NEW EDITIONS. Revised & corrected by the Author with Index &c

These Lectures were begun in Exeter Hall, during the period occupied in the enlargement of the Church of which the Lecturer is the Minister. Not a few were then afraid that the Author might be led into rash and questionable theories in inves tigating a subject confessedly beset with difficul ties, but, by the blessing of God, and the exercise of caution and prayerful study, all has ended more than satisfactorily. The unprecedentedly large masses of persons of every denomination; and of no denomination at all, who overflowed the spacious hall in which they were delivered, and the growing attention exited in the unids of these andiences, and the saving and very strik no impressions made on unconverted mirds by the means of the solemn truths they heard, are all signs and tokens that call for humble gratitude
