a question to the Ministry which he had been unable to de previously, owing to enforced absence occasioned by illness. enquired if any, and what steps had been taken in respect to two measures reserv by the Ontario Government for the asser of the Governor-General.

Sir John Macdonald, with regard to this matter, would simply say that two bills were reserved by the Local Government Ontario for the consideration of His Excellency. These Acts, on being examined. were found to be quite within the competence of the Local Legislature. They had, therefore, advised, and would follow this course in future, that whenever bills were reserved, and it was shown that they were

The band played the for him by the Lord of Ontario. The snub fair and square, and a useful lesson taught at the same time to the Local House that it is not to encumber the time of the Supreme Government by sending bills to it score of this game : which could be finally settled at home by themselves.

We shall see e er long how the matter will be determined, we have no doubt, Mr H. S. Macdenald will introduce his bills again if such a course is necessary. We have no doubt likewise that they will again be passed as triumphantly as before, and then we shall see! Will the Local Government dare to disallow them ! It would not surprise us a bit. Se long as the Hen. Mr Scott is the keeper of the conscience of these gentlemen they must do just as he bids them, and he will hardly recommend the sanctioning of these bills, if he can help it. But there must be no half way measure. Accept or reject must be the word, and we B shall watch with a good deal of care the Bartlett, course to be pursued.
