REPEAL OF THE BALLOT IN NOVA

The Ballot, according to the Halifax Er- TOWN, R., Market Square, press, has been tried in Nova Scotia and REES BROS., Princess-st. found wanting "We remember," it says, "the first election run under it -that for CLARK, F. M., Wellington-st. Halifax County-when P. C. Hill and the CLEMENT, L., Wellington-st. late Hon. Wm. Garvie contested. No sooner MACDONALD, J. L., Princess-st, had the machinery of the ballot been set in motion, then feurses" upon the system, HEATH & GUNN, Princess-st. "loud and deep," rose up from all parties. HOBART, GEO., Princess-st. The trouble and vexation about it caused this; while, at the same time, no secrecy of PARKER, E. H., Market Square. how persons intended to vote was observed WHITE, R., Princess-st. or even dreamt of. The fact is, the whole YOUNG, SILLS & CO., Bath. thing was a farce. Go to any polling booth you liked, and you would find the "Antis" DUPUIS, THOS R., Princess-st. bringing up their men, and the Confods EVANS, H. B., Princess-st. theirs. Anti "teams," decorated with blue JARVIS, J., Wellington-st. ribbons, in order that the public should know | McCAMMON, JAMES, Wellington st how the men they carried up secretly voted. Confed "teams" decorated with red ribbons, COUSINEAU, F. X. & CO., Princess-st. did the same; and this ludicrous farce was ERLY, L. J., Princess-st. played throughout the county. The election GARDINER, R. & J., Princess st. ever, a scrutiny was demanded, there being GREENFIELD, JAMES, Princess-et a difference of only 17 votes or so, in favor | MACNEE & WADDELL, Princess-st. of Mr Hill. Then came the difficulty, the MACPHERSON, A. B. & CO., Princess-st. votes of persons supposed to have no legal McDONELL, A. The final SHAW & MINNES, Princess-st. result was a partisan Committee declared WALDRON, R., Wilson's Buildings, Welof proof of its being so. This was enough even for the members of the Legislature, MACNEE & WADDELL, Princess-st. was repealed, in the Assembly, but the Legislative Council refused to pass the repealing Bill on the ground that the Ballot System had not had a fair trial, and that as a BEGG, WM. & CO., Brock-st. general election had to be run in a short DONNELLY JOSEPH Princess-st. time, it could then be seen how the system | HARBACK & CO., Princess-st.

HOW THE QUEEN OF SPAIN WAS INSULTED.

The ingenuity of the ladies of the Madrid SCOTT & BALTON, Princess-st. aristocracy in showing their contempt for SCOBELL, BROS, corner of Brock and Onthe late king and queen was something wonderful, but it was not always completely successful. Their majesties frequented the YARKER, JAS. S., Princess-st. Pardo every afternoon and Amadeus was considered the most accomplished horseman in Madrid. It was in this public promenade ALBION HOTEL, Stirling. that the ingenious ladies devised a way to DANIELS HOTEL, Ottawa. show their disrespect of the queen. The 'INTERNATIONAL," Brockville. correspondent of the London News says

A strange device of the female aristocrats | STIRLING HOTEL, Stirling. was adopted to indicate to the queen that they considered her an interloper. The ETNA FIRE, James Swift, St. Lawrence shell comb was in the old days the universal lilar FORD, J. V. Noel. head-gear of Spanish ladies. The grand ROYAL, M. W. Strange, Clarence-st. ladies, at the instigation, it is said, of the RELIANCE, J. V. Noel. marchioness of Alcanics-better known as WESTERN-M. W. STRANGE, Agent. the duchess of Morny-determined to revive this costume, and to appear in it CRIDIFORD, JOHN, King-st. simultaneously one day on the afternoon GRIGOR, C., Sheffield House, Princess-st. drive in the Pardo. Parisian bonnets gave REES BROS., Princess-st. place to the white mantilla, and bewildering coiffures to the plain braided locks and the BAWDEN, JOSEPH, King-st. high torteise-shell comb. The queen, as drove, noticed the strange change of fashion, KIRKPATRICK, A. S., County Crown Atthere it would have been well. The MACDONALD & PATTON, Trust and Loan paltriness of the motive took away the sting of the slight. When the ladies of the Spanish noblesse chose to indicate in this 10DIE, JOHN, Clarence-st. tortuous fashion to the queen that they SULLIVAN, W. H., Clarence-st. were Spaniards of the bluest blood and that WALKEM, R. T., Clarence-st. she was a foreigner unentitled to recognition as a Spaniard, they only told the royal THOMPSON, GEO., King-st. couple and the Spanish people what both knew well enough already. But Sagasta, McCAMMON, S., Gananoque. not see that dignified indifference was the MEE & CO., Gore-st. best retort. He sought out a number of REYNER, JOSEPH, Princess-st. acter, had them arraged in white mantillas WEBER & CO., corner Princess and Ontariohandsome private carriages, and suddenly REYNER, J., Princess-st. turned the good-for-nothing cortege on to the Pardo, to mingle with the dames of ancient lineage and reputations untarnished. It was sauve qui peut with the noble ladies. Madrid took up the coarse and undignified STEAM SAW MILLS, Barriefield. joke. Some of the women were mobbed as they dreve home in a splender to them so unwonted, their mantillas were torn off and the tortoise-shell combs seriously McINTOSH, DANIEL, City Hotel, Princess- or of the ladies were handled after a similar fashion; anyhow, Sagasta's coup abolished white mantillas on the Prado.
