NEW YORK, 19th November, 1859. Dear Sir :- Having visited several Ships new city of Kingston, on TUESDAY, the 14th | Catalogues can be obtained five days pre- in the port of New York, bound to "Australia." as well as few others, which have sailed for that quarter, I have no hesitation to state that none of these fine "Chacken-up" Ships attracted my attention more than the noble Ship "ALERT." She is the finest specimen of Navel Architecture that I have seen in this part, -I do not mean your fine Clipper Ships which are more calculated for fast sailing than anything else. The "ALERT" is a medium between the "CLIE-PER "and " PACKET, " and is without any excep tion, the best fastened, finished and furnished yessel I have ever seen.
