CHENTLEMEN .- After maturely considering the earnest solicitation of my many friends, of all shades in politics, I have de. termined to offer myself at the approaching election as a candidate for the representation of the city in the Legislative Assembly of On-

The present interests of the city should receive the special attention of your Representative, and any measure tending to foster and improve those interests shall receive my active and energetic support. And believing that a more liberal land and immigration policy, together with the removal of all useless restrictions upon our timber and mineral lands, must result in material benefits to our city, by filling up our sparsely aettled back townships, I shall, elected, urge upon the administration the adoption of such measures as may best conduce.
