The Daily Acous. TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 25.

SEE LAST PAGE. Much uncertainty is beginning to be felt in political circles in regard to the majority of the present administration in the new House of Assembly. Not until the protested election cases are settled can the standing of the House be definitely ascertained Reports are also prevailing of the resignation of Ministers; and it is asserted that not only the Hon Stephen Richards is to retire, but I giving rise to the supposition that even greater changes are possible; while the Reformers stoutly insist that there will be a change of Ministry when the House meets and claim that Mr Mackenzie, the leader of the opposition, will be made Premier Ontario.
