Dr. Finnell. He had a very large practice and taker, to recover the sum of $1,400 for his funeral expenses.

Mrs Killoreen died in October, 1869, leaving teams to travel through the country selling dry goods. She owned six tenement houses in this vinces who carry out the same system. city, in one of which she occupied apartments. In her last illness she sent for Mr Therry, to whom she gave minute directions in reference til his mind became morbid. Latterly he took not fight at all." to drinking very hard, and at times seemed to be out of his senses. He frequently told his wife that if ever he should commit suicide he THE CAMP AT FORT FREDERICK. would take her with him. She never paid any them the momentary ebullitions of folly of a drunken man.

what he had seen. She supposed her husband more and told him her fears. He advised her and demanded admittance. Mrs Connolly, water never fails to make. who opened the door, refused to let him enter He said that he had good reason to for believ. husband should not be arrested. She n arly charge of a policeman, who confined her and panied by the name and address of the writer; not will only writeon one side of the sheet of paper.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

The Daily Mews.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 21.

The London journals of the 2nd inst. fusal would be the reassembling of the old and those who attended to this order were Legislative Body. "Then," he says, "you well enough off; but some ignorant and signed anything." |As to the future, Prince improvident neglected to observe it, and titled "The Priest of Perth." Connolly was The working of the new election law in | ceedingly hungry towards night, and either a good scholar, speaking fluently Latin, contested cases has just been exemplified by patronized the canteens for beer or visited Lieut J Johnston; Rasign Z Caddy. French, and Spanish. He received his medi-cal education in this city, in Mobile, and New Orleans, and graduated with high hon. delegated the work of inquiry from partizan The officers have their mess in the old committees to impartial Judges, is found to moulding loft of the dockyard. The caval-Among his classmates was the well-known work well. One of its advantages is its ry and 47th and other Battalions have their was highly esteemed for his skill and learning. thorough publicity. In the Carleton case tables on the upper floor, which is large About four or five years ago excessive application the proceedings soon came to an end because onough for a ball room, and is a very pleasant, Campbell; Ensign (absent). to his business prostrated him, and a brain fe- the court became satisfied that bribery had airy, lightsome place. The lower floor is not Duncan; Ensign W Deviney. Four eminent physicians gave his case up as been practised, and the election was annulled. quite so well lighted. Each corps has its hopeless after several weeks' treatment, but he The stringency of the law against bribery, own table; but the officers are otherwise recovered notwithstanding. A little over three and the strictness of the courts will render | thrown all together, and have the best opporgaret Killoreen, the eccentric old lady whose our elections purer than ever they were tunity of cultivating good fellowship. At good name was so singularly mixed up with a known to be before, and the success of the sxo'clock on Wednesday evening an inspecsuit brought up by Mr John Therry, an under. plan in Ontario, will pave the way for its tion of the mess rooms showed each table application to elections for the Dominion elegantly set for the evening meal, and from Parliament and the other provinces. There the supplies of comestibles which were to be over a quarter of a million dollars, the most of can be no doubt but Ontario has made a seen it was evident that the officers had the which she had accumulated in the peddling most desirable advance in this respect benefit of a good commissariat and would She employed neveral men with which will be to the profit of all the pro- not lack for good things to satisfy the inner

The Camp of the Third Military District | do not admit of much remark. There is, attention to his threats, however, thinking was formed at Fort Frederick on Wednesday among so many regiments, no lack of under the command of Colonel Paterson, medical officers, who have their own re-Yesterday afternoon he spent the time in the Assistant Deputy Adjutant General, and a gimental duties to perform, besides which back room in the second story with his eldest full staff. The camp ground is on the pro- an officer of the day does duty by rotachild little Agnes. The storm kept him in the house and doubtless had a depressing effect upon his spirits. About 5 o'clock he came down the harbour of Kingston and Navy Bay, at Henry has been selected as the hospital. to the kitchen where his wife sat nursing the the apex of which stands the tower of Fort Arrangements for the construction walked up stairs with it. Nothing was thought Frederick and at the base the workshops latrines were being made on Weddsay. of the circumstance, and nobody followed him and storehouses of the Dockyard. Between | From the proximity of the water cleanliness About half an bour afterward the little boy the workshops and the fort is an open can be promoted by ordering bathing who drives his waggon, and whose name is Collins, came in to see him about something, plateau of level land of some thirty parades in the early morning, which it is and was directed up stairs. Finding the door acres on which the tents are pitched. The expected will be done. The camp can be locked on the inside he knocked. Dr. Con- situation is very fine and healthful, and made salubrious by proper care; but it is a molly opened the door and asked him what he everyone is satisfied with it. It is much to great pity that the plain regulations of wanted. He had the fatal knife in his hand, and was probably already at his bloody work be preferred to the ground about Fort military hygiene have been departed Collins told him, received his answer, and, Henry. There is no lack of water as at the from in placing the tents too near together going down stairs again, told Mrs Connolly Crystal Palace, for the lake is on both sides and in crowding too many men into a tent. was murdering the children, but evidently of the camp, and the fresh cooling breez. To put fifteen men into a ten men tent is never imagined that he would do any harm to blowing down from the expanse of Lake simply to increase the amount of sickness, himself. She ran out next door to Mr Whitte- Ontario makes the atmosphere as delight- and to put the tents too close together will to send for the police, but this she would not ful as the surroundings, which are very plea- render the camp foul so much the sooner. listen to, not wanting to have him arrested. She sant. On the south side there is the con- The men will probably complain with despatched a messenger for Father Larue of spicuous object of the tower; to the east every justification of being crowded in St. Vincent de Ferrei's church in Twenty-third the river St. Lawrence, the islands and their tents. It is to be hoped that ad-Father came and endeavoured to communicate Fort Henry; and on the west a splendid ditional tents will be served out before any with the dector through the keybole, but could view of the city greets the eye and impres- of the ill-effects to be apprehended declare get no answer. In the mean time Mr Whitte-more informed the police, and Capt. Wash- ses the stranger with the favourable opin- themselves. Were it a matter of difficult transburne arrived at the house about 7 o'clock, ion of Kingston which a view from the portation or scarcity, there might be some ex-

children. Capt. Washburne added that as successive arrival of troops and the pitching quisite number of tents. Captain of Police he would have to see about of tents; but towards evening matters were The military exercises and parades will take t. She ordered him down the steps. He brushed past her, however, with a file of men, put very much to rights, and the camp then place on Barriefield Common, the scene of and bursting in the door, realized the truth. assumed an appearance of military uniformity many a bloodless manowuvre and grand review. Mrs Connolly seemed most anxious that her and order. The arrangement made may be It is quite near, and its convenience in that rewent out of her mind when informed that he thus described. The staff have their tents was dead. She was not permitted to gaze up. in the enclosure of the Dockyard workshops, on the revolting spectacle, but was given in a central and secluded locality, under the the two servants in the back parlour down shadow of the famous "stone frigate." Here stairs. The three women went from one fit of the tents were very trimly pitched evidently bysterea into another, and it was impossible to by experienced soldiers. The place had a Gonnolly denied that she or her husband had befitting air of dignity about it, as the headany relatives in |this city, but she afterward | quarters and centre of authority. In the raved of a younger sister who is being educated open ground to the rear the cavalry, No. 1 when exposed to the imptations of the city. Her screams as the Sun reporter left were heart- of the fort. To the left of the plateau looking alry band in the Dominion. from the headquarters lay the 15th (Argyleshire) Battalion of Infantry under Colone! Campbell, of Belleville (brother of Hon Alex' ander Campbell) and next the 16th Battalion from Prince Edward under the command of for publication, but as evidence of au- Colonel Ross. The other corps were ranged in numerical order round the border of the camp ground, the 40th (Cobourg,) 46th (Port Hope,) 47th (Frontenac,) 49th (Sterling,) Bat. and 57th (Peterborough) Battalions. The 47th Frentenac under Colonel Hamilton Rifles. have a very fine location on the western side on ground with a gradual slope sufficient to ensure good drainage. The 15th Battalion arrived late in the contain the text of the letter addressed by afternoon by the Rochester and were en-Prince Napoleon to Jules Favre. He charges gaged in pitching their tents towards six the Republican Minister and his colleagues o'clock. This they did with ready dispatch with the responsibility of almost all the as the tent equipage lay on the ground and evils from which France is suffering, and numerous small stakes were already placpoints out how much better things were ed to denote the position of the tent poles. Lieutenant JAG Crozier; Ensign C Thomas. managed under the Empire. "The Empire," The officers warned their men that any R P Davey; Ensign James Clark. the Prince observes, "had committed great slovenly work in putting up the tents would faults, our defeats were great, but our dis- be useless as they would have to be taken asters date from you. Let each bear his down and put up again if they were not part. Without doubt it was a greivous exactly in line. The neat geometrical aperror to count too much upon the forces of pearance of the whole camp shows that Lieut J.H. Lister; Ensign G.E.J. Hanwell. France, and to commit in 1870 the fault these orders are strictly attended to. The which Prussia committed in 1806 -to look | tents are of the bell pattern, with a curtain too much to our victories under the great round the bottom and flaps at the sides non-commissioned officers and men. Republic and the first Empire; to think too and five openings at the top for the purpose little of the powerful enemy we had to com- of ventilation. There is of course the door, bat; to contemplate the Crimea in 1854 which can be left open for the same purpose and Italy in 1859, instead of calmly looking | if desired. Tenmen and a non-commissionin the face the German forces in 1870, ed officer occupy a tent under regulations; headed by remarkable men. I neither wish but at the camp this number is exceeded to nor can I deny these faults, for which the and the tents are made to contain thir-Napoleons pay far more heavily by their teen or fourteen men. The men sleep heartfelt grief than by their mere exile; but with their heads to the curtain and appointed); Ensign — Elsworth, the Emperor has never sought to cling to feet to the pole. It is very jolly they the throne by a peace which might save his say in fine weather and as disagreeable as T McFadden; Ensign B Reynolds. power by imposing too great sacrifices on possible in rainy weather unless the utmost G Hayes; Ensign G Marsh. France. Mark! we have one consolation, care is taken not to touch the inside of the that of having fallen with the country, tent while it is wet, else the rain, instead while, on the contrary, your elevation dates of being shed, will drop down in heavy from its misfortune." The Prince tells M. drops at that particular spot and render Favre that he knows better than anybody | the place disagreeable. Old campaigners | the terms which Napoleon III. might have get accustomed to all these things and make G E Vandusen; Ensign L Hayes, obtained from Prussia at Sedan. They the best of tent life. The men have need were hard, no doubt, but the sacrifices of to take care of their tents for their pocket's France would not, if they had been acceptas well as their comfort's sake, as if a tent non-commissioned officers and men ed, have borne comparison with those she be damaged by any wilful act, a fine of $35 THE 40TH NORTHUMBERLAND BATTALION—HEAD has had to make. The real reason why M. is imposed to pay the cost of a new tent. Favre accepted everything which Bismarck On Wednesday there were no provisions proposed is, the Prince plainly tells him, served out, and there was no cooking going that he was made to understand by the Ger- on. The men had been ordered to supply man Minister that the consequence of re- themselves with a day's cooked provisions.

man during their stay. The camp of course brings a little harvest for grocers, butchers, The Ottawa Times very properly re- bakers and brewers, whose carts now begin to her funeral. After her death Mr Connolly, marks. - "We notice that Mr Mackenzie's to throng the approaches to the camp. The who had been appointed her executor, told Mr appointment to a position in an Insurance regimental canteens are situated near the to the manner of her burial, but when Mr Company has been made the basis for a battalion allotments, and for the most part Walsh; Ensign J. McIndoo. Therry shortly thereafter presented a bill for personal attack upon that gentleman. This are structures of boards. A great want about $1,400, he refused to pay it. Mr Therry is not right. However much the Grits may which Colonels, Majors, Adjutants and R, Touchbourn; Ensign (absent.) sued, and the case was tride April 17, before indulge in a low personal warfare, do not Judge Sutherland.

No. 6 Company—Capt. J. McDermot; Lieut. McGill; Ensign (absent.) The notoriety given to the case preyed upon let us have anything of that kind on our their horses. The idea of tethering valu-Dr. Connolly's mind. He brooded over it un. side. Let us fight with fair weapons or able horses, their own property, is not liked and the erection of temporary board stables has been proposed. The medical arrangements of the camp cuse, but the camp is under the very shadow of Wednesday being the first day things were | the main storehouse of the Dominion, and there ing that her husband had murdered his two naturally in the confusion attending the should be no difficulty about obtaining the re> spect in lessening fatigue will, no doubt, be appreciated in this bot weather,

Colonel Paterson has the reputation of being Lieut Johnson; Ensign Dickson. a strict disciplinarian, with no sort of toleration duty anywhere. It is to be hoped the soldiers | No 3 Company—Captain J. Burnham; punishment, but pursue their military training Lient Dr Dean; Ensign J Dickson.

other time begged the officer, if she should go Wands had their location with their tents in Dantes Links. Gazzlez control in comments of the Sacred Heart, and at another time begged the officer, if she should go Wands had their location with their tents in Dantes Links. Gazzlez control in comments crazy not to let her brother come near her. Woods had their location, with their tents in Durham Light Cavalry arrived in camp, and She wouldn,t let him triumph over her, she neat order. The Kingston battery of Field were received by Lieut. R. White, of the 1st said, and get hold of her property. She finally became so had that Dr. Stempson of 41 East Artillery under Major Drummond were in- Frontenac. They are a fine body of men Seventh street was sent for, and administered stalled in Fort Frederick, a part cut off from A very good mounted band of 15 instru. sedatives, which had the effect of quieting her. the rest of the camp by the walls and bastions | ments is attached to the corps, the only cav.

ARMY LIST OF THE CAMP.

COMMANDANT AND STAFF. Lieut Col Paterson. First Brigade, Major Phillips. Second Brigade, Uapt. Hayter Reed. Supply Officer, Lieut. Thompson, 47th Bat. Muster Instructor, Colonel Cubitt,

Camp Quarter Master, Colonel Fowler, 48th Orderly Officer, Capt. Barrow, P.W.O. THE 15TH BATTALION OF ARGYLSHIRE LIGHT

INFANTRY. Lieutenant Colonel, A Argyle Campbell. Major, T C Wallbridge, Second do, S Stephens. Adjutant, Capt R Croft Hulme. Surgeon, James Lister, M.D. Assistant Surgeon, DE Burdett, M.B., M.R.

Paymaster, Capt J C Holden. Quartermaster, G B Orozier. No 1 Company Captain S H Henderson; No 2 Company-Captain O F Bogart; Lieut No 3 Company—Captain U E Thompson Lieut J Taylor; Ensign F G A Henderson. No 4 Company-Uaptain SS Lazier; Lieut GM Stewart; Ensign - Appleby.

No 5 Company-Captain L N F Crozier No 6 Company-Captain J Mackie; Lieut J W Dunnet; Ensign James Whiteford. Strength of Battalion, 29 officers and 330

16TH BATTALION, PRINCE DOWARD. Lieutenant Colonel, Col Ross, MP. Major, Lieut Col Bogg. 2nd Major, F White. Adjutant. Geo A Simpson. Surgeon, J A Rankin. Assistant Surgeon, D M Platt. Paymaster, Walter Rose, jr. Quartermaster, Donald Ross.

No 1 Company—C A J Wight; Lieut (not No 2 Company, Capt H McCullough; Lieut No 3 Company—Capt S Weeks; Lieut paper in this city. No 4 Company—Capt J C Lake; Lieut C Akerman; Ensign J Ostrander. No 5 Company-Capt M Richards; Lieut Vandeusen; Ensign 8 Gordon. Ne 6 Company-Capt R Johnston; Lieut R A Foster; Ensign J Tennant. No 7 Company—Capt N A Peterson; Lieut No 8 Company-Capt Dempsey; Lieut J Anderson: Ensign J C Cunningham.

Strength of Battalion-27 officers and 431 QUARTERS COBOURG. Lieut Colonel, W Smith. Majors, C Elliott; Acting Capt Webb, Adjutant, Capt H Smith.

Paymaster (acting), W H Floyd. Sargion, A N Bethune. Assistant Surgeon, (absent.) Quartermaster, Capt A I Van Ingel. No 1 Company—Capt I V Graveley; Lieut W Richardson; Ensign G Guillet. the consequence was that they were ex- J Auston; Ensign C Boswell

No 3 Company-Captain R Bonny castle; No 4 Company-Capt A C Webb; Lieut N. Deau; Ensign Buttler.

No 5 Company-Capt C Gifford; Lieut Page; Ensign A Bourn. No 6 Company - Capt R Z Rogers; Lieut A Macdonald; Ensign C Rogers No 7 Company - Cipt A Vars; Lieut A No 8 Company-Capt W Duncan; Lieut G No 9 Company-Capt R P Hurlbut; Lieut H O'Neil; Ensign Boyce.

Strength of Battalion - 32 officers and 415 non commissioned officers and men. 46TH BATTALION Lieut-Col. A. Williams.

Second do, (Absent.) Surgeon, J.F. Denvar. Adjutant do, Dr. Might. Paymaster, Capt. R. Hawden. Quartermaster, P. T. Kellaway. No. 1 Company-Capt. Benson; Lieut W. Craig; Ensign - J. B. Odell; (attach-

Major, Charles Boulton.

No. 2 Company-Capt. Dingball; Lieut. H.A. Ward; Ensign J. P. Clemes. No. 3 Company-Capt. W. Graham; Lieut. J. Hunter; Ensign J. Wallace. No. 4 Company-Capt. J. Dundas; Lieut No. 5 Company—Capt. J. Preston; Lieut

Strength of Battalion-25 officers and 309 non-commissioned officers and men. 47th BATTALION FRONTENAC INFANTRY.

Lieut.-Colonel, II. Hamilton. Majors, G A. Kirk; J. Craig. Adjutant, W. M. Baillie. Surgeon, Dr. Maclean. Assistant Surgeon, Dr. Smith. Paymaster, C. Langwith. Quartermaster, N. G. Thompson.

No. 1 Company-Cap'ain Langwith Lieut R. Hewton; Ensign (absent.) No. 2 Company-Cap ain G. Hunter; Lieut D. Walker; Ensign (absent.) No. 3 Company-Captain Irvine; Lieut C. B. Spooner; Ensign C. Irvine. No. 4 Company-Captain II. R. Smith; Lieut Kelley; Ensign Wilson.

. Byrne; Ensign (not appointed) Murray; Ensign F Bush. No 7 Company-Captain E Joyner; Lieut Abrams; Ensign (absent.)

49TH BATTALION-HASTINGS RIFLES. Lieut Col J Brown, MP. Majors, M Bowell, M P, James Cumming. Adjutant, James S Hurst. Surgeon, Dr C N Redley. Paymaster, G H Gordon.

Quartermaster, Alex Webster. No 1 Company-Capt P H Hambley; Lieut (absent;) Ensign E Harrison. No 2 Company-Capt G H Boulter, M P P. Lieut (absent;) Ensign John Acers No 3 Company-Capt B H Vandervoort: Lieut J Caverly; Ensign - Foster. No 4 Company-Capt G D Rawe; Lieut F B Fraleck; Ensign Roblin. No 5 Company-Capt Charles Anderson Lient James Lennox; Ensign absent. No 6 comprises the Trenton Battery Artillery, which will be present here in Sep.

tember next. Strength of Battalion, 19 officers and 284 Street. non-comissioned officers an i men. 57TH BATTALION.

Majors, J Kennedy and E Leigh. Adjutant, Capt J Z Rogers. Surgaon, R Kincaid. Assistant do, A Bell. Paymaster, W Chambers. Quartermaster, Knapp. No 1 Company-Captain H Rogers:

No 2 Company-Captain Jas Kennedy . or drunkenness in the men, or negligence of Lieut Joseph Kennedy; Ensign Langford. will give him little occasion for ordering Lieut CS Dadman; Ensign (not appointed.) No 4 Company-Captain J W Green; No 5 Company-Captain Grover; Lieut R H M'Gill; Ensign R Adams. No 6 Company-Captain Hewston; Lieut Howard; Ensign (absent).

Strength of Battalion, 23 officers and 297 non-commissioned officers and men. CAVALRY. THE NORTHUMBERLAND AND DURHAM SQUA- I manufacturers, Lieut.-Colonel Boulton commanding. Adjutant, D. Boulton. Quartermaster, A. Burnham. Surgeon, Dr. Burrows. Veterinary Surgeon, J. S. Ceaser. First Troop (Cobourg) - Captain Regan: Lieut A. M. Regan; Cornet, H. S. Casey.

The squadron is distinguished by the presence of a fine mounted band comprising fifteen instruments. Strength of Squadron 11 officers and 125 men and non-commissioned officers. number of horses 140.

FRONTENAC SQUADRON. Commander Major Duff. Adjutant Caldwell. Surgeon Brown. Veterinary Surgeon MacIntosh. Quartermaster Moore.

First Troop-Lieut R White, (acting Captain;) Cornet Knight, (acting Lieut;) Cornet (not appointed).

Second Troop—Captain Major Wood; Lieut G Wood; Cornet McRorey. Strength of Squadron 10 officers and 110 men and non-commissioned officers; number of horses 130 men.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS. (Per Montreal Line.) FROM MONTREAL.

Montreal, June 22. - Mr Gault who was shot by burglars last Sunday week, was able to be out of bed yesterday. The burglars have not yet been arrested. The Mayor was called on yesterday and told that fears were entertained of a disturbance in Hochelaga district. Two batteries of Garrison Artillery, Montreal Cavalry and Victoria Rifles, were ordered to hold themselves in readiness and are now under arms, to quell any riot that might occur. Gangs of rowdies were captured by the battery on St Helens Island yesterday, they will be dealt with in court today. Mr John Dougall is about to start a! Daily Witness in New York similar to his A grand lacrosse match will be played between the Shamrock and Caughnawaina

Indians on the 29th instant. The weather is clear and cool. A Rome letter says that Father Hyacinthe requested an interview with Pio Nono recently, and that the Pope peremptorily declined to see him under any circumstances whatever, declar_ ing him to be one of the worst enemies the Church ever had. The Sultan of Turkey is said to have such a time. As they were all specially made to our passion for billiards that he frequently rises at two o'clock in the morning, and insists on the best in quality made. finishing some game he has in his mind.

of W. H. Colclough, agent G. T. R., of a daugh-Do You wanta Good Smoke, Then use the Myrtle Navy Extra Bright 8moking To acco.

At Newtonville, on the 21st instant, the wife CARD. THE CREAT tention to their New Stock of Bilks just arrived from London, Light Fancies in all the CLEARING SALE 30,000 WORTH Shades, Black Gros Grain Silks in all Widths. spleedid lot of New Irish Poplins from Fry & Sons of Dublin, Japanese Poplins in sil Shades Plain and Fancy. A New Lot of Ladies' Sun Umbrellas in Green and Brown, Lyons Black GLASGOW WAREHOUSE, Corner Welling.

DRY GOODS LYBSTP Velvets 27 inches all silk, New Black and Col-

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL!

Hall

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL and BA. ZAAR, in aid of the Building Fund of St. Paul's Sunday School, will be held in Victoria Hall on the Afternoon and Evening of Friday

June 23. Tickets of admission 10 cents, which may be had at the door; children half price. cents. Ice Cream five cents. Soda Water Floor Oil Cloths at 3s 3d.

five cents. Other refreshments at ordinary Best Canadian Tweeds, fine make 5s, Open during the afternoon from 2 till 5 Linens, Sheetings, and Cottons all down, o'clock; in the evening from 7 o'clock. The Band will play in the evening.

The Ladies of the Committee request that contributions of work not yet sent in be sent to Dry Goods from 6d. Mrs Burns, Rideau street, near Barrack street, not later than Thursday evening. Contribu. tions of Cakes may be sent to Mrs Stratton, Princess street. Kingston, June 21.

WANTED, COOK. Apply to LADY SMITH, Roselawn, Kingston. June 19th, 1871.

STRAYED COW.

No 5 Company—Captain (absent); Lieut [[AME into the premises of Joseph Langwith,] Portland Road, on the 15th June, a RED No 6 Company—Captain S Going; Llent COW. The owner can have her by proving property and paying expenses.

> TO LET. THOSE NEW TWO-STOREY BRICK

HOUSES on the corner of Colborne and Sydenham Streets. Apply at this office, or to JOHN TUCKER on the premises. June 21.

KINGSTON Electoral Division Society.

THE next Exhibition of this Society will be beld at the DRILL SHED, on Wednesday, 5th of July, 1871, Entries may be made at any time from this date until the evening previous to Exhibition, at the office of the Secretary, on Ontario And HEMP CARPETS.

The Band of P. W. O. Rifles will be in at-Tickets of Membership may be had on application to the Secretary or any of the Officers of the Society. For part cul s see

By order. E. H. SMYTHE, Kingston, June 20, 1871.

TTAVE JUST RECEIVED direct from the

Grenoble, France,

Second Troop (Port Hope) - Captain, Lieut. Colonel Smart; Lieut, Capt. C. Wil- Five Thousand Pairs

(5,000 PAIRS)

JOSEPHINE PREMIER QUALITIE!

French Kid Gloves

Distinct shades of Colourings. INCLUDING

BRIGHT BLUE,

BRIGHT GREEN

BRIGHT PURPLE,

PINK,

LAVENDER:

MAUVE,

Also BLACK and WHITE.

The above goods were ordered last Novem. ber, but owing to the disturbed state of affairs in France could not be sent before the present

R. & J. GARDINER.

Still continues at the

MONTREAL HOUSE, INCHES

Rendered necessary by the rebuilding of THE LAMBTON BLOCK

T) EST TAPESTRY CARPETS at 4s,

All wool Carpets at 3s.

Unions at 2s. Lace Curtains at $14 now tor $11. $12 Our. BLEACH Strawberr'es and Cream, with Cake, ten tains now for $9, other prices in proportion.

Gros Grain Silks at 3s. Flannel Shirtings at 1s 3d.

We are making heavy reductions throughout our entire Stock, 12,000 yards of the Beat British Prints, yard wide finest quality, and choicest dresses at 121 cents per yard. JAMES DAVIS,

Montreal House, Lambton Block Kingston, June 12, 1871. .eehannid

June 18.

VERYOATTR

Title direct fro

Part of the Parm is

NOM (

SPLENDID STOCK OF CARPETS

Great Variety of Patterns,

TAPESTRY and BRUSSELS.

THREE PLY IMPERIAL AND SUPERFINE.

WOOL, UNION.

COCOA MAITING And PRINTED FELT CARPET-

BRUSSELS, TAPESTRY, ALBERT AND DUTCH STAIR CARPETS.

DOOR MATS AND HEARTH RUGS,

ALL AT REDUCED PRICES, AT PRINCESS STREET.

Car pets made up and put down to order. JUST RECEIVED

A LARGE STOOK of PINLAY'S colebrated BLEACHED SHEETINGS. PILLOW COTTONS, LINEN SHEETINGS and PILLOW LINENS, ME WINDOW HOLLANDS, Buff, White and Wille III Green, all widths from 28 inches to 60 inches.
TOWELS and TOWELLING. NEW MUSLIN ROBES, NEW BRILLIANT ROBES,

All at Extremely Low Prices, at Macnee & Waddell's, AT WALD PRINCESS STREET.

Received This NEW BNGLISH

FLOOR OIL CLOTHS. Beautiful Choice Designs

18 feet wide.

A Can be cut any width to fit Halls or Rooms, Laces, T Macnee & Waddells'

STRAWBERRIES.

and Cocoa Nuts DECRIVED THIS DAY, to be sold

Wholesale and Retall, AT R. TOWN'S. MASONIC BUILDINGS

Kingston, June 13th, 1871. Cess street PRICE FIVE CRATS.

BILL HEADS and other kinds of Jos Printine executed with neatness and Productions despatch at the Daily News office, Princess

Daily News EGRAP PRESS DESPATO

Maller, of Cuya e 21 and Anglia, fro ne 21 ... A sharp ea ters, who had b on the loth i of _During the to. Mrs Valladia The physicians, w OUARTER SESSI

Wedn

over an hour, of guilty agains proved against the our years in the eded with the ag a horse, the n the village of Pa whinbrooke, on the enaued on the day na of the horse in the wern keeper in the v a brother of the accuse a knife upon Veley

nocked Neddo down

been a "raising bee" and drink had be ad that he had kille leaving his horse tied When Veley returned having been killed by nded the prisoner the prosecutio e prisoner guilty. proceedings of the with the trial c an for keeping a hou acquitted on th the first. Her case art, and Judge Burro the prisoners. BRNTENCES. r stealing from the mutilating and to imprisonmen CAMP.-A camp r, when the Nap

Garrison Artilles Lennox and Addin s not now in car of the absent t lonel Patterson' nd thus have an op sainted with camp will greatly serve Supper .- .. The frien n tendered him a

on the eve of hi

The entertainment on's hotel. Mr Br ure, and expects TIVAL. - The pub ry Festival at orrow afternoon the Sunday Scho d's Oburch. No the entertainme and if delicious d by the hands on at 2 and p PEMBROKE,-M bylaw has b be able to g appear safe,

MARKETS

April 19, 1871.

2C. SINGLE COPIES of the DAILE U BUTTER