PRICE TWO CENT 8

MAGNET CORINTHIAN BAVARIAN

Will leave Ganan

tion, apply to the Captain and

SARDINIAN ...

CASPIAN

PERUVIAN

OLYNESIAN

RUSSIAN

IRCASSIAN ...

Manufacturer, begs to remind his omers and friends and the public gen-Steturning-will leave Comers and especially all those who wish to Fival of trains at 10 an ale Fashionable Silk or Felt Hat of his own with the Grand Trail before pur-Mail Line, Bay of Quinter ing elsewhere, where they will find a Steamers at Kingston, RGE ASSORTMENT of FELT HATS, Will leave Kingston let h and Scotch Caps, STRAW GOODS, have a copy. Price $2. Tuesday, Wednesday, The imported per Ex Steamship Peruvian, J the English, American and Glasgow ets, and at low rates, to defy competi-

Wednesday and Friday #16
Will leave Kingston for the leading styles, in Felt Islands, every day at 820 b are the Harcourt, Romeo, Mazeppa, p m. and 4 p.m. Return. Jason Gold, Alvarez, Nippissing, Island at 9:15 a.m., lam ow Gauge, American, Young Gents Style, A., and on Tuesdays To Farrell, the Canova, Harrington, and Dolays will leave at 7 an; on Hat, in Colours of Drab, Black, Bea-Wolfe Island at 7:30 am and Smoke. SUNDAY TRIPS Thats made to order and fitted by the

for Garden and Welle W Conformateur. Leather hat cases in 111 a.m., and 1:15 p.m. Rev Wolfe Island at 10 am, 100 be highest price in Cash paid for RAW For Freight, Passage, wait CLARK WRIGHT.

Kingston, 24th April 18 S. P. WHITE, elesale and Retail Tobacconist.

PRINCESS STREET, assortment of Domestic and Imported 11 of superior s, for sale at very low cash prices. He has ALES AND PORTER, in quarts and

Domestic Cigars, various brands. contract with the 4,000 German Cigars, Canada for the Cana 3,000 Manilla Cheroots. Canadian and Inited to Fig Chewing and Smoking Tobaccos in hite's Celebrated Mixture Smokings. 1872-3. - Winter Arranged sweet as the Rose." Try it. It has I This Company's Lines are in the Dominior undernated First-class, his liberal d

S. P. WHITE, Licensed Tobacco Manufacturer. mgston, 12th April, 1873.

PRUSSIAN AUSTRIAN -....

MedicAVIAN at keep on hand a general assortment

COEINTHIAN DAVID De him to sell cheap. T. ANDREW BOOK G. BRAND, JR.,

THE STEAMERS Princess Street. LIVERPOOL

Notice to the Public.

PEN TO THE PUBLIC on Fridays | CUPERPHOSPHATE, and Saturdays only during the winter Persons wishing Eaths any other day week can be accommodated by notifying reprietor in time. Sundays excepted. KING STREET.

FOR HOTBEDS

HEATH AND GUNN'S,

AECEIVED AN EXTENSIVE and direct from reliable Growers and in Europe and America.

AATOES—every variety of established together with many new kinds. Of Garden, Field and Flower with brief hints on their cultivation. FRUIT AND OYSTER DEPOT, King free to any address.

TO BUILD UP A CITY.

Mammalactures.

I.F you want Wood or Coal Stoves, Ploughs or Plough Castings, Harrows, Cultivators, Field or Lawn Rollers, Coolers, Dairy Kettles, Cemetery or Ornamental Railings or 'astings, Stamped, Plain, or Japanned Tin

CALL AT THE

Victoria Foundry Warerooms,

NO. S BAGOT STREET.

PRING HATS CHOWN & CUNNINGHAM.

Kingston, 15th April, 1873.

McCrea & Bentley,

MANUFACTURERS, AD OF PRINCESS STREET, Kingsto All work done with neatness and de November 29, 1872.

THE PRESS.

EADY in June, complete RESIDENTIAL DIRECTORY for Kingston, Napance and Gananoque. Every business man should Published by RICHARDSON & PUNCHARD, By Orders received here.

Swedish Turnip Seed.

TATHITE BELGIAN CARROT SEED. LONG ORANGE SEED, INTERMEDIATE STUMP For sale by

H. PARKER, MARKET SQUARE.

May 16.

Kingston Bottling Depot 68 to call special attention to his large | I TAS NOW ON HAND A LARGE STOCK

> pints, from the best Brewers in the Dominion. Also English Ales and Porters. BELANDIES. -James Hennessy's, in wood or bottle; J. & F. Martell's, in wood or bottle; Pinet, Castillon & Co's, in wood or bottle. SUPERIOR OLD JAMAICA

441 No. John De Kuyper & Son's, in wood WLB TOM GIN. Bernard & Co's, in wood or bottle; Betts & Co's, in wood or WENES. -SUPERIOR PORTS and SHEET

WELLSEN. -Old Family Proof, Old Ryc Proof and Common Whiskeys, the best in the city, at REDUCED PRICES. GEO. THOMPSON.

W.&J.McCammon BUTCHERS.

No. 13, SHAMBLES, KINGSTON, Ontario. ## The BEST MEAT kept constantly on hand. Steamboats and Vessels supplied on the shortest notice. March 27th, 1873.

Important to Farmers.

BONE SUPERPHOSPHATE,

No. I LAND PLASTER. Call at MORRISON'S TORONTO FLOUR | the constitution and By-laws of the Society. STORE and get testimonials of the best farmers showing wonderful results. The best Artificial Manure in the world. For sale at

46 PRINCESS STREET.

Barrels of Apples

to arrive.

DINEAPPLES, PINEAPPLES, BANANAS, ORANGES, LEMONS, VERY FINE, COCOANUTS. PEANUTS, and

NUTS OF ALL KINDS. CARRATRACA AND MINERAL AND SELTZER WATERS, and

POP CORN.

Street, Market Square. May 27.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A NEW STOCK OF FRESH TEAS,

SUGARS.

We are selling at prices that will astonish !

LIQUORS. We keep nothing but the choicest grades of Case and Draught Liquers.

CANNED GOODS, PICKLES, &c., cheap, AT SCOBELL BROS. Cor. Brock and Ontario Streets. FERRY WHARF.

NOTICE.

I R. MACLEAN has returned to Kingston for six months. Office at Maclean & Co's Drug Store, Princess Street.

THE PLACE

Glass Flower Shades, Fish Globes,

A Good Assortment of Show Glasses-Plain, Hooped, and Urn Shape,

George M. Wilkinson's, 72 and 73 Wellington Street.

NOTICE.

THE FIRM of J. CARRUTHERS & CO. 1 has this day been dissolved by the retirement of Mr Carruthers. The business will be continued by Alexander Gunn, Samuel Harper, and William Gardner Craig, under the name and style of · ALEX. GUNN & CO., to whom all debt due to the late firm are payable. JOHN CARRUTHERS. ALEXANDER GUNN

R. WHITE,

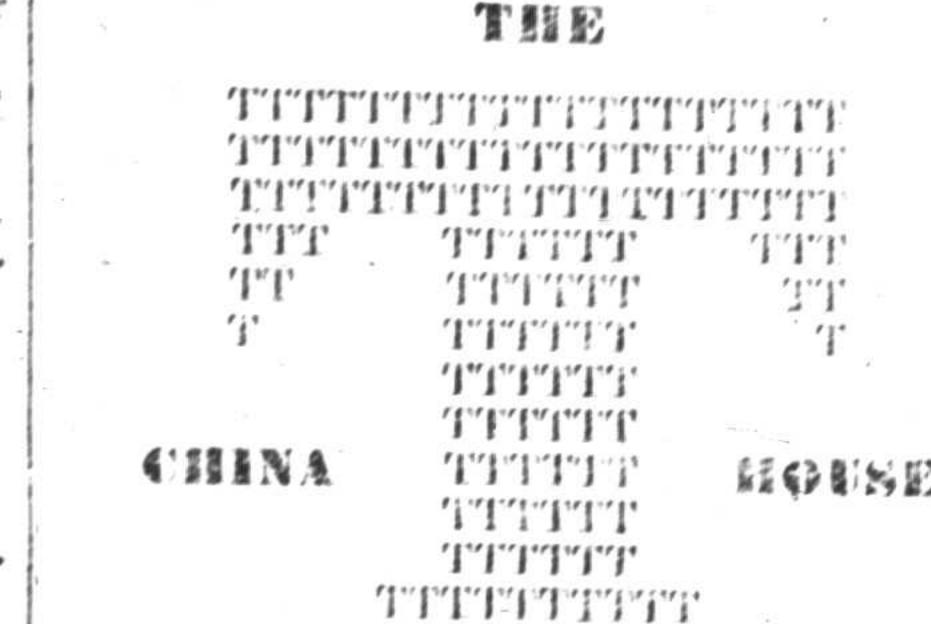

Kingston, 31st December, 1872.

WHOLESALE

I.WPORTINE.

PROTRIETOR OF

Kingston Oil Blores, PRINCESS STREET, KINGSTON.

REDIDEN AND ROWE.

TTTTTTTTTT

CYUGARS SELLING CHEAPER than ever before in this city.

TEAS in Green, Black and Japan, war ranted fresh and free from colouring, 10 per cent cheaper than any house in this city. Competition defied.

Ferguson's Block, Princess-St Notice.

THE IMMIGRATION AID SOCIETY for the City of Kingston and vicinity is prepared to receive applications from persons desirous of procuring Mechanics, Labourers or Female Servants from Great Britain, under R. MACPHERSON, Sec.-Treas.

MORRISON'S $5 TO $20 per day. Agents | es of working people, of either sex, young or old, make more money at work for us in their spare moments, or all the time, than at any. tning else. Particulars free. Address G.

STINSON & CO, Portland, Maine.

for honourable conduct and profession- we invite attention. Address, HOWARD ASSOCIA. TION, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

INR. LAVELL has removed his Residence and Surgery to the corner of Barrie and William Streets, directly behind his for mer residence. Consultation hours from 1 to Kingston, May 1, 1873.

OYSTERS, JUST RECEIVED A NEW LOT OF 'RA CHOICE-the BEST VALUE in 35 CENTS.

SCOBELL BROS., New Wall Papers Important Notice.

JUST RECEIVED

Corner of Brock and Bagot Streets, SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF NEW PATTERNS from the Enropean, Ame- gous, at prices to defy competition. rican and Canadian Markets, consisting in part of Stamped Gold, Bronzed and Embossed Papers, Plain Tints, &c., Gold and Plain | would do well to give us a call, as we intend | death doin' nothin'." Borders of the latest designs; also Plain and to dispose of our stock (which is large) AT Figured Window Shades, Cornices, Decora- COST. tions, &c., &c.

A Liberal Discount to Wholesale Buy-

House & Sign Painting,

Graining, Glazing, Paper-Hanging, Room-Decorating, Walls and Ceilings Calcimined

KINGSTON PAINT SHOP AND ROOM PAPER DEPOT, Corner Brock and Bagot Sts.

Kingston, April 5th, 1873.

IN THE MARKET SQUARE,

MeDONELL'S. Just Received 3 Cases.

Gents' Filmishing Goods sirable styles of the season in Novelties in Ties.

McDONELL'S, Market Square. March 31.

VISER ASSURANCE COMPANY.

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO. MAXWELL W. STRANGE, AGENT. Kingston, March 21, 1873. Office, Clarence Street, opposite the Post Kingston, 27th Jan. 1873.

J. E. Hutcheson,

A UCTIONEER and Commission Mer A chant, Brock Street, Kingston, Ont. Macnee & Waddell's New Building. though he was a runt of a boy. Machine. Needles and Oil always on hand. J E. HUTCHESON. April 19.

OCH PAPER.

Another large arrival of New Designs of ROOM PAPER at

WILLIAM ROBINSON'S

PAINT SHOP and ROOM PAPER DEPOT, East End of Bagot Street.

Pianos, Organs and Melodeons.

WE ALWAYS keep on hand ORGANS BANKRUPT STOCK and MELODEONS of the best Cana-Howard Association. Philadelphia, dian make, and have now in stock some excellent ENGLISH UPRIGHT PIANOS N Institution having a high reputation (made by Broadwood, Chapell, &c.,) to which alskill. Acting Surgeon, J. S. HOUGHTON, | -A superior "STEINWAY" for sale on rea- D Linens, M.D. Essays for Young Men sent free of sonable terms. Also a few Pianos to rent. We feel confident that our own Instruments will continue to sustain their well-earned Factory and Warerooms corner of Princess and Ontario Streets, Kingston. Kingston, Sept. 19, 1872.

DETHEL LODGE meets every THURS-DAY EVENING, at 7:30 o'clock at their Hall corner of King and Brock streets. C. CHOWN, Secretary. Thomas McConville.

BUTCHER, O'TARIO STREET, opposite the Grand Trunk Depot. Wessels carefully attended to and supplied at all hours at the cheapest rates. April 1, 1873.

A LL persons who are fond of a GCOD A CUP OF TEA will do well to call on SCOTT & DALTON and get a sample, as we have just received an assortment the finest ever imported into the city, comprising Young Hysons, Japans, Souchongs and Con-

N.B.—Parties requiring CHAMPAGNES as they informed the passers-by—"most to

SCOTT & DALTON.

Kingston, April 18th, 18

MORTON'S DISTILLERY.

Orders promptly attended to, and on the FINE undersigned begs to notify the Trade he returned as unexpectedly as he went,

PURE SPIRITS, 50.00. ALCOHOL.

1873—Spring Fashions—1873 | VIII

ATOW OPEN and ready for inspection, choice selection of New Goods for Summer Wear of our own importation of all the new and de-ENGLISH, SCOTCH AND CANADIAN PLAIN AND FANCY WOOL COATINGS, I'

WEST OF ENGLAND BROADCLOTHS For fit, workmanship and price, we can't MELTONS, SPAING OVERCOATINGS.

THOMAS MOORE, MERCHANT TAILOR

T ATEST STYLES in BOOTS and SHOES at moderate Prices. RUBBERS IN GREAT VARIETY.

Boot and Shoe Shop in the city.

Call and see my stock, and the handsomest

April 2

Just Received

A NOTHER SUPPLY OF PATTISON'S Celebrated

For Ladies and Gentlemen with Weak She perspired with acute joy, and wiped himself witty at young Martin's ex-Lungs, they are invaluable. None should be her face till she believed she had the pense. The house stood in the angle

(Late R. White), Druggists,

42 Princess Street, Kingston.

Kingston, Nov. 28, 1872

AT THE Livernool Rouse.

TELEACHED AND UNBLEACHED Tabl

Bleached and Unbleached Sectings. Dressed and Undressed Brown Hollands. Muslin and Lace Curtains. Window Hollands in Buff a : 1 White, cents, worth 18 cents. 25 dozen Ladies' in cents, worth 20 cents. 25 dozen Ladies' Linen cents, worth 22 cents. 25'dozen 'adies' Linen Han cents, worth 25 cents.

Special attention called to a few piece.

BLACK SILKS, part of the above stock

25 dozen Ladies' Linen 1 ...6

GREEVELD.

LIVERPOOL HOUSE. April 26.

The Daily News.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 31.

Young Martin and Old Martin. Young Martin was the son of old Martin. were blacksmiths, and plied their trade in Tacktown, when there was any de-when there was none, they sat wise 'tain't worth while to cut into a whole

Old Martin lived in his flannel shirtreflective moments, and whittled with it be. Where's my old fiddle?" when lively. Old Martin was an everlasting talker, and drew the long bow with extreme good nature. With him, a lie was a benefit—to please, amaze, or instruct. At your oar in—that Martin might like it."

"No indeed the in going to say," added old your oar in—that Martin might like it." middle age he was seized with a mission, 'No, indeed; he is going to blow on though he did not call it so-packed his something—an ofiglide, I think he said." London, distant fifty miles. In five years thick as blackberries, a blowing away at unlocked his front door, made a fire of thing." chips, hung over the tea-kettle, and sat

ing a vigorous pinch of snuff. for, I, for one, shall be obleeged to you." "Needn't be under any obligation to me. ain't the one to calkilate the ways of Pro-were the battle-ground of old Martin's tremendous hairbreadth stories-concern-Gentlemen's Spring and rise and progress, sir, of the first families awe and delight.

Summer Wallen and rise and progress, sir, of the first families awe and delight.

'What ails time was twenty-two-slight, pale, with thin fair hair and a beardless chin; but h had kind, honest eyes, and a strong manly voice. Somehow, no one doubted his good sense and good feeling. Those who laughe at him, remembering his old whittling New Boot and Shoe Store as a picter, but the marrer on him was good, made him snore so, that one night, Anny, When he had the scarlet fever, she thought driven wild, exclaimed, "Why, father, you the Lord had called for him; but she be- beller like the off-pigs, and I wish you lieved the warm baths had saved him, | wouldn't."

through with their various loads!

able as ever; I won't eat my son's earnings to her. She knew him quite as well, and To describe Anny's satisfaction over the but many a laugh, and alas! did he but new shop would be impossible—that new know, she was now laughing at him. Edgar shop, with stone walls and a belfry on top! Willis was with her, and he was making were dim with pride and joy.

ness to his parents!"

feeling and manner.

would last him the way home. Philosophers might take a lesson from the conduct of this foolish old pair, so devoutly believing in your Martin's hope of the short-cake supper. "Father, I've a mind to cut into a ham.

sleeves, and were rusty spectacles; young Martin and a big jack-knife were inseparables. He picked his teeth with it in his "Talking about a Tacktown band, they "Talking about a Tacktown band, they

MORTON'S FAMILY PROOF WHISKEY. down before it a happy man; and his soul being so plenty; for, says he to me, 'Mo-"Now, father," said the cunning Anny, Anny, his wife, sat dumb in a corner, tak- ther, I don't know what folks will say when my instrument comes from Boston !" "Anny," said old Martin, "declare for't; delighted. "Of course it won't do to say a word; and mind your eye, old womanciack is clack."

> Those five years of absence, so to speak, a boil when the stage-driver handed from luis box a huge bundle in green flannel to young Martin, who was in waiting. It con , a ling the Injuns, the English men-of-war, tained an ophicleide—a dreadful instruthe troubles in the Revolution, and the ment-but it filled old Martin's soul with

"Do let it out, Martin." And Martin did, as full of secret delight t as his father was of noisy rejoicing. The band was formed, and after a sumtricks, and his lolling against door-posts, or | mer's practice it played one quickstep, a BLACK, BLUE AND BROWN VENE- he was something more than a lazy me- went into severe winter quarters, to learn chanic. Tacktown had advanced; there cetillion music. It was a sight to behold was more work to do, and it was soon com- young Martin with his ophicleide; as he prehended that young Martin "bossed" was a slight, pale creature, the effect reold Martin. About this time he added to minded one of a little girl toting a big doll. his vocabulary of wonderful tales-"What He was very industrious with his practice, his son could do"-"What they had playing off-nights at home, in his little thought on him when they were obleeged room up-stairs. The greans of the instruto leave New London at dead o'night. | ment were fearful. Its boom was so dread-Martin was in such demand-plague on ful to Anny that she tied a thick handkerthem New Londoners." Anny also doled | chief over her ears, pretending she had the her praise day and night. She flitted from | var-ache; but old Martin was game to the neighbour to neighbour after dark, like a back-bone; he kept time with a triumphant fat, gray owl, or stood at her porch door of mien, although he could not tell one tune mornings clacking like a motherly hen. from another. Anny noticed that he was "As good a cretur as ever trod in shoe apt to go to bed in a hurried way on the leather" was Martin! She told the man | nights young Martin played at home, and, that came along with quinces and fall contrary to his wont, buried his head be-

> It seemed to her then as if the bed-People were attracted by old Martin's clothes shook-or was it the vibration of manner. He was strangely silent, yet he the walls? for that night it was a dreadful appeared on the point of bursting; he "storm and stress" period with young winked and nodded, went from store to Martin. He was overcoming "Hull's store, moving his head from side to side, Victory!" From the window outside he and making mysterious grimaces, as if some | was watched by a pair of irreverent young moment was at hand when everybody would persons, who gave him up for lost, declarbe astonished. His secret was revealed the ling him to be floored, after some involunday the frame of a new shop was raised be- tary escape of sound. Little did he know low the ship-yard on the shore. How he who was outside. The girl he adored, but trotted up and down the one main street of of whom he had no hope,-Matilda North-Tacktown, where all the stores were, and wood, the tallest girl in Tacktown, with a all the horses tied, and the oxen swinging brilliant complexion, an aquiline nose, bright, dark eyes, a clear voice, and a gay "My son did that," he made everybody | laugh; a violent contrast to him every way. hear, pointing to the frame. "How New She was the daughter of a rich farmer, who London has missed it! But, Lerd, they lived on Tacktown Neck, three miles from couldn't keep him! And Tacktown is going | the village, so secluded a place that when to be a big place." Old Martin's spectacles | Matilda came up to the Shore, as the village was called, she felt a metropolitan "Pooh, sir," he cried into anybody's face excitement; there was zest in church-going that was nearest, "I ain't going to give up and singing-school; and a stray lecture, or yet. Martin, says he to me, says he, a dance, was just absolute satisfaction. Father, 'taint necessary for you to give Young Martin had always known her, or another blow to the anvil. Cut up your thought so, till she burst in upon all his leather apron to mend the jints in the hen- awakened senses one night at the singinghouse door, or the pig-sty.'. But I'm cap- school; but he had never addressed a word > > had never bestowed a thought upon him,

"chaps." No matter who went by, she of two streets; there was a yard was ready; with the air of an orator who in front, with a picket fence round fixes his yes on a distant audience, she it. The side street was a dark, crooked MACLEAN & Co. began and continued, the motto in her road, with houses scattered along it, and mind, or rather its spirit, being that Martin | ending in a broad field which had that must be a living remembrance to every- very afternoon been the scene of the performance of a travelling circus, attended "Never did I consider Martin a forrard by Matilda. The wagons were now loadchild; but I ain't surprised that he should ing, and from time to time one of them come out at the big end of the horn at last. | thundered by, and turning the sharp cor-He ain't a bright and shining light any- ner by old Martin's house, passed through where, as I knows on; but ha' massy, do the main street fronting the harbor, and so you think that there Edgar Willis can out of the village. There had been some hold a candle to him, for vartu and good- lighting among the men, and much savage swearing over the heavy loading of the The shop was finished. Old Martin tied | wagons, till the proprietor, who happened on his apron daily, and hectored the two to be partially intoxicated, lost patience. apprentices with great comfort to himself. He struck with his whip at one of the dri-He knew in his heart of hearts that young vers, who instantly jumped into his seat Martin was the king pin; but it solaced | and swearing he would take no more on. him to play at anthority with the boys, and | lashed his horses into a gallop along the the country folks who came to the shop to | road. The proprietor sprang into his have a tire mended, or a horse shod. What buggy, and dashed after him, with the indiscourses on New London horse-shoes he tention of stopping his wagon. Martin gave, hammer in hand, and the hind leg of | heard the noise, opened his window, and a horse! Young Martin busied himself ran down stairs. As short as the distance with greater things. He was fortunate was between the door and the gate of the enough to please the first merchant in Tack- | little yard, he never forgot the scene. The town, who had had his ship-work done harbor below the street lay white in moonelsewhere till now. Chains, bolts, and all light, its silver sheet unruilled by a single a ship's iron gear, he engaged of young breeze. A wagon larched round the cornot nearly so much injured as his carriage

t. Besides, they tell me it is sovereign

But the next day old Martin was afflicted with another mystery, which broke like "What ails you, father, asked young Martin. "You look as if you had catched enough. Wash up, you are as black as the ther young Martin had observed his cowof their mouth, and now I am going to ace of spades; and if you ain't white we ardice, could not help altering a preverb can't go to Mrs. Willis's party to-night." for his benefit. "I have heard," she said. Which was a great joke, as they were not | 'about people laughing on the wrong side Old Martin's "Ho, ho," and "Ha, ha," laugh on the right side of the fence."

Martin, considering old Martin a doosed ner, and rolled by. He heard a scream, fool, and quite in the young man's way. and saw a figure flying over the fence,-But he was compelled, in spith of himself, | safe inside, -Edgar Willis, -then he saw to compare young Martin's filial obedience | a buggy swaying toward him, and toward with that of his own son-the gay Edgar | Matilda; he cried out in terror, seized her Willis, the beau par excellence of Tacktown. in his arms and almost threw her over the Young Martin was not particularly respect- fence toward Edgar. Then he picked up ful to his father in words, but perfetly so in the proprietor, who was thrown out, but "There, old man," he often said, "dry and horse were. Anny came to the door up your sass; you make me sick"-accom- in perturbation, and begged everybody to panying these words with a pleasant smile, come right in, while old Martin, hardly and a tap on old Martin's back, which, if [awake to the state of things, murmured] the old man had been a Frenchman, would I that he guessed New London would have have made him bestow a kiss on young momenting to answer for arter this. Edgar Martin's face. Sometimes, when he thought | Willis declined, muttered something about the old man tired, he said, "Go home, dad, attendang to the proprietor, and, glad to be and tell mother I want a short-cake for intimate with a celebrated man, offered supper; you've been in the shop long him his services. Matilda, wendering whe believe you have most forgot the taste of one time, man and boy, like-like any-