hardly, Matilda. I could have helped you; but, good gracious, you never could have expected me to lift your weight over the fence. I am not a blacksmith."

That speech killed all the riches and She admired pluc', and every time she camwith Matilda. She turned to Anny, young, of it You did it like lightning," turning her face toward him.

"You see, my son strikes when the iron is hot," said old Martin. "He did so when

"Oh, I am so put by! What will you have—a cup of tea?" "Nothing in the world, thank you. Do on the Neck will worry if you are late. I town was a labourer or tradesman of some sort; and was astonished and disturbed. Was a circus man to be thrown out of his buggy at Mr. Pell's door, that she might discover a secret impossible to learn otherwise? What | thor-all eyes upon them. Matilda kept her did it mean? Young Martin, too, was face toward him, and smiled resolutely. If miserably flustered; he had a painful sense spirit passed into his. He green, of his mean home, the homeliness of his duttering her fan carelessly. mother, the commonness of his father. Not | "Let me ian you," he said, and took it from | in this fashion would be have selected to her, and no polite dandy could have flirted i make Matilda's acquaintance. A shade fell upon them all. Old Martin got up for his pipe, also embarrassed. Young Martin.

asked Martin, simply.

And the pair walked down the yard. Mrs. Pell saw with a kind of dismay that Matilda's bonnet was just above young Martin's flat cap. "I wish, father, he had on his tall hat," she said. Old Martin pounded his knee with his fist, and broke

"Lord, I used to smash pipes in New !! London. But it's no use, Anny, we ain't | She took the fan now, and someh high enough up in the world for them out his wits with that darned offclide; has gone from one big thing to another, and now if he ain't trying to reach up that six-foot gal."

"I'll tell you what he's got to. He put that gal over our fence when he thought she was in danger, when that Edgar Willis as the rose. The heart alone knows how to jumped over, and left her behind him say nothing, but stared at the fire till violins and flutes. Anny began-to be alarmed. Then he said. solemnly, "Suppose I go there."

"Where upon arth, father ?" stance, you know. There was a man there with me, I would offer it to you, and that if ernment steamer Druid which will receive the of Kingston to submit to such schemes, so worth, only son of the late Alfred Bosworth, Anny put old Martin to bed at once, with a nor dance again." spoonful of piera and gin, and he was himsel the next day.

her dress; there was a rent in it which turned him cold to look at.

"Yes," he replied, "I thought the horse was bearing down on you when I caught you. Oh, heavens!" and he clapped his hands together with passion - "I am all gratitude. But you mustn't thank me. Yes, you may-But I only did what I ought to heve done for any helpless person

And Edgar Willis?" "He is not a blacksmith, and is to be excused." This was Martin's first sarcasm. "Well, good night"-and Matilda put out her hand again; she only felt the very tips of his fingers, and could not decide whether } hand was rougher than her father's. She was silent on the way home; her brother entertained her with an account of the circus trouble and upset. He had seen Edgar Willis with the man that had been turned out of his buggy, and he could not tell which looked the parties in the Reform ranks. It is under- undoubtedly correct.

Martin drove work like the very old chepi, old Martin remarked to Anny; but he fell off the old senators should be called to office phical errors were allowed to go uncorrected on his musical evenings, appearing restless of as vacancies occurred in that honourable in last evening's article relative to the Quin- proper a rival harbour and rival interests. brought home a bran new suit of clothes, with body. This was only intended to apply to a blue necktie, and told his mother that he Ontario, for all the other provinces, having London," said old Martin, musingly-"who used to cut such tremenjis pigeons-wings?" "Martin," said his mother, sadly, "I almost that was sanctioned by unsummons approximately wish fa her and I had stayed in his New Lenwish fa her and I had stayed in his New Lenlead or unload at the wharves. The best they are intended for Syrup to flavour the Ottawa is for the sole benefit of "Canadian" got stamini, and status, and a sinking fund of character, which we haven't." Where's my biled shirt ?"

Unfortunately, at the first party Martin one word against that movement. played, perched upon the little platform be-

"By no means," calmly replied Matilda. ter. And at the same time the Premier the following day. turning her full regards upon Martin, who did announced that the vacancy caused by quiet, fair face was flushed, and his fair hair, Senator Burnham's death would be filled brushed off his forehead, was curly with the by one of the three surviving senators of heat. He was dressed like a gentleman, too; old Upper Canada. Since the ad- Grenville. Edgar Willis, though the tailers were not the journment it has been semi-officially same. Martin shivered at her glance, then he announced that the selection made Correction—We are informed that the Im- and may probably be quite as much to be delooked back and gave her a grave bow in return for hers. He was melanchely, and remarks that the Hon perial authorities have never refused to pay pended on as the ore and lumber trade, from MR HENRY PFAFF, flected upon what his mother had said; it G. Alexander, for some years post-master the Cataraqui Bridge Company for tha use of which so much is anticipated. was all true. The only way her father (mean- at Woodstock. The promise that the old the bridge, and that any contention concerning Matilda's) would allow him to approach bargain would be carried out was agreeable ing the bridge, and that any contention concerning the promise that the old the bridge, and that any contention concerning to all parties in the House and it would be subsidy has not been with them, but he had earned enough, somebody else would to all parties in the House, and it was na- with the Dominion Government. be her husband. More than once Matilda turally supposed that it would give satislooked in his direction, and perceived that his heart was not in his playing. He was afraid pears too strong an assumption, as we find days at Railton opens to merrow. Mass at that Grip has departed this life. Alas! did, she looked so pretty, and he was so far a certain Reform organ of the west dis- 10:30 a.m. from her. She danced every set, of course. coursing in this wise about the new Senathe hall, she came with her partner close to tor : the hall, she came with not proceed the hall of the ha family position of the Willis family forever near this little fellow he gave her an instance Martin still standing beside her in silence, The second party young Martin joined as a and, as Edgar Willis walked slowly down dancer. Nobody knew where he had learned

"I wish," said Matilda Northwood to Ed. he was in New London." Young Martin gar Willis, "that Martin I'ell heard your put his hand on his father's shoulder; the speech; put there is no fence for you here. gesture was enough, -old Martin was mum "Well, Tilly, if you are going to keep on punishing me I must bear it; a fellow can't "Mother," asked young Martin, "can't always control his nerves," he answered. you give Miss Northwood some refresh. 'Your preserver is close by, I see; going to the wagon for me? I expected to meet salt which divided those "who worked for will do very much to help on Mr Mills' pro-"Martin might go round with you, said ough to live without actual labour. The male "I am afraid your folks way down and female ancestor of every person in Tack-his eyes so determined, that Matild neart beat with pleasure. "At the head of the first set."

How would you like to have me force

'I will wear it," she answered, "What if it be of iron, and I could give you ornaments of no other sort ?" "All the same."

Not from me, Martin? I might ask you!

bear a great deal from me." The tender accent of her voice was unmistakable. She kept her face concealed from the crowd with her fan and handkerchief, and Martin stood very near her, almost face face; in fact, they were as much alone as discover that matchless solitude where love is Old Martin's cup was full. He could first revealed. Again he began, and so did th ham for this suit of party clothes, I made a

"You know what I mean," he whispered. Hull's Victory'-and the next-" 'All Matilda?' Every one.

The Aldine for June.

The Daily News.

SATURDAY EVENING MAY 31.

HARD TO PLEASE. -There appears an utter impossibility to attempt to please all stood that when Confederation was inaugu-The world went on the same afterward. rated a tacit agreement was made by which Now who was that plaguy chap in New compact was faithfully observed in Ontario died. "You see," interpolated old Martin, "he has it was felt that the Roman Catholics had not a sufficient representation in the Sen. "Never you mind, old man-got bacca, ate, and so Mr Smith's appointment was haven't you? Smoke it. Mother, jist go determined upon, and until the last few days of the late session we did not hear

"I thought the wagon fellow did not see forted that a great gulp came in his throat, so represent Outario in the Senate. As the us, and I sprang over without knowing it load that the Finte looked at him, and asked whole arrangement is strictly constitutional. if that 'ere offelide wasn't pulling him down and accorded to the agreement entered into "Shut up, you fool," answered Martin, "or at the time of Confederation, we have no true that as Mr Alexander knew he would Matilda heard this, and she felt better, to. sooner or later be elevated to a Senator's seat, it might fairly be expected that a delicate sense of propriety would restrain | that document, a reader is led to expect somehim from placing himself under pecuniary thing new on the harbour improvements;obligations to the Government, on the acts | something having a tendency to encourage and until Sir John could make hima Government supporter in the Canadian Lords. Of course, these circumstances will make Mr Alexander | anchorage and shelter during storms," and a very independent "lord," indeed. We do this is all I can give him credit for. not regret the appointment. As Mr Gold-Matilda was stung. Martin kept aloof, and win Smith has written, such a Senate as we she understood that the advance must come have is merely a machine through which the have, but while we have the depth of water in Picton and Corinthian up. from her. Martin was on the alert, and at a Government ventriloquizes-it is simply a the westerly portion of the harbour, we have A New Shipping Point,—Quite a number "Nothing in the world, thank you. Do motion from her, he was bowing, and asking her for the next set. It was an ordeal for him. Matilda was at the head of the hall above the head of the hall above the her form of the next set. It was an ordeal for him. Matilda was at the head of the hall above the head of the hall above the her form of the next set. It was an ordeal for him. Matilda was at the head of the hall above the head of the hall above the her form of the hall above the head of the hall above th hear anything from Mr Willis, and bring Matilda was at the head of the hall, above the the fact more apparent. The appointment young Martin, and he knew that then and "Where shall we take our places?" asked Then why say anything about it? The crowded with vessels laden with grain. real fact is that the Hamilton paper "seemis a little put out because a Hamilton man measurement of the area of this harbour, 14 was not chosen, although it does not want | square miles as he says . - If we allow the ad-There they stood, the first couple on the to say so, for that would have been putting Alexander's antecedents are Reform if they more than half that area as belonging to this appointment is every way to be commended. with more grace than our young Martin; he Mr Alexander is an older Senator than Mr provement pointed out by X.; after he asserts twirled it first before her face, and then bes- Bull, and has consequently been called that "there is no occasion for a break-water at telling him to sit still, found it, and held "Should think his face would burn! Jast arena. Nor do we see how any objection "The harbour, however, he says, is capable a match for him to light it. Well, it was like Matilda Northwood to amuse herself so. can be urged against him because he pre- of improvement in some respects. There is a and through goodness so refined, Matilda felt she was in earnest. They were well ferred to earn an honest penny as a post- small island, or rather a heap of shingle, called thought, rising to go. She held her hand aware, Matilda and Martin, that they were master. It is very likely that our Salmon Island, about two feet above the out to Mrs. Pell, and then kissed her. There the objects of criticism. As the sets slowly Lieutenant Governors, after their years water, situated about five miles from the cit;, eyes. Martin's face flushed, and he did not of office have expired will not think it be- directly in the way of vessels coming down "Shall I wait upon you to Mrs. Miller's?" feel quite so self-possessed. Matilda went neath their dignity to commence their the Bay of Quinte." On this he wants a light; harminess. She were a treater beauthet old business again, and why should it be what a great improvement to the city harbour! objected to a Senator that he has filled a esponsible office to the satisfaction of everybody, and now gives it up to become a "lord" a second time? As for the ap- blasting with glyceriae 12 feet under the surpointment helping Mr Mill's ideas of an face of the water.

> good authority that encouraging progress is Navy Bay to Green Bay, and thereby make being made with the Pacific lean negotiations, room for "wharfs and storehouses." and that Sir Hugh Allan will leave England on | these things are possible, but who will pay says the S.S. Prussian with Sir George Car, road into an improvementaway from the busi-"The other day, when I went over to Bog- tier's remains left Liverpool yesterday and is ness part of the city, which is heavily taxed resolution. I put something in this vest pocket expected to arrive here on Monday or Tuesday to pay the interest yearly accruing, it would and determined that if ever you would dance next. At Quebec she will be met by the Gov. be little better than madness for the citizens E. Patterson, M.A., Newton, Alfred Bos. his neck-tie, as if he would denude himself of proceed to Montreal. There the Roman Ca- away their money, and bring the track of the Esq., Deputy-Registrar, of Picton. Matilda shook hands with young Martin at the Nessus apparel at once. Matilda was tholic Ecclesiastical authorities have offered to Pembroke Road along the business portion of the Millers' door, and saying the simplest this obscure little voung Martin made planted the religious ceremony gratis, and it the city that every man having wharfage may thing she could conjure up, told him that but for his impulse that night she might have the more and more. She slyly put out her benefit thereby, as well as those on adjacent stone-mason, aged 52 years. been farther off—and showed him the skirt of hand to take his gift. It was a ring, and he Quebec Cathedral to make a similar offer as a streets. not only slipped it into her hand, but on her libera, which they may do. We understand tinger. It was a pretty ring, too, -an emerald that Hon. Mr Robitaille leaves for Montreal bonus towards the construction of that road, in to-day or to-morrow to supervise all the ar- hopes of bringing the productions of the north "How becoming your suit is," she answer- rangements. The body will be laid out in state into the harbour, with a view to transhipment in one of the court rooms in that city, in or- and not that the track should terminate at the der to give the people an opportunity of view, easterly limit of the harbour, where to make ing it. The funeral will take place on the 12th or | convenient accommodation for such tranship. 13th prox. Minute guns will be fired and bells | ment, removing of the bridge, rebuilding it on will be tolled on the arrival of the steamer at | Bell's Island, blasting shoals 12 or 14 feet un. the harbour.

> Stewart Campbell for a position in the Cabinet liciently protected, and as all admit the on the ground of his "eminent fitness," and westerly portion of it has an ample depth insists upon their "best men taking these high of water, why not come westerly along Onand responsible positions." The Reporter is tario street with the rails so far as to obtain ed for correction in the proof sheet.

don; it might have forraded your plans, and you been the better for it. I feel as if we were your drawbacks—and how could we help being poor ignorant creeturs? And, oh, Martin laws as how you are addicating yourself:

The best was filled in the room of Col. Prince decased, his place was filled in the Senate in the next that poor Eward (not Ewart or broke Road westward till sufficient room is hould be so "eggegious apology for an error should be so "eggegious her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and they are intended for Syrup to flavour the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the next that poor Eward (not Ewart or broke Road westward till sufficient room is in which case we may predict to one friend Mr.

Pressident. The best means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the next that poor Eward (not Ewart or broke Road westward till sufficient room is in which case we may predict to one friend Mr.

Pressident. The best they are intended for Syrup to flavour the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the Pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of the pembers and the means of giving the city full compensation for her outlay is to continue the track of we did not think of doing so, and I don't know by the Hon. Frank Smith, who had not Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wretched I will be the Rollaville paper arms the wr Believille paper arms, the wretched Lynch may-be not so far west, make the break. Hobart a good many visits from the fair sex Hon. Adam Crooks, Q.C., M..P.P., Toronto. with a store. It is the first time we have ever water, not with stone as X. makes mention when the dog days arrive. for committing manslaughter.

the Dominion Rifle Association will meet at ciation, "if the canals should be further im-Ottawa on the 3rd of June for the purpose of proved so as to permit the passage of grain ves. New Orleans Mr Holton then attempted to arrogate selecting the marksmen who are to compose sels, it is not unlikely that the future pros. looked very small, and his dreadful instrument to the Commons the right of naming, or at the next Wimbledon team. Lieut. Col. B. perity of Kingston will mainly depend on the very large. It was remarked how very mildly any rate suggesting the filling of vacancies, Lester Peters, of St. John, N. B., will command lumber and ore business introduced by the Matilda Northwood that he was staring his and was cut very short by the Premier an- the team. Major Otter, of the Queen's Own, Pembroke Railway." As X, has made refernouncing to him that the crown, in which Toronto, being second in command. The team ence to "Shipmasters navigating the lakes," I Friday Evening, 6th of June. E. V "My," exclaimed another, "if the musicians such such appointments rested, did not will assemble in Quebec on the 20th June, and may say it is an opinion generally entertained by

Personal.--William Patrick, Esq., ex-M. craft will tranship grain into barges

Correspondence.

HARBOUR IMPROVEMENT.

Sir, -Having read a communication signed X. in your issue of the 28th instant, I beg to remark that while, in the first paragraph of

Your correspondent X. is not correct in his

jacent municipalities their legal claim to own n a strong word for a Conservative and Mr | waters, two of them having shipping interests |

Then he goes on to tell where buoys should be Kingston, wheat. fixed, "and especially on the shoal on which the tower is built," as if a buoy could be more of help before it will be able to stand alone. to build. Then the building of another bridge Grand Lodge of the State of New York, and The Ottawa Citizen says it is reported on bly $50,000 more; then a ship canal from e 11th or 13th of June, by which time it is the piper? To carry out such schemes would sped their tasks will have been completed. be adverse to the interests of the city, and would be little less than fraud, converting her BIR GEORGE CARTIER. -The Ottawa Citizen bonus to the Kingston and Pembroke Rail-der water, cutting of a canal outside the city limits are necessary. If, as is contended by e Halifax Reporter supports the Hon. your correspondent "X," our harbour is sufsufficient frontage for business purposes, thus "Welcome, thou best anana! thou the pride utilising the deep waters at the small cost of Of vegetable life, beyond whate'r We regret that several eggegious typograpounds, instead of creating outside the city Spread the ambrosial stars, and feast with probably $10,000, two thousand five hundred The poets witnessed in the Golden Age. tette Concert, although they were duly mark. while the existing property pays the piper. had joined the Cotillion party. Every week there was to be one, and he had engaged to play in the band alternate weeks: the other of the band alternate weeks: the other of the band alternate weeks: the other of the band with a store of Kingston from the band with a store of th Although your correspondent says, "But in heard of a stove being used as an instrument of, but with crib-works of wood filled in with

In the concluding portion of X.'s communi-THE WIMBLEDON TEAM. -A committee of cation, he says, rather in the spirit of depreusually accept any suggestions on the matsail for their destination by the Prussian on these practical men, that whatever improve.

Conspicuous among the talent of this worldments may be made in the navigation between Kingston and Montreal sailing MISS MAUD STANLEY, of P.P., of Prescott, has been gazetted to the at Kingston, and that until steam craft shall MRS NELLIE GORTON, Shrievalty of the united counties of Leeds and supersede the sailing vessel, and monopolize MR HANK GOODMAN,

GRIP.—The Toronto papers of yesterday The only Soloist in the world who executes ment near him. He heard her say that she been a paid official in the employ of the all interested will do well to obtain a copy the market, and vegetables were also plenti ment near him. He heard ner say that was was tired, and warm, and didn't think it was was tired, and warm, and didn't think it was has now elevated their quondam servent to the announcements contained ful. Butter sold readily at from 18c to 20c, and Bookstore.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

DOUBLE X. Kingston, May 31.

THE MARKET. -The market to-day was a

Marine News. Jones and Miller's wharf-Schr Westside arrived from Chicago with 18,200 bus wheat, and unloaded into barges America and Minnie. The barges Alabama and America left for Montreal last night in tow of the H. A. Calvin. Coulthurst and Macphie's wharf-The schr Monterey arrived from Chicago with 19,567

The south westerly winds blow hercely, and from a new shipping point, where already a position to make the Senate elective, so that without interruption for a distance of 200 number of cargoes are in readiness for the ar- nouvelle Ecosse, et 30 Tonnes de though bad in itself it will be productive of miles, into the harbour in the fall of the year, rival of vessels. This point is L'Anse, which charbon sur [intersite] à être livré causing great anxiety, delay of business opera- is soon to become one of the most business should worry, if I had such a darter out but there was not common sense enough for There is straining at a gnat! "We have tions and aften loss, from want of a break. ports on the lake. The barque Cambridge, of sans une cour à Montréal ou sur le all alone." The sharp old woman looked at anybody to blow those airs away, till Matilda no fault to find with the appointment." water, at the time when the harbour is much Detroit, sailed yesterday for the above port to quai du Penitencier St. Vincent de Waterloo White load, and will bring away 750 tons a cargo, Paul, le ou avant le 25 Juin probeing under contract to freight four trips, and chain. possibly five. - Detroit Free Press.

> Port of Toledo, May 24. Cleared - Schr. Telegraph, Oswego, 13,800 bush corn. Port of Chicago, May 23.24.-Cleared-Schr. Rival, Kingston, 14,366 bush wheat; barge Sweepstakes, Kingston, 12,074 bush

Hope, barque London, schrs P. B. Lock, G. delivery will be promptly attended schrs J. Scott, Montauk, prop Lowell, schrs Streets. Sarah Jane, A. Craig, prop Lake Michigan.

Down-Steam-barge Glasgow, Bay Gity, do; John Mark, do, do; barque F. Campbell, J. IIALLIGAN & CO'S Royal Arms Toledo, Kingston, lumber; schrs S. G. Fort, I Chicago, do, wheat; R. Doud, Milwaukee, Wind, east, light.

MASONIC.—The foundation stone of the City Hall. Rochester, was laid on Wednesday FRESH ARRIVALS. elective senate, that may be all very true, Then he suggests the removal of the bridge, ternity. Six lodges, beside three commander-Mr Mill's idea can afford to get a good deal which is 600 feet long, and which cost $50,000 ies of Knights Jemplars, in addition to the A SELE, quarts and pints. also the 54th Regt. and a Battalion of Artil- pints lery, with four bands of music, were in the procession. The report of the proceedings occupy no less than five columns of the

> The Rev. Mr Chiniquy, a convert from Roman Catholicism to Presbyterianism, is preaching in Halifax.

> > MARRIED.

you refused me, I would never wear the suit, body. On board the steamer there will be pro-He was so nervous that he put his hand to vided a chapelle ardente, and the steamer will bona fide meaning of the electors when voting the County of Perth, and niece of T. Bog,

At Picton, May 20th, Mr James Colborn, Of inflammation, at his residence, in Picton, on the 23rd inst., Mr James J. Carter, of the Montreal House, aged 33 years.

FOR SALE, the fast Sailing Boat "BROWN JUG," 18 feet by " NINGHAM, Boat Builder

at once into a position of equal dignity. The on the head with a stove at Kingston from the effects of the wound inflicted by which he business appositions are at the Golden Lion has transferred to the the effects of the wound inflicted by which he business operations greatly retarded in the MEDICAL HALL—for a consideration—a and only one departure was made from it, and We extract the above from the Belleville state of the water; and the fact that for days great number of Pines—we believe in the DLANS SIMPLE. All Policies Nonand only one departure was made from it, and the extract tile above from the believing state of the water; and the fact that for days that was sanctioned by unanimous approval ontario. Mistakes are liable to occur in the vessels can neither quit their anchorage nor neighbourhood of two hundred. We presume of Liabilities. The Company's Deposit at May 31.

MINSTICES John Shedden, Esq., Pres. T. and N. R. R.,

famous organization may be found. The Accomplished Pianist. The Prince of Ethiopian Comedians. The Clarionet Soloist. MR WM. CONVERSE. MR FRANK WEST. Banjoist and Negro Delineator. MR L. P. BENJAMIN, fourth added line above the treble staff. MR WALTER WENTWORTH, The Great American Contortionist. whole assisted by "Gorton's Splendid VV Cornet Band," composed of both ladies and chitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Scrofula, and any Admission 22 cents; Reserved Seats 50 Debility, Premature Decay, Weakness, and failing Well. cents. Reserved Seats at McAuley & Co's all disorders.

May 30.

passages on the E Flat Cornet, reaching the

PENITENCIER DE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL. 29 Mai, 1873.

the street, said," I will go in, Mrs. Pell. to dance at all; but no man went through his paces with more grace.

The learned on the anvil, and old Martin bearing to man went through his posed) important judgment. He must have known that for the Government to place.

The learned on the anvil, and old Martin bearing to man went through his posed) important judgment. He must have known that for the Government to place in promote the progress of improvement, but after carefully perusing his statements and the confirmation in the statements and the confirmation in the statement in t "He learned on the anvil, and old Martin made him dance on the hot iron, I suppose, sneered Edgar Willis.

"Be learned on the anvil, and old Martin made him dance on the hot iron, I suppose, sneered Edgar Willis.

"Be learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed.

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to place clusions he arrives at I felt woefully disappointed."

"But learned on the anvil, and old Martin known that for the Government to pl neither he nor the Government seemed to have troubled themselves about propriety of appearance, so the ex-Senator became a showing a true description of harbours of re bush corn; tug Charlotte, with barges Cruiser, Wanda, Consort, and Cuba, light. Cleared: bush corn; tug Charlotte, with barges Cruiser, Wanda, Consort, and Cuba, light. Cleared: barges Frank, 9,842 bush wheat; Friend, 9,647

W. R. MCR of appearance, so the ex-Senator became a fuge as distinguished from others "by larger bush wheat; Burgess, 10,420 bush wheat; d'une qualitié saine, de la coupe de area, superior depth of water, easy of access Amazon, 9,700 bush wheat; Chicago, 21,236 cette anné, sans buches ni rondins et Messrs James Swift & Co.'s wharf— de la longueur de 3 pieds & semi Robinson's Pr The steamer Spartan passed down this morn- d'une Pointe à la coupe, à être The area, depth of water, and easy access we ing; the prop America passed down, and strs livré dans la cour du Penitencier. le ou avant le 25 Juin prochain.

AUSSI POUR.

60 Tonnes de charbon mon de la A FINE LOT OF PI

F. Z. TASSE, P.P.S.V.P.

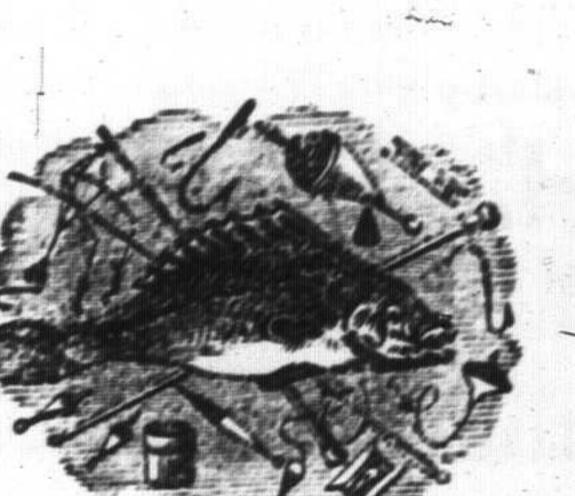

wheat; prop. Nashua, Ogdensburg, 4,987 FITHE Subscriber is prepared to supply his old customers and as many new ones as Port Colborne, May 30. - Up-Schrs Green. and the public in general, with good and wood, A. Ford, barques Mary Jane, Peer- PURE ICE. All orders promptly attended 1 lees, Montcalm, Clyde, schrs Magellan, Agnes to. All complaints against drivers for non-the Trade at manufact Mollison, S. J. Collier, prop R. W. Standly, Please leave your orders at the Store of the Proprietor, corner of Queen and Wellington W. R.

> JOHN MALONEY. Kingston, May 29, 1873.

NEW STORE

Chateau Roberts Gold Seal, quarts and Vve Lamarque and Ciedo Clar ets. St. Sonbes, St Henri and other brands of Claret on hand; and agent for Charles Wilson's Belfast Ginger Ale, which will be supplied to the Trade at Montreal prices. 29th May, 1873.

Green Seal, quarts and pints.

FISHING TACKLE. FISHING

LARGE STOCK of Rods, Lines, Hooks, Gut, Gimp, FANCY BAITS, &c., all

GRIGOR'S.

THE PINE APPLE. SHEFFIELD HOUSE. Go.

May 28.

THE NATIONAL Life Insurance Company

H. S. Howland, Esq., Vice-Pres. Canadian Bank of Commerce, Toronto. Rev. S. D. Rice, D.D., Pres. Wes. Methodia

Conference of Canada, Hamilton, H. S. Strathy, Esq., Montreal. J. McCuaig, Esq., Toronto. W. D. Matthews, Esq., Pr. Corn Exchange, R. J. U. Chipman, Esq., Toronto. G. A. Kirkpatrick, Esq., M.P., Kingston. B. M. Britton, Esq., Kingston. 4. White, Esq., Kingston, E. W. Rathbun, Esq., Mill Point. George H. Wilkes, Esq., Brantford. C. E. Chadwick, Esq., Ingersoll. Robert Barber, Esq., Streetsville D. B. Chisholm, Esq., M.P., Hamilton. Thos. Saunders, Esq., Lyman Moore, Esq., r'. W. Dayfoot, Esq. John Waldie, Esq., Wellington Square.

COUNSEL-Hon. Adam Crooks, Q.C., LL. D. GENERAL MANAGER-T. C. Livingston. SECRETARY-J. J. Mason. The Lion Banjoist. GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE DOMIN-

ION OF CANADA-Livingston, Moore & Co., Hamilton, Ontario. The Eminent Interlocutor. J. B. McAGURN, Agent

KINGSTON.

May 15.

Remedy Free. The TTE send free a simple and sure means of self-cure, for Consumption, Brondisease of the Throat and Lungs. Nervous Fruit Trees, Currant

> TUTTLE & CO., 78 Nassau Street. New York.

Having been appoint.

Every Piece of Tweed r

Good All Wool Tweed at Men.

ever offered in the city.

(LATE MACNEE & 20th May, 1873.

out to be the

FOR MANITOBA