titions shall be presented. Mr J. Hillyard Cameron pointed out that in MURRAY, WILLIAM, Anchor Buildings, 1867 the Speaker ruled that the first day of the session was a dies non, and as the same WERNER, F., Princess-st. view prevailed in England, he held that it could not be regarded as one of the fourteen days within which petitions could be present-

After some discussion Sir John Macdonald STACEY, E., King-st. said that as it was a matter of some importauce time should be taken to consider it. The Speaker said that, although he had in no way changed his views on the question since his decision in 1867, he would yield to the request and allow it to stand over until

It is well known that the German authorities look with great uneasiness upon the large emigration going on from Germany to MACNEE & WADDELL, Princess-st. America, but it is semi-officially denied that the Government has intended to take any MORRISON, M., Princess-st. direct measure to hinder it. It is often asserted that the only interference of the authorities in this matter has been to protect DONNELLY JOSEPH Princess-st.
