an apparently well-filled purse, a pocketcomb, a watch, and a heavy double barreled pistel, the latter of which the monk inform ed us had been loaded with extraordinary charges of powder, balls and buckshot. I gazed upon the face of the dead, and even at the door of an ale-house, when -O God! the hushed bosom. As I still gazed I heard a quick, stiffe cry at my side, and on turn ing I was half frightened by the expression of my companion's countenance. His eveballs seemed actually starting from their sockets, his mouth was half open and fixed. his hands, which were extended towards the corpse, trembled like vibrating harpstrings, and his very hair seemed fretful pallid face, and sinking down upon his his cold, powerless corpse that we saw to-night knees, he clasped his hands towards heaven "Great God, I thank thee! I thank thee! thanks! thanks! thanks! he ejaculated in frantic tones, and then he areso and looked once more upon the face of the corpse. Then his eyes wandered to the heavy pistol that lay upon the sable pall, and while a cold shudder passed through his frame he took me by the arm.

Without heeding the mute astenishment of the monk, I followed H ---- from the church, and ere long we were seated upon a balcony that overlooked the beautiful Straits of Messina. My companion's nerves had become somewhat composed, and I could see that there was an intense satisfaction depicted in every lineament of his counten

"Mr C-_," he commenced, "I can tell you my story in a few words. Nearly twenty years ago I fell in with a young girl in city of New York. On my part the acceremony, I accidentally heard my affianced ints office. bride use some most obscene and prefane language in company with one of her female acquaintances. You can judge of my feelings under these circumstances much better than I can describe them. I turned away sick at heart, and on the very next day I recoived indubitable proofs of the utter infidelity of the object of my affections, and I at once broke off my engagement. Upon being questioned by some of my companions and came up to the desk where I was writ- face of frequent denials by his too zealous ed contradiction. Any respectable paper returned. gether, and his face was livid with rage. He friends, that he did receive $17,000 from under like circumstances would have apolotold me I had forever blasted the reputation Mr Millar, and that he did give a receipt gized, but since the Whig turned its coat, it of his sister—that I had faithlessly desert- for it as agent of the Association, and has fallen from decency. In place of aced her, and left her broken hearted. I then he becomes very hazy as to the knowledging its error, it impertinently gave from complying with such a request; but J had also higher scruples, and of course 1 apprehended, publicly tried, fined and placed under bonds to keep the peace. had accomplished his purpose. I knew that should know. There is a name not very joined John Watkins, Esq., in the hardware estimated at $25,000 each. he meant just what he had said, and fear odorous in the minds of many of our com. business. Mr Watkins retired in 1860, after one night, as I was passing a dark alley near with many failures in point of duty. He profitable business, and his name was well half of the organ fund of the Queen Street and a joint stock company is talked of to rethe head of Cherry Street, I heard the re- has represented himself as an agent of an known among business men overthe Dominion Wesleyan Methodist Church. The prepara- sume former operations with renewed vigour. port of a pistol close to me and a bullet pasemigration association, when in reality he impeachable. He served as an officer in the impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete, impeachable. He served as an officer in the

impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete, impeachable. He served as an officer in the
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete, impeachable. He served as an officer in the
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete,
impeachable. The preparation of the programme, now nearly complete, impeachable of the programme, now nearly complete, cretly I moved to a small town in the west- sisted by him to come to Canada. He has ern part of Massachusetts, where I engaged with a dry goods dealer. Here I to all men. He always took a warm interest in church matters, and was churchwarden of gard to the above will be ready for publication.

| Covernment | Line, with the propeller Lincoln alongside. | Line, with the propeller L enemy pass the door of the stere and look money for various services. He gets syned for five or six years. He was a fond Squibs.—More rain and slush.—Glorious Shickluna's large saw mill. The barque Jane should be imposed, which might have the designed affact. in. He saw me, and pointed his finger at me. The cold sweat stood in huge drops this year $4,000 as salary, four dollars a day, husband, and a kind and indulgent parent weather.—To keep warm on a cold day, the C. Woodruff and propeller Dominion are at hardly fit for the days. me. The cold sweat stood in huge drops upon my brow, and my fears came back

Sundays included, or $1,460 more as travel.

He leaves a widow and five children to lament women double

Weather.—To keep warm on a cold day, the Shickluna's dry dock, the latter receiving a hardly fit for the dogs. more powerfully than over. At night I ling expenses, and a little item of $400 added his loss. His eldest daughter is married to the the horn.—Advertising reminds people of thorough overhauling and repairs to the hull contrived to get my employer to ge home for rent of Halls &c., &c. He seems an with me, and on the way I heard low, adapt too at inventing names, or also coinci- His eldest sen John succeeds him in business.

The Great University Boat Race.—The Albion Hotels.

The Great University Boat Race.—The Albion Hotels. with me, and on the way I heard low, adept too at inventing names, or else coinciHis eldest son John succeeds him in business. had forgotten all about.—We should like to Lock No. 3. The stone work going into the stealthy steps behind me. I knew that I dences are remarkable, for among the emi.

Roy. W. J. Muckleston, Incumbent, Camden make the acquaintance of that man who lock, the bottom of which of has for years been bridge this morning by three lengths. We haliave that this is three times in succession. voice pronounce, as I turned into my yard; grants assisted by him last year, are Susan Muckleston was a good citizen and one of that the past was a remark.

East, and two unmarried daughters. Mr hasn't remarked that the past was a remark. Verry injurious to vessels and screws. They and as I turned, I saw a dusty figure mov.

B. Anthony and Olive Burritt, two of Ame Muckleston was a good citizen, and one of shot judiciously are widening the embankment around the lock that Cambridge has carried off the palm of Rooms, &c. ing off beneath the shade of the roadside ricans most ardent admirers of that kind we can ill afford to spare. We sinadministered to sympathetic cats at this sea. about twelve feet, which has been greatly victory. empleyer that I was sick, and I kept the son of the year, will bear fruit with increased the suffrage. Such is the record of their affliction. she agreed to go with me wherever I wished. be surprised to find that his services as MR Thomas Wilson. — We deeply regret to It gained the cross road in safety. The waggen It would be interesting to find how much was there, and having entered it, the bey of the money paid last year to the Rev. light we reached a tavern where a stage Horrocks Cocks went towards furthering the could see that there was an iron determination upon his features. One night I heard a grat paymaster from a difficulty. It is not too of which she was a faithful and attached mem who has recovered from his recent illness so of which she was a faithful and attached meming against one of my windows, and in the late yet for somebody to move in Parlialand, had sprung from his kennel. I dared ment to have this emigration agent exland, had sprung from his kernel. I dared not go down, for I knew too well the cause of the late residence, William street, on Monday at 2 o'clock.

Police Court, Saturday.—(Before Mr taken no notice of his whining hitherte, bedog lying beneath the window-dead! The villian had been afraid, probably, that the an obedient majority.

His was to take mine, and mine to es cape his fell revenge! I became almost walking skeleton -the falling of a leaf would England. I was in London, standing one day lution, as though some fell purpose, which but his black eyes gleamed like balls of tire. even death had not subdued, still dwelt in He did not see me. I hurried down to the hames, took a lighter as far as Gravesen there I was fortunate enough to find a barque bound directly for the Mediterranean. got a passage in her, and was a length land ed in this city, where I have been ever sinc I have regained somewhat of my former health and spirits, though that same dread fear has not failed to haunt me.

"My enemy must have found me out, even here; but, thank God, he has passed from the He moved nearer towards the head of the power to harm me more. A hand mightier deceased, looked another moment into that than his has stricken him down. That was the church! If my wife still lives, I shall see > them both at the White Mountains when I was last there. It was some before I could recognize in the portly gentleman who accost ed me, the poor haunted man I had met in Messina; but when I realized the truth,

> > TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Anonymous communications can receive us attention. Everything forwarded for inser ion must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for ablication, but as evidence of authenticity t is also requested that correspondents will only write on one side of the sheet of paper. We cannot undertake to return rejected

The public are strictly cautioned arranged that we should be married. About copies of the News can be procured a week previous to the time set for this at any of the Bookstores and at

The Daily Arws.

ATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 29.

THE ELGIN ACCOUNTS. -At last the Hon. | No Lower. -On Thursday we called at-A. McKellar has given his defence to the tention to two distinct statements contained public, and we find it to contain a vast in the Whig of Wednesday concerning the as to the cause of my course, Lunguardedly, amount of letters and documents which he News, which were, that the News had conspeculation, but if they did it must have been with the idea that somebody was to act as their agent in the matter in Canada.

we reached a tavern where a stage ach was almost ready to start, and the boy returned, having first promised to keep invisitate the secret of my flight. The stage was bound to Lenox, which place we reached before dark. From thence I went to Mud-before dark. From theme I went to Mud-before dark. From the mother of Dr. Agnew and Mr Andrew

Mas Agnew.—Yet another old and respect. owing to the occurrence of their meeting dating on St. Patrick's Anniversary, have not assembled for a month, will convene on the mother of Dr. Agnew and Mr Andrew

Mas Agnew.—Yet another old and respect. owing to the occurrence of their meeting dating on St. Patrick's Anniversary, have not assembled for a month, will convene on the mother of Dr. Agnew and Mr Andrew

Black French factor of the form the mother of Dr. Agnew and Mr Andrew Black Russell Control of the large and company.

Black Russell Control of the large and the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been built in the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been comparatively mild; I appears that looking to the large and Correct of the United States for Cañadian under the productive engines have been comparatively mild; I appears that looking to the large and Correct of the United States for Cañadian unde and he had for the present desisted from his is amply illustrated in this case. While fairly beggars description, so peculiar are its leniency, but it was no go. murderous intent. I made arrangements with my wife to keep the house, and taking a England looking up documents. Mr fearful plight, and the travel on the coupt small sum of money with me, I fled from my England looking up documents, Mr fearful plight, and the travel on the country ceased were the various articles that had haunt me. Six different times he fired at me been found in his possession, consisting of with his pistol, and twice he wounded me, decent man would, moved a resolution in few days since inspecting their works in this Our two lives seemed to have but one end and the House asking the Government to make city. The company, we hear, are disposed to a return of all orders in council, correspondence &c., in relation to startle me. At length I got a chance to go to certain lots in the township of Tilbury, and it was only when the returns were laid bein its sunken, marble-like rigidity, there I saw my life-hunter pass. He was as pale fore Parliament, that it was seen that they was a startling expression of intense reso- and sunken as myself-restless and nervous; were part and parcel of Mr McKellar's dofence. Thus the country has been systematically bled not only to supply the Hon- ber of years, that we may have these large ing every day, for this is really an enterprising 14th, to see where the Sioux are, ascertaining that may have happened in that case in the past "pales its ineffectual fires" before the shameless prostitution of public money squandered by Cocks, and spent by Bethune H did meet his wife again, for I saw in making up the case of the Commissioner of Public Works. The country may well ask itself if the Rev. Horrock Cocks is just the man to act as its general omigration to your cafe, and I will tell you a strange were straying away along the banks of the defendants in the case of honesty and publie Faith vs. King and McKellar.

AT LAST. - Just four days before the pro The Committee, under the chairmanship of brity, enjoys a North-American reputation bable prorogation of the Ontario House, the Mr Carwright to consider of the shortest of being A 1 in shipbuilding. Mr Shickluna they can manage to shove through, in the ested parties, were ordered to be present, and successful shipbuilder. I warmest and most ardent kind and it was News from Carrier Boys. The Loan Fund Bill, two School Bills as pure as it was ardent; and she professed boys receive the papers only for and this report, all put into shape during well-to-do in the world, being a clerk in a selling the paper is dishonest, and the past week. If the House would only heavy mercantile house, and are long it was should be discouraged. Single give these and the other matters before hem that consideration which their importance demands, they would not be ready for Several times during that day I saw my Emigration Agent for Ontario have been learn of the death of Mr Wilson at his resiintently upon the windows, but he did utilized in quite another way. The country dence, near Williamsville, yesterday, after a street way in the street way in the street way in the street way. pays him well for every hour of his time, somewhat protracted illness, which he bore "I got a boy to go to the stable and pro- and yet this Rev. Cocks, this man getting with Christian resignation and fortitude. Mr cure a horse and waggon, and, after dark, fat on the riches of Ontario is the Rev. W to take it round to a back road nearly a local to the gutters and clean the cross-walks.—The months no less than five low pressure engines local to the construction of the construction of the construction of the construction of the company, sito take it round to a back road, nearly a mile from the house. My wife and myself tied up such articles of clothing as we could carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and taking all my money with me, required for making their defence in the carry, and to the riches of Ontario is the Rev. W King's and the Hon. A. McKellar's Agent will be completed. McConduitt's tannery and the city foundry and machine shop, the red brilling establishment in the country, and for their profits in enlarging the profits i years, and held numerous other offices of rain; it only poured.—Under the circumstan- and Ocean, Neilsen's lumber yard, gas works the buildings, and supplying the latest impeachable. His funeral will take place on | gr Monday at 11 o'clock.

Death of Mr Muckleston.

"I went to New Orleans, and there my enemy at length followed me! For three McKellar's council in the case, wanted some worse. Sighs for sunshine and dry plank-morrow. years I skulked from place to place, the very documents which would, as he thought, walks are becoming universal.

We slowly, reverently approached the subodiment of terror and weakening fear; assist him in the defence. He therefore, Canadian Locomorive Works.—We learn largely increase (probably to double) their present staff, plant and machinery. Some of ston merely a supplemental department. It is believed that if the Corporation deal liberally down to the "city of saints" to suit the most say he did not treat them civilly last fall fully invited to the saints. with the company, either by a bonus or an fastidious. The population numbers some- when a party paid him a visit. agreement for a moderate taxation for a numwhere in the vicinity of 9,000, and increasRaschal Berland, left for the west on the March, Thomas Will orable gentleman's bedroom with "canoe works erected in this city. We need scarcely town, beautifully situated on a hill overlook- their number and intentions, and convert them couch damask" lounges, but it must also point out to our citizens the immense impor- ing the Welland Canal between locks 2 and to peace. contribute out of its brimming surplus to tance of such a large increase to our manufac- 5, though hardly reaching to either. But we provide him with the material for making turing and industrial enterprises, and the ad- will give them a chance, as the "saints" are the representatives for the four districts for dition to our population which the increase of in general jolly good fellows, with a winning, the House of Commons were burned. The Elgin frauds have been pretty well the Canadian Locomotive Works would bring open-heartedness that makes you feel "tu illustrated, but in our opinion anything with it, which it is worth an effort to retain it hum" right away. The principal business here. The company would require about four streets are St. Paul and Ontario. St. Paul acres of land for their new works, and this runs parallel to the canal, or as near parallel might be easily acquired on the Government as a straight line can be. Ontario runs at property surrounding the city, which has right angles to the west end of St. Paul, and hitherto been such a barrier to its growth. the north end of Ontario is very crooked, and The Directors were introduced to the Mayor, crosses the canal by means of a swing who, no doubt, will actively assist the citizens bridge, continuing on up a very steep hill, in promoting the objects which the company to close by the Great Western Station. The have in view. We believe it is also intended Welland Station is situated at the very oppor agent, after the plain statement of Mr Mc- to retain the manufacture of cars at present in site end of the town, the extreme S. E "Come, come," said he, "come with me introduction to his wife, and soon we three connection with the works. As the works are corner, about a mile and half distant. Close 1.30 p.m. | 30.00 | 27.2 now well established at Kingston, we trust to the swing bridge is Shickluna Shipyard in 4.30 p.m. 29.89 35.2

> THE BAND CONCERT. The largest audionce youths altogether.

hours of slumber throughout the Summer. and Europe in their winter quarters alongside | CANADIAN ENGINE AND MACHINERY It is very nice of those people who know of of Hutchinson's mill. A little more patience, such matters to announce that the world will and a little further on, I come across the saw We understand that this Company has all SHAW surely come to an end in November. Nobody factory, where all kinds of saws are made. In lishment is able to cope with, and that they will waste camphor in packing away blankets one foundry here they turned out an immense find themselves obliged to decline many or

Strange, P.M.—Andy McDonald, one of the cause, we thought of his youth and inexperold school, on whom the reform agencies of ience, and hoped, as he grew older, he would RAIN AND SLUSH.—The English vocabulary half a century have failed to make an impres gain more sense, and also because his "few Mr 1. H. Brock of a daughter, > REMINDERS. Preaching in Victoria Music Hall to City concert on Monday evening.

whele secret. The story as having come from England. But when we have said tenachad veted against the Orange Incer- McGibbon, and which elicited so much symamong the lady's friends and acquaintances. this much, truth compels us to state that poration Act, and that Mr Calvin was a pathy from the Temperance Societies, was up "A few days afterwards a young man the matter is no clearer yet than it was be- shareholder of the News, we promptly gave before the Grand Jury yesterday at Monabout my own age, called into the store forc. Mr McKellar acknowledges, in the both statements the fullest and most decid- treal, and was thrown out, "No Bill" being before dark. From thence I went to Hud. Kellar. We submit that a more shamethe mother of Dr. Agnew and Mr Andrew Monday. From the nature of the business sleighing has never been the best at any time, son, crossed the North river, and made my less action has never been laid bare. Not Agnew and Mrs James Paul, was bereaved of which will come up for disposal, the session and the weather generally has been very pleaway to the western part of New York, only was the Elgin affair bad enough, but it her husband while her family quite were small, will be important and interesting. One of sant for the chilly climate of Ontario. where I bought me a small cottage.

"In less than a year my enemy found me faced attempt at nensioning a public reared them decently and respectably, seeing fire system which we presume will be introagain, and I saw him standing in front of my faced attempt at pensioning a public reared them decently and respectably, seeing fire system, which we presume will be introparing for spring.—Yours truly. house. He looked wild and haggard, but I officer in order to enable him to rescue his that her boys received a good education. She duced by the chairman of that committee,

St. Catharines Correspondence. DESCRIPTION OF THE TOWN-BOAT BUILDING, ETC.

St. Catharines, March 27. - I have long intended to give you a descriptive sketch of the M.P., left for Ottawa on the 22nd, and Gov. "city of saints," though why known by that | Morris left on the 24th. the Directors favor the erection of buildings, name is more than I can find out, unless, per-&c., for a new shop at Montreal, making King- haps, there is a faint allusion to the coloured that no effort will be spared to retain them full blast. A few words about this yard, 7:30 a.m. 29.56 39.6 which, if it does not bear a world-wide cele-

Hon. Commissioner of Crown Lands has steam route to England, met on Wednesday himself is a native Maltese, and appears to be P laid his report on the table of his actions morning. Messrs McKay, Anglin, and Camp- possessed of the qualities for which his counfor the past year. We call that a good smart bell, being present with the chairman. A trymen are so famous, for excelling in shippiece of business. To our minds the On- series of questions to be submitted to the building, combined with American, go-aheaditario House must be a collection of solons, Board of Trade was introduced. Ship owners, tiveness. The foreman is an old Kingstonian for on no other supposition can we see how both in Canada and England, and other inter- well up in his business, and celebrated as a quaintance soon ripened into a love of the against purchasing copies of the fag end of the session, a Municipal it will come up at a future meeting for further Thurston, who has been here nearly 2 years. discussion. Mr Sandford Fleming, who has The yard is not much bigger than Power's been giving special attention to this subject | Marine Railway of your city; but there is a will be examined at an early meeting of the great difference in the aspect of the two setting out, he rejoined her in the west, and Ferguson's Block D ready for launching, owned by Neilon. Another propellor, about one-third finished yet assembled in the Ontario Hall at any of for a Joint Stock Company and two vessels, adjournment for a month yet. But all this the Garrison Band concerts was in attendance full canal size, which will be ready for launchis to be done, to get any move however bad last evening. The music was as usual most ing at the opening of navigation. Every pushed through, is to bring it up, and hey! enjoyable. A crowd of boys were present, body with a thousand dollars to spare is inpresto!! like the wizards charm, it is done. several of whom would have raised a distur- vesting it in floating property, but more parbance, had not the police officers quickly ticularly in steam craft. I imagine it would handed them outside. The best way to pre- be a long time before the merchants of Kingvent this annoyance would be to exclude ston would embark in building a propellor or two and employ hundreds of men, besides whele secret. The story as having come to the necessity of procuring cealed the fact that the member for Fronproprietors of the Montreal Witness by Mr turers. If that speculation wouldn't do, why not build a couple of sterehouses receive what those boats carry into port, and not keep vessels sometimes a week or ten days waiting the facilities to unload them. have heard this subject spoken of in very strong terms, and condemned the narrowmind-THE QUEEN'S BENCH. This court will ness of the Kingston people in not having suitable open on Tuesday next before Julge Morrison. accommedation erected to store the grain when as well have reasoned with a lightning bolt.

DOTHULLDING ON THE ST. LAWRENCE. - At under one of this money. He wishes to utterance to slander of another description.

Clayton this business has been conducted ex- or 11 feet, cannot lay at but one or two

He demanded instant satisfaction, and promake it appear that Millar & Co., went into Evidently it considers that it can fall no tensively during the past winter. The amount of the lower decks, except at the end, where of work accomplished is striking proof of this she obstructs everything else at the sides. activity, there having built a tug 80 feet long. Prescott is talked of as a better place for and 17 feet beam for Messrs. Wright and Da- transhipment than Kingston, and I believe if refused. Then he called me a base coward. Who was that agent ! Why not explain esteemed and revered; one to whom the long 26 feet 4 in, beam and 11-6 inches depth improving the shipping accommodation, that circumstantially how the money became lost widow and the orphan never appealed in of hold, for Messrs. Folger Bros. of Kingston. Prescott will take that branch of Kingston's In lumbering, and by "faithless agents?"

vain; one whose unostentatious charity and The vessel is full size, Welland Canal, and will prosperity away, and her people will say, from the Court of Prussia to England on the "After that I met him in Broadway. He to have nothing more to say at present, and sectarian bounds, but was as boundless as wheat. At Sackett's Harbour, Mr B. Ever- hear of your Mayor agitating the subject, and *After that I met him in Broadway. He to have nothing more to say at present, and stopped me and whispered in my ear. He we should not have noticed them at all, him no more. Samuel Muckleston was born of Oswege and at Henderson's Harbour Mr. somewhat of a sailer man. I believe. I retake, that he would have my life, and that out during the debate which the country at Shropshire in the year 1808, emigrated to White has nearly finished a fine schooner for member seeing him at a Sunday-school pic-nic will be worth to the fullest extent, and his presence munity, and it is unfortunate for the sake which Mr Muckleston carried on the business Concert, after the re- ery, and employing a number of hands in the me about, but I always managed to keep of the good name of all concerned in this in his own name until about two years ago, cent lull in musical matters, will be given, we manufacture of bent irons for waggons, sleighs, among a crowd as I walked along the streets. nasty business, that this name should have when his eldest son Mr John Muck- are informed, on the evening of Thursday, felloes, and the like. A little lower down, at I dared not bring him to trial again, for I appeared. The public generally have leston and his faithful clerk for the 10th April, in the City Hall. The object Lock No. 2, is the edgetest factory, employmight fail to make out a case, and it could only tend to incense my eaemy still more. been pretty well informed lately about the many years, Mr Marshall, were taken into for which this concert will be given is certaining about 100 men. They suspended lately, would be enough to disgust the epicurean taston of any series. At length I feared to walk the streets, for Rev. Horrocks Cocks. He has been charged partnership. Mr Muckleston did a large and ly a popular and deserving one, being in be but the Quebec Bank carries it on again now, tastes of any ordinary person. The most noise might have disturbed the neighbours, The principle of standing by one's friends terms descriptive of the weather, but March Andy made his usual elequent, pleading for together mythical. On the other hand the Editor of the News took considerable personal MARRIP is nearly exhausted in selecting appropriate sion, was committed for 30 days as a vagrant instances" whether recent or remote were al. In this city, on the 28th inst., the wife of trouble to benefit the Whig pecuniarly, for At the residence of the bride's father, in SPECIAL TELEGRAMS. (Per Montreal Line.) From Fort Garry.

Fort Garry, March 28. -Donald A. Smith, sidence, Wellin

Judge McKengney is administrator. Ex-Indian Commissioner Simpson is blamed

Local Weather Report.

Observations for 24 hours ending at 7.30 a.m., March 29, 1873.

Range-max. 40; min. 15. Snewfall 0.00 The Barometer is read, corrected for temperature, and reduced to Sea Level.

WHAT'S IN A NAME. -- The following item is going the rounds of the American and Canadian newspapers :- A Kingston man, who returned to his Canadian home after a long absence, was annoyed to find that his wife had married again and left town. He was relieved, however, when he also learned that her a few days ago married her again. It is not often Kingston furnishes twaddle for our Yankee neighbours, particularly such sensational papers as the Day's Doings and its CUITS. confreres, in whose respective columns it has received a prominent airing.

TRAVELLING.—The advance of the season has induced the public to indulge in the usual amount of travel. Just now the hotel keepers show a numerous record of names-mostly commercial agents, and business-men, for the weather or the delights of railway comforts are not such as to entice tourists for pleasure. This is another indication of the approach of spring, which, however, is sparing in its en-Joyments so far.

Count A. Von Bernstorff.—His Excel. Sydenham Streets), a leney Count Arthur Von Bernstorff. Ambagen. WATCH. The finder lency Count Arthur Von Bernstorff, Ambassador of His Majesty the Emperor of Germany | Anglo-American Hotel to the British Court, died in London at seven o'clock Tuesday evening. He was invalided during some few months past by the effects of dropsy, and has laid at the point of death during some six days just passed. The Count was sixty-five years of age. He was born in Berlin in the year 1808, and educated in that city. He has been distinguished in the diplomatic profession for very many years, and represented German interests in the Dano-Gerin London was equally agreeable to the Queen and Cabinet of England.

SEISURE OF VEAL.—This morning the clerk reasonable terms impeachable. He served as an officer in the is in the hands of the Tandy Brothers, who I come to the Linnie Powell, Canada, and a the market and all the city officials a "piece TENDERS will be received as an officer in the is in the hands of the Tandy Brothers, who First Frontenac during the rebellion, but he we may be sure will spare no pains to make couple of smaller craft laid up in winter quar. of his mind," and finding arguments of no use April for the Mason's was eminently a man of peace and good will this concert one of the best ever given in to all men. He always took a warm interest to the best ever given in the same of the best ever given in t Next comes the stone white mills and store. him to sustain. If confiscati ns will not pre office.

The lowest Tender not no

ces there was a very good market.—Large con. gregation at St. James' Church last avening with three propellers in course of greetion with three propellers in course of greetion with three propellers in course of greetion gregation at St. James' Church last evening.— with three propellers in course of, crection. It appears that, looking to the large amount of work of this description which must be of- Black Alpacas. fered in Canada within the next two or three pre- nery Company contemplate a very consider- Black Grenadille able extention of their operations, and a meeting is called to consider the enlargement of the Company's working capital and also whether Black Jennaphre the whole, or some portion, of the large estab-In making charges against the News, the lishment, now located at Kingston, could not Fine Black Ura Whig, mam is simply dreaming. We have Montreal Herald.

which he never received the slightest acknow. the Township of Kingston, on the 26th inst., nearly be considered the editor's mode of shew

by the Rev. Richard Wilson, of Cataraqui,

Mr Joseph Forsythe, son of Robert Forsythe,

Esq., to Alma Jane, eldest daughter of Sidney

In Kingston fully invited to att In Kingston, 10 On the 25th inet Eagar Yielding

TITHE GOSPEL of 30th-Afternoon, 3 o'clost NO COLLECTION

FITTTTTT TATATATA

PRUNES! PRUNES! Cents per lb. TEAS, SUGARS, W

equally Low Prices.

T OST, on Thursday Inglo-American

TOLAIN and ORNAM Paper Hanging.

March 28.

Fiourning

Just arrived ex S