> The Times asks: "Is 'light' breaking in?" We should think so. The light furnished from Chicago to the Montreal Gazette in reference to the character of Mr "George Washington" McMullen, and his transactions in connection with the State Insurance Company, must cause the Grits to feel proud of the accuser of the foremost statesman in Canada. Upon the sole ground of this individual's statements, the solemnity of an oath, -- the characters of the leading men of Canada have been maligned, and the Grit press affect to place greater confidence in it than the sworn testimony of eight of the parties accused.
