Hamilton, June 30. - The Grits are very quiet to-night, while all other classes of citizens are jubilant over the glerious news from South Ontario. It is felt here that the Riding has only expressed the feeling of the Dominion by its action to-day.

Sarnia, June 30.—There is great resicing here this evening over the result of the election in South Ontario to-day. The Sarnia brass band is parading the streets, and the friends of the Administration are jubilant concerning the large majority. The town is in a great state of ex-

Ottawa, June 30 .- The newspaper offices have been the central points of interest in the city to-day, and as the several desfratches announcing Mr Gibbs' steadily increasing majority came to hand the joy of the crowds amounted to enthusiasm.

Quebec, June 30. The news of the Hon. Mr Gibbs' triumphant return has been received here with great satisfaction by the impelled to acknowledge. | friends of the Government. His greatly inthe confidence and regard of creased majority is regarded as an index of which the columns of the Eagle of late bear | the feeling of the country in regard to the I have just returned to the charges brought against the Government by Mr Huntington.

London, June 30.—There is general rejoicing to-night at the result of the South amous stories against Ontario election. On the strength of earlier MBLE'S. Putting to the properties of the legrams from Whitby, the Grits bought in any way it deems fit, that | up a lot of pyrotechnics, but they are now other person | dead stock in their lefts.

Buffalo, June 30 .- "The Canadian residents of Buffalo congratulate the party of Union and Progress on their victory to-day . WHITEMORE."

CRUSHED TO DEATH .- A telegraph operator named Rickards formerly in the employ of the Montreal Telegraph Company at the Toronto office, was killed on Monday morning by an express train, near Prescott Junction, on the St. Lawrence and Ottawa. appears that he was under the influence shot himself this of liquor, and feeling somewhat drowsy lay ex lown on the track to take a sleep.
