for his rashness. But he had had his licking bathed their faces, and stopped the bleeding, about his peaceable disposition, and declared 'em, let him off.' over beds and borders on his way, and then once, and I will think of some punishment less swore that he would break down his beautiful severe. For I have hopes of Johnnie even yet everybody felt that the other monitors ought to | in the school, and learn that duties cannot be interfere. But not a foot would they stir. | coolly ignored because they are disagreeable; ly and William abuse him cordially.

'I'll make a radder and some oars for you, too, cumstances—utterly at a loss, at some critical The author of "Ginx's Baby" is stated to be for it. course, if you will pay me well.'

angrily: 'I have got no water to float it in, as his courage has been overrated, and his reputayou very well know. By which it will appear tion as a hero too cheaply earned; that for all that John did not make many friends by his his vaunted influence with others he is too

'Neutrality, indeed | I call it brutality.' And so William went across the garden again, leaving Johnnie at his work-of which, how- Anonymous communications can receive no attention ever, he began to feel thoroughly ashamed. 'Come and help a fellow, John,' cried Louis in despair from his arbour. 'I don't ask you to remember the days we have spent in here together, when you have been sick of your own shop. But you might do something for me, now that I am in such a desperate fix and don't know which way to turn? 'I am very sorry, Louis,' said John, 'but what can I do? It is no pleasure, to me to see you thrashed. On the contrary, it would pay me much better to have a near neighbour well off and cheerful than crushed and miserable. Why don't you give in, Louis? It is of no them?' demanded the Dame. 'Please ma'am,' answered Johnnie, 'I was a

'A what, sir ?' said he. 'A neutral, ma'am.'

be,' she returned. 'You were placed in au.

paid out for it afterward.

that, Master John?'

up to both of them.'

by always preaching at him that he was in the consideration of the question of the equity wrong; and offended William by supplying of our claims. To have these claims regard-Louis with stones. Now, I tell you what it is, John. I have long watched your career with ed with astonishment at Washington shows pain, and have seen how you are content to the low grade of political morality which sacrifice everything-duty, and influence, and exists in that centre of American politics, honour—for the sake of putting by a few paltry and how much the Commission will have to have chosen to have about you a set of fags contend against in dealing with internationwho are no credit to anbody, simply because al questions. they make better bargains for you in the things you sell to the other boys; and now you see the consequence. If such follows as Ben and Hugh had been your fags, you know very well that this disgraceful scene would never have taken place at all. You would have been sufficiently well trained and well equipped to command one farthing what you think or say. And The Rev. Dr. McCarty, from the United ant's sleigh yesterday and damaging it, and for Assays and other charges, to ..... 19,010 why? because you have grown a sloven and a States, preached a very able eloquent dedistriking one of his passengers with a whip. The And freight, insurance, etc., to...... 19,010 from the very first. Failing this, you ought, in largely attended. At night they sat down row morning. stepped in the moment the boys had proved to an elegantly furnished table by way of their relative strength, and struck a fair ba- tea meeting. Rev Dr McCarty gave them a The sisters of the Hotel Dieu Hospital beg to sit coolly is your shop, supplying the means of History, which was listened to with breath- fifty dollars from Messrs Calvin & Breck as a ed coppers out of your schoolfellows' blows and less attention. About $1,000 was raised, donation for the institution. wounds. You have been a bad friend to both which liquidated the debt on this splendid of them. Well some day, perhaps, you may little church. want friends yourself. When you do, I hope you may find them. Take care that William, the peaceable unaggressive boy, does not contrive (as I fully believe he will contrive) to get a footing on the river, where he can keep a boat, and then one fine morning take your pretty is_ land by surprise.' John. 'He began it all. William was only defending his Fatherland.

the Dame comtemptuously. 'It looks very like gaol. playground and threaten to kick down his arbour. Very like self-defence, to train hard for attention It is the tenth day of the trial. could, skated and those who could not, tried, ing, but actually surpass us, we shall be is sure to create a row. And although Louis Sauveur yesterday.

dom could be reach out far enough to do much for you, who have sat still in cold blood and actions are reported. damage. Foot by foot and yard by yard he looked on. You have abused the trust commitgave way, till at last he was forced to take re- ted to you as one of the five monitors of the

'Please 'em,' said a chorus of little boys to-Louis was plainly in the wrong. He ought gether; 'please 'em, do let him off this time. to have calculated the other boy's strength be- He was so kind to Louis and William when fore attacking him, and he deserved a licking they were bad. He brought them water, and now, and when William, who talked so big and did all sorts of things for them. Please he only wanted to defend his 'fatherland,' 'Well,' said the dame, much affected, 'kind'chased him right across the garden, trampling cess to the wounded shall plead his cause this -if it be really true that the head and cham- cers. 'I can't help it,' said John apologetically; pion of the school is thoroughly beaten by cir-'But I don't want one,' answered William. -that he is not the boy we took him for-that Jenkins. "Can't help it, Bill; it is the law of neutra- that dealt them, and contempt for the "neutral" New York and Boston. friend who looked calmly on.'

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS Everything torwarded for insertion must be accompanied by the name and address of the writer; not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of authenticity It is also requested that correspondent will only writeon one side of the sheet of paper.

FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 24.

SEE LAST PAGE. mortal use to go on. He will make triends have been started in the American press of the Ottawa, and by tapping them there to lice here telegraphed to the Mayor of Watertown business in that district can furnish details of the amount of money coming to Montreel from strips of garden, and if you don't he will only with reference to the negotiations between secure to ourselves a portion of its rich trade— this morning and received an answer from the its trade and it is of importance described to the negotiation. smash your arbour to pieces, or keep you shut Great Britain and the United States, that why, I say, is it necessary that the railroad Chief of Police of that place, directing the warrant the information being made public, and up there all dinner-time and starve you out the value of an American newspaper state- should terminate at the little village of Pem. capture of the men. McAuley at once started to recall to the ratepayers the true object for Give in, old fellow. There's no disgrace in it, ment in reference thereto is very much broke? Why not one or two or ten or off in pursuit and traced the men along the which the money was at first asked—the exten-'Give in l' sneered Louis, 'that is all the com- in the American press, that the question of way Corporation purchase a thousand or ten they appeared to have left the track fort you have for a fellow, is it? Give in!

Why, would you give in if that great brute was payment of claims for damages committed desirable site on the Upper Ottawa, and—

The detective fellowed them are break it down? No disgrace, indeed! No, I before the High Commission, though it was don't think there is any disgrace in anything well known in Canada that our governarbor that I have spent so many weeks in build- ment had made great exertions to have these ing should be pulled down about my ears, and claims presented and collected Accepting me, must grow up at any well-selected point, acknowledged the offence to Colonel Hance, the rival of medical aid soon frustrated the dethat ever was coined. Give in, indeed. Mon had been committed, and a serious defect Lake Ontario. I suppose the people of the been accordingly telegraphed for. Their names tion. Dieu, that I should ever have heard such a word left in the preliminary agreement if these county in which any particular village is situ-So Johnnie began to discover that, if lookers claims could not be brought before the ated are not deeply interested in having the one of them was known to the police as having So Johnnie began to discover that, it lookers on see the most of the game, they do not al. High Commission. To-day we have the railway terminate in any special locality within left here about six weeks since in rather low THERE will be a meeting of the members of the bell now rang for dinner, and he followed American acknowledgment that the Fenian that county, and that they would give their circumstances. His command of money which the rest of the boys with some anxiety, not claims will be brought before the Commis- money equally to any project that tended to he "flashed" about ostentatiously now upon his being quite easy in his mind as to the account sion, thus vindicating the activity of the benefit their county as a whole. he would have to give to Mrs Europa of what Canadian administration and the care of But this idea of mine may prove mere moon. his dishonesty. 'Louis and William are very late today,' ob. | the Imperial government. The Washing- | shine and baseless as a dream; for Pembroke served the Dame, when dinner was half over. ton despatch in which this second state- may possess great special advantages. Still I Does any one know where they are? And then ment is made is noticeable for its strange throw it out for the consideration of wiser Brockville, Feb. 22.—The Grand Orange bit by bit she learned from some of the boys tone of regret. We are told that there was heads and more practical understandings. Yet Lodge of Ontario East met yesterday. The at-'And pray, John, why did you not separate loose wording, and that a commotion has been excited in administrationist circles by the discovery that the Canadian claims would come in. The Americans would appear to consider themselves overreached. Just precisely what you had no business to Some at least have considered that a . thority in order that you might act, not that great nation like the United States could you might stand aloof from acting. Any baby with utter immunity allow a band of its choose your position, and a town and railway ville; Mr D. Marshall, Port Hope; Mr T. Scott, Tweed Coats, Velvet Coats, Silk-mixed Coats, you might stand aloof from acting. Any bady can do that. I might as well have made little own citizens to perpetrate a series of glar-terminus become words of equivalent meaning outrages—a criminal warfare in ing outrages—a criminal warfare in ing.

Cloth Coats and Fine Frock Coats, Vests and Guffin, Madoc; Mr James Macoll, Dr. G. J. Pants of all descriptions, a great variety of Fine White Shirts, Regatta Shirts, Shirt these is no such thing. You must take one side country, imagining that a day of reckoning given to the people of Pembroke, which ought clected:—Mr H. S. McDonald, Brockville, Clothing made to order in the latest styles, would never come, or that if an account not and, therefore, cannot be broken. But of puty Grand Master; Mr S. S. Peck, Peterboro', Deputy Grand Master; Mr Thomas Deacon, Pem.

Corner King and Brock Streets, facing the A titler ran round the room, and the little were presented its payment could be evaded. this I have not the means of judging.—Yours broke, Associate Deputy to Grand Master; Rev. Market Square, Kingston. boys began to whisper to one another something | How very different this sentiment is from | truly, an excellent joke. It was good fun to them to what the action of Canada was when the see a monitor badgered, even if they should get neutrality of our territory was violated by What are you saying? said the Dame. Both Alb ns carried into execution. Our governsides, aye? Well, and how did you manage ment paid all the damages which were thus of live stock to the United States from this by, Grand Director of Ceremonies. There was some more tittering and whisper inflicted through a violation of our hospital point continues at an average of about three ing and scuffling about on the forms, and then ity. Canada never sought to evade responsibility; and it is discreditable that a rich ber of sheep. The cattle are principally milch

"Just what 'neutrals' always do,' said Mrs | nation like the United States should have Europa; sucked up to both, I suppose, and been less prompt in payment of a like obli-

> SPROIAL TELEGRAMS. (Per Montreal Line.)

FROM ODESSA. Odessa, Feb. 24.—The new Methodist leave the city. Her request was granted. She the respect of the other monitors; and the two Episcopal Church in this place was dedi- was one of the women arrested at the Grove rivals would not have dared to come to blows. cated to the worship of God yesterday, by upon the event of the late murder. Patrick new silver issued simultaneously with the with-There was a time when, if you so much as the Rev. Dr. Richardson, Bishop of the Mothodist Episcopal Church in Canada both cab-drivers—for driving into complain.

The mint charges for metal, including

FROM QUEBEC.

The Gugy and Brown case still attracts gone in for fun and recreation. Those who one of the first requisites of public speak-

The stock market is active; many trans-

The weather is mild and rainy, and the streets are covered with ice. Thermometer 28° was held in St. Patrick's Hall last evening. of steam. And jolly races between these boats backs is not falls appreciated. One of the was held in St. Patrick's Hall last evening. of steam. And jolly races between these boats broke, is not fully appreciated. One of the conditions most strongly insisted on at public opposite the residence of J. Kerr. Esq., all the hanks was articulated in French by two different pupils.

The adjourned annual meeting of the summer house, and bring Louis on his knees that he will rise to a sense of his high position | Caughnewaga ship canal company resulted in election of the following direc -Aleck looked on from a safe distance, wonder. that he who shirks the responsibility of doing ors-L. Barnes, Burlington, S. W. Wethering which of the combatants would be tried right does in very deed and truth do wrong; bee, New York, D. N. Skilling, F. Fairfirst. Joseph stood ishivering with tright, not that the true test of greatness is the ability to daring to say a word lest William should turn grapple with great difficulties; that it is but banks, St. John's Bury, Hon. John round upon him and thrash him again; and a sorry thing to boast of bravery and skill and Young, Montreal, Hon. James Skead John sat in his shop, grinding away like a nig- power, it, just at the very instant when you are Ottawa, W. Shanly, M. P., Montrea, S.

and a boat besides if you want one—that is, of moment, what is the right thing to do; let him the son of a Montreal clergyman. He is a bar. confess at once that he is unequal to his place rister in London, and has the literary name of neutrality. 'And just look here,' continued weak to stay an unrighteous strife—to avert and Montreal, and a postal car will probably William, do you know where these cuts on my a storm of cruel, savage blows—to spare the be introduced on the line on the first of April. compatible with the rules of the Upper House. forehead came from? Why trom stones which infliction of wounds which will be gaping, and It is in contemplation to forward by this route you pitched across the water for Louis to unhealed for long, long years to come, bearing every night a second mail from Montreal for three months for indecent assault.

SUGGESTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS. so deeply and warmly interested.

return strengthened a preconceived suspicion of Alwington, Kingston, Feb 23, 1871.

EXPORTATION OF CATTLE.—The exportation | Lecturer; Mr William Henderson, Post Granhundred per week of cattle, with a small num. THE EXPORTATION OF AMERICAN W.R. MCRAE & Co. cows, and invariably appear to have been selected with a perfect appreciation of the good Shipped to New York...$3,298,880

POLICE COURT, FRIDAY.—Before Alderman W. Robinson, Acting Police Magistrate.—His Worship the Mayor was present.—Robert Ross Sr appeared in the dock in a very shaky condition 11 from the effects of strong drink, charged with drunkenness. He was ordered to pay a fine of two dollars, or go to gaol for ten days. The fine was paid. Mary Daley, discharged from Proceeds of silver sold in the General Hospital, applied to the court to be New York......$3,092,405 allowed to go to gaol for fourteen days, to en- Do. in England ......... 1,422,273 able her to recruit her strength sufficiently to Balance..... 118,182

'Vive la guerre!' cried poor Louis, rushing weak, because the weak has got himself into a authorities in placing a standard instru- feet propelled them before them over the frozen surface with the velocity of the wind, ever and anon whispering soft nonsense in their ears Ottawa, 20th February, 1871.—The discus-And the ladies liked it too immensely, small sions taking place as to the respective merits blame to them Those who were not so fortunate as to be thus favoured by the fair looked of Montreal forget one of the chief objects for enviously on and wished "they was" and vowed which the million dollar railway grant was that tomorrow they'd ask out Amelia Jane.
Some parties were out in gaily painted ice. Ridings of Renfrew. The impertance of secur-Montreal, Feb. 24.—A soiree in behalf of boats, and their clean white sails sent them ing this trade has not been realized, and the he Mile End Deaf and Dumb Institution bumming over the clean glare ice with the speed danger of its being diverted to Kingston by mirth of all concerned. These boats were meetings called to support the proposal of a Furniture, &c., &c, therein contained, com. freighted with the gaily dressed and light heart. grant to aid in the construction of the railway prising :which did them the duty of a sail bravely, and people of Montreal, who are most deeply inter. stands and Furniture, Spring and Hair Mat. the snowy sails of the wealthier was no envy ested, remains the same. However important tresses, Bedding, &c. ger at a new rudder and a pair of oars which called upon to act, your resources fail you, to them. Then there were skating races and Ottawa, and of its importance there can be Kitchen Utensils not enumerated. wanted to take advantage of the brook, for 'you don't exactly see how you can interfere.' Directors will meet in Monteral on the 18th trotting spurts and toboganning and falling little doubt, the value of such a railway is comwhich service Louis would pay him handsome- If, indeed, such an excuse be allowed to stand March to appoint a President and other offia good deal of merriment and no one the werse

> PEMBROKE RAILWAY.—The railway directors will be introduced into the Senate as soon as

man and a boy arrived in the city on Thursday | Renfrew for the last year, which will give an Charles Levesque was fined forty dollars or from the United States, having with them a very fine grey mare. The young man rode over treal. This, it must be remembered, is excluin the stage, and the lad rode the mare along. sive of the steamboat traffic which is also very LAST ide. Upon their arrival the police at once and large. THE RAILWAY TO PEMBROKE-A side. Upon their arrival the police at once sus- large, but of which no return can be got as pected them, and as the horse had not been entered at the Customs, information was at once ies. By these figuresthen, which I could not give Dear Sir,—In consequence of the severe and given to that department, who immediately in detail, it appears that by railway there were long_continued illness of a member of my fami seized the animal and still retain it. The own received at Sand Point 10,188 tons, of which ly, I have been prevented attending public ers, real or pretended, having however left the 6,336 tons go to North Renfrew, besides which meetings and taking an active part in matters connected with the proposed railway to the circumstance to Cape Vincent. Detective people appear to be anxious about is to extend GREAT BARGAINS. Pembroke, in which I am glad to see our people McAuley arrested the men this morning and the railway from Sand Point to the village of they acknowledged having stolen the Renfrew, a distance of about fourteen or fifteen But, in my retirement, this thought has struck horse, from Mr Volney Onley, of South is prepared to give a grant of $60,000. Of So many contradictions and absurdities me, Why, in seeking to reach the upper waters Rutland, near Watertown. The Chief of Po- course any of the merchants of Montreal doing reduced. The other day it was asserted twenty miles above it? Why not the Rail railway track as far as the depot. There sion westward beyond Ottawa. desirable site on the Upper Ottawa, and- farther down. The detective followed them up, young man very respectably connected in sole proprietors of it-make its centre a rail and finally captured them at Waterloo. The the county, attempted to commit spicide by way terminus, and so secure for themselves the men said that when they took the horse, there cutting his throat with arazor, while sufferground_rent or purchase money of every lot of was a cutter attached to it, which broke down ing from delirium tremens. Notwiths and the future city; for a town or city, it seems to me, must grow up at any well-selected point.

on the route, and they left it behind them. They s'ructures were separated, and the timely arwhich a railroad, by a short and direct route, American Consul, and consented to return to sign of the unfortunate man and placed him connects with the great, central and distributing the United States. A constable thence has in a fair way to recover.—Picton New Na-

> am I persuaded that if other sites, not yet built | tendance was very good, the Lodges in the on, have equal original commercial advantages | eastern part of Ontario being well represented | Mr H. S. McDonald, Grand Master, occupied the with Pembroke, the mere fact of its being a vil- chair, and Mr M. Bowell, M P., Grand Master of lage and having a kind of status ought not to British America, was present. Among those outweigh the great future advantage of a town present were Dr. Allen, Cornwall; Mr Thomas in the centre of ten thousand agree—town and Kingston; Mr Mattice, Cornwall; Mr S. S. Strike the Upper Ottawa and, with judgment, Henry Smith, Cobourg; Mr Boulter, Demorest_ Ready-made Pilot Coats, Beaver Coats, J. Norrie, Omemee, Grand Chaplain; Mr William Robinson, Kingston, Grand Treasurer; Mr A. J. Vanlingin, Cobourg, Grand Secretary; Mr Feb. 22. J. G. Moore, Belleville, Deputy Grand Secretary; Mr William Makins, Kingston, Grand

> > A parliamentary return gives details of the per cent thereon to cover commission, brokerage, express charg_ es, spurious and light coin, etc. ..... Shipped to England.... 1,502,401 Purchased at ..... 1,417,324 2 per cent thereon to cover commission, etc. Total .... $4,632,860

Out of a total of ...... 750,000 | lance between them. Instead of doing so, you very intelligent lecture; subject—God in acknowledge with sincere thanks the receipt of rounds, "something new" has been discovera ed. Mr Glaisher, the aeronaut, noticed that the voice of a woman penetrates two miles in the air, while of a man reaches only one mile. As, according to the old WINTER Sports.—The prevailing fine bright proved, "a miss is as good as a mile," weather and the capital condition of ice upon must be married women, experienced in the lake for the past week has induced all whom health and leisure would permit to go in for a two miles. But surely we need no savant OLD WHISKEY Quebec, Feb. 24.—A meeting to sym- health and leisure would permit to go in for a from a balloon to tell us this old fact. pathise with the Pope is to be held on Sun- thorough bout of outdoor exercise; and for Scott, in his "Fair Maid of Perth," notices day, March 5th, at Laval University. days past the harbour has presented a lively the same fact as regard voices heard on the John. 'He began it all William market will deliver addresses. and attractive scene. Young, aged and middle mountains; and hundreds of people have One of the storemen arrested a few days aged; men, women and children; rich, poor remarked how the fine notes of a violin

Defending his Grandmotherland! retorted ago has been sentenced to two months in tolerably good looking and ordinary; well as well to conceal the fact. If women once aged; men, women and children; rien, poor and "tolerably well off;" pretty, handsome, bassoon. Perhaps, however, it would be dressed and not so well, all appeared to have learn that they are not only equal to us in attention It is the tenth day of the trial.

Two small houses were burned at St.

Sauveur yesterday.

The thermometer controversey which has also been severed to the safer game of the thermometer controversey which has also been severed to the safer game of the thermometer controversey which has also been severed to the safer game of relieved. What are those who make mistakes agitated Quebec this winter will now be have lady companions packed them snugly in to people not gifted with voices penetratnever to be helped out of them? Is it any the settled inte project the settled inte project the settled inte project the warm fur lined hand sleighs and with iron shed ing two miles.— London Telegraph.

RAILWAY MATTERS AT OTTAWA. (Correspondence Montreal Herald)

tension to the Upper Ottawa district. The trade of lower Ottawa must necessarily come to Montreal under almost any circumstances. In | The above premises to let. Possession on summer there is the river by which a large the 2nd March. amount of business in done, and although in winter the road is somewhat roundabout, still there is access to the capital and the surround. ing country. But the upper Ottawa can be t easily tapped, and the preliminary survey between Kingston and Pcmbroke is reported to show a very favourable route for the construc. tion of that line. In the Carleton Place Herald I find official statement of the amount of goods Supposed to Have Been Stolen. - A young | brought to Sand Point for distribution through idea of the amount of trade in this part of the country, the greater part of which is from Monthe railway scheme may be supposed to be opposed to the interest of the steamboat compan-

the Kingston Quadrille Club in the Music on MONDAY EVENING, February . at half-past seven.

A full attendance is requested: By order. JAMES LOCHHEAD.

Feb. 24. DONALD MACKAY'S

HAVE COMMENCED.

A TERED. The following are to be the time Street, Montreal.

DONALD McKAY. Merchant Tailor.

CROCERIES.

ARE SELLING THE

BEST AND CHEAPEST

FINE TEAS COFFES.

Strength and Fine Flavor

UNEQUALLED.

chasing Teas from W. R. Mc. Rae & Co.,

WHOLESALE PRICES.

W. R. MCRAE & Co.

VERY OLD

FAMILY WHISKEY,

The Finest in the City, FOR SALE.

W. W. MCRAE & Co. Feb. 11.

I J. LINTON has received instructions to Wednesday, 1st March. No. 1 MOZART TERRACE, Earl Street.

ed of the fair sex, who betted gloves upon the broke and a reference to the reports of the meetbroke, and a reference to the reports of the meet- rep), Centre, Card, and Side Tables, 1 Taree. result of the race with their bearded attendant ings beld will show this. Whether an attempt fry Carpet, Ornaments, Pictures, Curtains and swains who always forgot to pay when they has been made designedly to divert attention Cornices, 1 Extension Dining Table (7 leaves) lost, and took their fill of enjoyment. Lots of from this point, or whether it has been merely 6 Chairs, 1 Rocking Chair, 1 Side Table (in boys scudded on hand sleighs over the ice— lost sight of in consequence of the struggle between the advocates of two rival routes, need Plated and Crockery Ware, Outlery, Oil Cloth not exactly under bare poles, but under the not, perhaps, be too closely considered, as the Coal Stove, Mats, Lamps, &c., Bedroom Car kindly patronage of a thick hemlock bough tact that this point has been forgotten by the pets, Bedsteads (iron and wood), Bureau, Wash.

Also 1 Cooking Stove and a quantity of Terms Cash before delivery.

Sale at 10 o'clock.

J. J. LINTON.

Kingston, Feb. 22, 1871.

THE

ONLY

TEN DAYS MORE

CLEARING OUT SALE. Feb. 16, 1871.

BARGES for SALE. JUD THE FIRST-OLASS BARGES "DOVE" and "JAY," built in Montreal in 1870

Length 93 feet 6 inches; breadth 18 feet 10 inches; depth of hold 6 feet 5 inches; capacity 8,500 bushels wheat. The Barge "Dove" can be seen in the Canal | LT Basin, Montreal, and the "Jay" at Henderson's Dock, Kingston.

A LL WINTER GOODS WILL BE SLAUGH- Kingston, or to Bruno Loignon, 30 St. Auguse NEW P

ARRIVED

AT STACEY'S FOR THIS MONTH. TOUNG LADIES' JOURNAL.

> Gentleman's Journal. Roglishwoman's Domestic Magazine. Every Month. Young Men of Great Britain.

Boys of England. Cassell's Magazine. London Society. Family Herald.

London Journal. Godey's Book for March Demorest's

Peterson's Lady's Friend Leslie's Ladies' Magazine for March, &c., Stacey's News Depot.

EXTENSIVE SALE

SELL THEM RETAIL AT CLEARING OUT AT COST PRICE. CENUINEBARGAINS IN ALL DRESS GOODS,

CANADA BLANKETS. SUABLET AND FANCY PLANNELS, BLACK LUSTRES,

CANADA TWEEDS WOOL CLOUDS. SONTAGS, MUFFLERS, FANCY CLOAKINGS.

WOOL SHAWLS, WATERPROOFS, FRENCH MERINOES. Just received 2 Bales HORROCKS'S WHITE COTTONS in Nes of 32 in A, 32 in B, 36 in > R. WALDRON, Wilson's Buildings. Jan. 16, 1871.

A, 36 in B, 36 in H, 36 in M, cheap

IDAY EVENING. REE FIRST PAG TELEGR

CABLE NEWS DD, Feb. 33. -- In the ar the governments framed with the as mbers of commerce. the reinspection and entmen, the determ) A line of every vesse the number of pa at carry. Various a the bill was with Feb. 22.—Gener. letter to the Liberte what are my feeli is daily gaining ing entry into Paris shall give them a half months' of ofter a severe bomb. or victims, in acco dictated by famin owes Paris honou should have no a which rule in pul of nobleness on the d the conquered. W war for Paris nte and her mourn enemy wishes to en forced any point having taken by a fort or carried an in these circumstances ression of the city bear the odium and As a speechles against the entry bould be shut. Let Disarmed, Pa an leave to truth, ask of judging betv ice authorities fea the cause of di bombs were seize Ministry appoin con received favo General Le E y as Minister of rm the army in Favre should peace negotiations the Minister o r because he is a p cond train from last night, but e Prussians. T has not been asce nortality is decrea favourable change od and temperate among the Last night 4,00 utside the 1 ne Place des Petis ors for food. thousand six l fuel arrived in and drugs are t none left in the ci l advertiseme Weissemburg, g vying and distrib contains a notice military officials receive during t

cs extra pay pe

MACN

ocured by special n, Feb. 24.—The has the follow To-day Coun he conclusion of asked for a pro Hostilities wi he 26th. The rned towards s held today. b. 24.—A t Versailles d on of all Free EACE CONCI Feb 22, 4:30 r a treaty of In Thiers and details are ye inally settled t pays Germany of thale ing the c re ceded to th army will not e William leaves ANCIAL AND C'

0, Feb. 24, 11.30 1862, 91; '65, les 873. Erie 18 c and Great Ol, Feb. 24, 11.30 V. Uplands 71d; 04,000 bales, incl flow 44s 9d; lar YORK PRESS St. Thomas en out in Hayti

d at St. Tho upon all true De speaks of the co or, Feb. 24 All members of

A fresh lot of

Jan. 11.

Jan. 19.