THE LATE SPEAKER AT ST. CATHARINES. -The Hon. J. G. Currie has been at the confessional at St. Catharines, and although his statements are not very explicit, still enough has been said by him to show that he could say a great deal more. It is someone of having made a reservation at the sign at any time he thought fit. That is current year: net very satisfactory, and yet we suppose it must be accepted. He says he would never have consented to accept the posiforced it upon him for the sake of the party. But while the Hen. gentleman thus threw in this caveat, he at once proceeded, after declaring that Mr Blake induced Mr Mowat to accept the Premiership, to say that the Government had attempted too Municipal Consolidation would have been enough for them. thus: "The Reform party had always | tect, was also present. been for economy and retrenchment, and he hoped they would be for all these things." And then to make things as smooth as possible he remarked that Mr Blake's Gevernment had increased the annual expenditure only $31,000 more than Mr Sannfield Macdonald's last year of office. The former were approved. True, but it would not have done to have gone a step further, and tell that Mr 24 immates in the house-13 men, 8 women, joyment of their customary holiday.
