat occupy and in a manner calculated to increase their usual enthusiasm. It was a tale of domestic Mr Cameron is the leader of the Opposition, infelicity, the effect of which was the separamost of the time, but ultimately succeeding lage, the affections of "The Stranger," (Mr

CHANGEABLE.—Now for the variations of Government was not agreed as to the treat-March weather. The tastes of people are ment of this measure. Individually he known to be diversified, and as far as the at- ould vote for Mr M: Donald's a non lineat. mospheric changes of this month are concern- Hon. Mr Crooks announced that he was ed surely all must in turn be suited. This not in accord with his leader and would week is decidedly spring-like, and believing, Vote against him. as historians tell us, that such a long winters The Rev. Mr Mulock will preach Captain as that of 1872-73 occurs but once in ten The sleighing at present is almost played > put in preparation for service. The ice is cov- or political organization. ered to-day with about five inches of water, with a prospect of becoming of greater depth. Sleighing across the channel is quite good, but less than evenhanded justice to Catholics. rather unpleasant owing to the great quantity of slush. It is questionable how long the icebridge may last. The prospects of a lengthy tenure of office are rather blue.

country, as he did in the assembly at a part or share in advancing the interests of general merchandise have been exported to went through the ordeal of a criminal examination before the Police Magistrate several times, that on account of the Premier supporting place indicated, and perished from exposure to "Follow your leader, Mr George Brewn," spiriting and enjoyable, and was much appre- $60 worth of goods. The police of Cape Vinattendance of buyers and sellers was very meagre, and the supply of commodities was unfitted by his training, for the company meagre, and the supply of commodities was unfitted by his training, for the company of the supply of in bonds of the municipalities which have to ing he had married a Protestant wife. (Laugh party would do if their organization were Police Court, Saturday,—(Before Mr Kingston will be about $25,000. What will society, as was shown by the way the Orange vote went in Kingston. (Hear, hear.) The

The Crange Incorporation Act. This is a matter upon which epinious differ very materially.

Could point to the time when a norde of ragature ter upon which epinious differ very materially.

Saturday Evening, March 7th, Auction Prices, THE CELEBRATION. - On Monday evening it in attempting to do so. - Belleville Intelliplease both sides, and its silence will not aid appear thick, like freshly fallen show. In the served its support. (Cheers.) latter case, the cream ought to be warmed, The House then divided on the amendment, and in the former, cooled. The appearance of which was carried; yeas, 38; nays, 30. the butter globules also serves to indicate Yeas. -Messrs. Barber, Bethune, Boulter, whether the cream is too warm or too cool. Boultbee, Calvin, Cameron, Clarke, (Norfolk), In the former case, the globules are soft and Code, Corby, Craig (Russell), Deacon, Deroche, melting, in the latter, hard; in both cases a Fairbairn. Farewell, Ferguson, Fitzsimmons, Legislature of Ontario. Toronto, March 6 .- The Speaker took the chair at 3:20.

After routine proceedings. Mr Merrick asked whether it was the intention of the Chairman of the Private liams (Hamilton) . In Bills Committee to move the reception of A number of private bills were then ad- TRESH GARDEN, Flower.

Mr Rykert asked how it was that the report appeared on the Orders of the Day, as in the House. He was a member of the first (Mrs Herndon), in the gushing attractions of it had not been received. The Speaker Government of the Province of Ontario, hold- nature, innocence and beauty of "sweet six- said it was competent now for any member to move the adoption of the report. Mr Pardee moved the reception of the re-returned for the North Riding of Ontario. At relations. Two lovely children are the offspr ng report the reasons which moved the com- five thousand dollars? the general election of 1863 he was defeated of this, then thought, happy union, when some mittee not to report the bill to incorporate by the Hon. William McDougall, but upon villainous person (not impersonated) blights the Loyal Orange Association of Eastern that gentleman entering the Coalition Govern- the marital bliss by seducing and absconding bill for the incorporation of the Orange Soment of 1864 as one of the Reform members with The Stranger's "better half." The ciety of Western Ontario was passed to-day thereof, he had to return to his constituency Stranger's atttachment for the earng one was by a majority of two, while the bill for the fer re-election, and Mr Cameron again con- too intense and deep-rooted to be torn ruth- incorporation of the Orange Society of East

Mr Macdonald said he had introduced the two bills, which were precisely similar. He moved in amendment to the amend ment that the report be not received, but selling the paper is dishouest, and House of Commons, but was defeated. He the kind protection of a guardian, and The structions to prove the preamble of the

Mr Fraser was pained to have to take

is one of the most earnest Conservatives in the Countess to receive their thanks. Baron men opposite had introduced this painful tered the apostolic rite of Confirmation House. He is a warm supporter of Mr Steinfort, who has endeavoured unsuccessfully abigoted society, and he should be indignant The Bishop afterwards gave an earnest to woo Mrs Halder, seeks The Stranger, and to see the Roman Catholics of the lower and affectionate address to the candidates thought much might be made. He is he put up for sale so large a quantity of the tence, and pleads in pitying accents for for ment to the amendment as he thought that not suffer him to leave until they had given "You're too clever by half," remarked Sir rather too Scotch, (and we use the expression of the Orange body ought to have the same privible of the hand. This is Miles lifted his eyes pleadingly to Sir Ste. sion in no offensive way)--the idea which profession, and resides at Ottawa, or in the within his bosom, he is determined tears and legos as the Christian Brothers, and other the first episcopal visit ever made to Kettle phen's face. Those grey eyes of his could be, we wish to express is that in this country vicinity of that city. Mr Scott was for many entreaties shall not make atonement for his religious bodies having propagandism as Point.

Mr Bethune supported the amendment incorporation had not been applied for. Mr Craig (Glengarry)opposed the passing of the act as it would raise sectarianism. Mr Boultbee was opposed to the incorp- invited to attend. orating of the Orange society, but he would vote for the amendment.

Mr Ardagh was opposed to both amend-

Mr Sinclair would vote against incorporating the Orange Society.

It being six o'clock the House rose. After recess Mr Sinclair resumed the ICE BOATS.—These useful craft are being opposing the passage of the bill was that he objected to the incorporation of any secret

POSITIVELY LAST NIGHT

A good programme has been prepared to the incorporation of any secret are under the direction of Mr F debate, and said that his chief reason for

Mr McCall would vote for the amendment of the member for South Leeds, and believed that in doing so he was doing no Mr Fairbairn said that as Orangemen had a legal evistence now, though not a cor- BRASS BAND AND ORCHESTRA. porate body, he could see no reason why they should not be incorporated. He denied emphatically that they interfered with the Saturday religious liberty of any man.

Mr McDenald vigorousla defended the Orange assoc iation, which, he said, was not aggressive but defensive in its character. The bill had been introduced at the request of both the Eastern and Western associations of the Orange body, and all that was wanted was fair play like that accorded to other

Mr Rykert was not particularly in favor LIGHTNING EXPRESS. of such legislation as that before the House but still the bill only asked for what it A RAID.—A young girl, of remarkably fast vote for it. He claimed that Conservatives Doc olics than the Reformers had ever done.

Mr Robinson denied that this measure was TENDERS will be received by the under-

Mr Robinson said yes, but many of the volunteers were Orangemen. He noticed that AUCTION ROOMS BUTTRE MAKING.—It requires both atten- the Kingston House of Industry and given it the celebration of the anniversary of Ireland's tion and experience to produce butter in the to the Catholic House of Providence. (Hear, Tutelar Saint, which they propose to commemor. shortest time. If the cream pe too warm, it froths a great deal and a thin liquid appears in had let the bill slip he (Mr Robinson) would have brought it up himself. The country ate withgrand eclat. The Young Men's Sham- irotns a great deal and a thin inquite appears in the vessel, especially at high temperatures; have brought it up himself. The country rock Benevolent Association, Portsmouth So- when the cream is too cold, it froths too, but would support that hon, gentleman, for he de-slower churning is advisable. Old cream produces butter sooner than fresh. A temperature between 70° and 80° is best in churning, and the cream should be skimmed off. Fresh air and strict cleanliness of the vessels are indispensable.

Fairbairn, Farewell, Ferguson, Fitzsimmons, McLauder, Rardam, Grange, Guest, Harrington, Lauder, Rae, Mercdith, McLeod, McManus, McLaed, McManus, McRobinson, Rykert, Scott (Grey), Mowat, Also Lot No. 18, Alwington Avenue Webb, Williams (Durham), Wood (Wictoria)—38.

J an. 24.

NAYS. -- Messrs Ardagh, Baxter, Christie, Clarke (Wellington), Clemens, Cook, Craig W. Sawyer, Portrait (Glengary), Crooks, Crosby, Dawson, Finlaylar, McKim, Oliver, Pardee, Patterson, Paxton, Prince, Scott (Ottawa), Sexton, Sinclair, Smith, Snetsinger, Springer, Striker, Wil-

the report having reference to the Orange. vanced a stage, and the House adjourned at H Shrub, Evergreen, Fruit

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

(Per Montreal Line.) Municipal Loan Fund Bill. Parliament House, Toronto, March 8. The Seedlings, Bulbs, Roses, Vines scheme brought down yesterday makes an al- assortment in America. lowance of two dollars per head payable in Priced Catalogues to any address Commissioner of Crown Lands. Mr Cameron enters the bonds of wedlock, with the hearty the report be not now received, but referred bonds of the municipalities which have to pay List, gratis. Seeds on Commissioner of Crown Lands. first entered Parliament in 1861, when he was well wishes and consent of the lady's intimate back to the committee with instructions to up. Kingston will receive about twenty-

Commercial.

MONTREAL STOCK MARKET

Montreal, March 8 Bank of Montreal-183 asked, 1821 offered; ol sold at 1823. Merchants' Bank-1141 asked, 114 offered.

Bank of Commerce—1224 asked, 122 offered; NEW SPRING Ontario Bank-1021 asked, 1011 offered. Bank of Toronto-207 asked, 200 offered. Royal Canadian Bank-1001 asked, 100 offered; 25 sold at 1001; 24 at 100. Graphic-112 asked, 110 offered t 112½; 20 at 113.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE EVENING NEWSof high honour and strict integrity. Such a vals the silent reverie of his painful igionists. He looked upon this organiza- by the morning newspapers about the insigni-PAPERS, -- Much has been said in times past men will elevate the character of any party to thoughts. Since his wife's runaway his tion as a political body, and as such should ficance of their evening comporaries. Until which he may belong. Perhaps were he more spirits have sunken to the lowest ebbof misery, not be incorporated. He repudiated the within a few years they may have been justisupple and less strict in his adherence to what which is vividly depicted in his restless move- charge of his being bigoted, and and con- fied in their boasts that they left nothing for tended that he only opposed the bill on ac- us to record. But that was in the days when in politics. In appearance Mr Cameron is tall and emotional pathos of voice. A visit of ciety. He read from the constitu- held good long after the telegraph came into value. and slender, with a not unpleasant face. He "Count Winterson" (Mr Allen) and "Countess tion of the Society. He read from use, and before the evening newspapers had wears side whiskers, and his hair and whiskers. Winterson" (Mrs Healey) and "Baron Stein- the constitution of the Society showing the the enterprise to use the advantages given y walks with a crutch. Taken all in all, Mr

Cameron is a man whom any party may feel

Wrs. Halder. The youthful boy of Count

This organization, which was secret as well

This organization or was held, and undertook to prove that a slight was cast upon the Roman Catholics.

This organization, which was secret as well than ever. proud to have as a leader, and whom no man Winterson is left to "Peter" (Mr Hernden). as political, ought not to receive legal entity are at the command of liberal enterprise, there "Mr Solomon's" (Mr Ryder) son, to amuse from this House. He also read the oath that is no reason why almost a complete history of to be with-drawn." Now it may be said Immediately to Mr Cameron's left, at the while the child's parents were going through the Orangeman was bound to take upon the day should not be given in the evening that it is none of our business to meddle second Opposition desk, sits Mr H. S. Mc. the ceremonies of a reception. Thoughtlessly entering the society, which he held to be They who read a journal at their six o'clock din with this matter, but perhaps we have an Donald, the member for the South Riding of Peter left the young heir on a dilapidated most bigoted. He dare not ask incorporation the member for the registrous of their neighbours he could do nothing less than accept it. He interest in it too, for it is a consideration Leeds. Mr McDonald is so well known in bridge over a stream adjoining the lawn; the Catholic and society suited to a Roman who wait for the morning papers. And events To arrive—1 CASE BLACK, or > by the Rev. J. Jacobs, went to Kettle South Leeds at the last general election, and ed an interview with the Count and Hon. Mr Scott regretted that the gentle- Point, Indian Reservation, and adminisfirmed were Chief Isaac Shawmoo, sixty

> > On Friday, March 7, at the residence of his Hon, Mr Cameron was in favour of son-in-law, Hugh C. Rothwell, Esq., Rideau granting the privilege to the Orange society | street, Kingston, Ont., in the 68th year of her though he would have preferred the act of age, Zelica Dalrymple, relict of the late Wm. Batt, Esq., of Mount Charles, near Kingstor The funeral will take place on Monday, at 2:30 p.m., from the residence of Hugh C. Rothwell, Esq., Rideau street. Friends are

NOTICE.

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Shareholders of the Frontenac Loan and In vestment Society will be held in the Secretary's Office on WEDNESDAY, the 19th of March, at the hour of 3 o'clock p.m. THOS. BRIGGS.

Kingston, March 8, 1873

Herndon's Opera House Company,

> Evening, March 8, The Great Sensational Play of

LOOK OUT FOR THE

Admission 25 cents; Reserved Seats 50

Doors open at 7:15; Curtain rises at 8. Serenade by the Band in front of the Hall March 8, 1873.

To Builders.

thrown into the House as a firebrand. He was always a Reformer, so much so that he felt sorry to see Mr Scott enter the Cabinet, but from what he had seen he thought the of three Dwelling Houses for Edwin Chown,

Consisting of Plans and specifications may be seen at my DRY

The lowest tender not necessarily accepted JOHN POWER. Queen Street, 7th March, 1873.

BENJANIN HOLDER.

PRINCESS STREET. Sale at 7 p.m. March 7.

For Sale. TIWO FIRST-CLASS Cut Stone Houses Also Lot No. 18, Alwington Avenue, 70 County; good and commodio eet in front by 180 feet in denth judicious assortment. 25 sorts of eith Five hundred ol. The six classes (150 packets) Also, an immense stock of on Fruit Trees, Small Fruits. Young Fruit, Ornamental and Border Plants, &c., &c., the mos B. M. WATSCN, Old Colony and Seed Warehouse, Plymouth,

S IN KINGSTON again. d Wellington Streets. March 7th, 1873.

the United S

It is rumour

BALES GREY COTTONS

4 BALES HORROCK'S COTTO 2 CASES FANCY DRESS New Styles and Shades. 1 CASE ENGLISH SCOTCH TO I CASE COTTON TWEEDS.

2 CASES FANCY LIGHT PRINTS he circumstan 25 PIECES BROWN HOLLAN CASE HARWOOD AND

1 CASE RIBBONS, TIES AND 2 BALES WHITE COTTON

3 CASES CANADIAN TWEED All Woollen and Fancy Goods falls to the report cent lower than last year's prices.

An early call solicited at the LIVERPOOL March 7, 1873.

per gallon; 5 Gallens for $1.85, a The Monty

157 Princess Street

March 7, 1873.

Literary and Mu Entertainment

A LITERARY and Musical Ent under the auspices of Wilson Independent order of Good Tem given in VICTORIA MUSIC HALL are under the direction of Mr E. Down Admission 15 cents.

March 6.

Stock for Sale. TITHE subscriber baving the leaving the city in the sprin Rolling Machines, Rests, Printing Negatives, including Stereoscopic a Views, Frames of all kinds, Glass ture, Backgrounds, &c., &c., &c.

> H. HENDERSOI March 4th, 1873.

fairly

BLEYAN)

T. MARY'S C

ing Service

ass 8:00 a.m.,

G00

STORE ON BROCK ST

Consisting of a General Stock

OF THE F BROCK STREET.

Sale to open on Saturday. Kingston, March 5, 1873. Stirling House, Stir

County of Hastings TIRST CLASS HOTEL-C celled by any House in the The House and Furniture are not is at all times furnished wit Liquors ; the Table is second