Lectures on the Book of Revelation, Delivered in Exeter Hall, and at Crown Court Church.

NEW EDITIONS, Revised & corrected by the Author with Index &e

These Lectures were begun in Exeter Hall, during the period cocupied in the enlargement of the Church of which the Lecturer is the Minister. Not a few were then afraid thet the Anthor might be led into rash and questionable theo ies in invertigating a subject confessedly beset with difficulties, but, by the blessing of God, and the exercise of caution and prayer'ul study, all has ended more than satisfactorily. The unprecedentedly large masses of perions of every denomination; and of no denomination at all, who ove flowed the pacious hall in which they were delivered; and the growing attention exited in the muds of signs and tokens, that call for humble gratitude)

Numerous requests were made for their publication. A short-hand writer was therefore cugaged, who took a verbatim report of every Leeture. These reports the Author has now o freeted; and trusts that the work will be found a substantial sammary of his Discourses onand to the good of sou's.
