MARRIAGE, HAPPINESS AND COMPETENCE.

WHY IS IT?

That we behold many females, scarce in the meridian of life broken in health and spirits with a complication of diseases and ailments, depriving them of the power for the enjoyment of life at an age when physical health, buoyancy of spirits and happy serenity of mind, arising from a condition of health, should be predominant. Many of the comess of her sufferings at first-perhaps years before, perhaps during girlhood, or the first years of marriage-were in their origin so light as to pass unnoticed, and of course
