In the European 'Times' of the 3rd instants an account is given of the attitud of Franci co Moraty and Bento Mayo Argenti in the s'up Laty Balwer, in charge Michael Barrett and James Station, two Quebee constables. These parties had been tried at Quebec for the murder of Peter Gelland of Gotland, at Mobile in the Utiled States, in 1850, while the prisoners and the deceases belonged to and were seamen of the Briti ship Alberta, of Liverpool. It may be renembered that the trial resulted in their favor, and that the Colonial authorities detain ed the men, until they could communica'e with and receive instructions concerning trem from the Home Government.
