MR CARTWRIGHT'S ADDRESS. Tuesday evening last a public meeting was held in the Town Hall by R. J. Cartwright. M.P., for the purpose of reconciling his conduct in the late Parliamentary agitations, and of explaining to the people the soundness of HOUSEHOLD ture election. The Mayor was called to the chair, and in a few remarks stated the object of the meeting, calling upon when addressing public meetings, no matter how hostle in opinion those differing from him might be. He desired their earnest consideration upon a few subjects lately stirring the people of Canada and elsewhere. It is utterly impossible in a single year to forsee the great questions which will arise during a representative's term, and give an independent opinion upon every question arising. In 1863 none foresaw the question of the confederation the united Provinces. In 1867, on the completion of so gigantic a scheme as the 3,000 miles of Pacific Railway in terms of the Wash. ington Treaty. And in 1872 of charges such weight and importance levelled against the statesmen of Canada within the past few weeks. He disdained the idea looking upon these charges as the acts of any set of men, and in the investigation he hoped that the guilty ones would be discovered and stice meted out to them. There are two distinct questions before the country now. One Cook Stove, Refrigerator, Kitchen Utensils, SCHOOL BOOKS i innocence, because no trial affecting either case has been had, and I desire that fair play on both sides and the fullest justice should !twelve miles. When Mr Huntington in his place in Parliament preferred the charges it was absurd to make a vote of want of confilence, and a SOMETHIN committee was asked for, which was taken in the flank by Sir John. It was fair that a committee appointed by Government should examine the charges against her Ministers, and though the legality of the Parliament to examine witnesses upon oath was questioned, yet when Sir George Cartier, Sir Hugh I Allan, and Mr Abbott, whose evidence was necessary, would be present, but was l overruled.
