NEW EDITIONS, Revised & corrected by the Author with Index &c

These Lectures were begun in Exeter Hall, during the pari d occupied in the enlargement of the Church of which the Lecturer is the Minister. Not a few were then afraid the the Author might he led into rash and questionable theories in inves. tigating a subject confessedly beset with difficul ties, but, by the blessing of God, and the exercise of caution and prayerful study, all has ended more than satisfactorily. The unprecedentedly darge masses of persons of every denomination; and of no denomination at all, who overflowed the enacious hall in which they were delivered, and the growing attention exited in the nameds of these audiences, and the saving and very strik ng impressions made on unconverted mirds by the means of the solemn truths they heard, are all signs and tokens that call for humble gratitude
