Fortunately, 'lis year Fees from Private Bills Legislathe prolic acco s had be a substantially tive Assembly..... brought down to the close of last year, and Fees to be received-on Secretary's the House was therefore in a position to know p esisely what the financial result of Interest on Investments:the year's transactions was. The receipts for 1870 footed up $2,495,820 27, and the expenditures as per estimates $1,999,583; but the House would perceive, by reference to the public accounts, that it was in fact $1,575,787 78. The receipts were short of the $3,002,185 estimated at last session, but Interest accruing from funds in the discrepancy was easily accounted for. And first he we ild call the attention of the House to the receipts of subsidy from the Ore year on U. C. Grammar Dominion Government. It was estimated that there would be received from this source $1,196,872; marriage licences $30,-
