HOUSE OF COMMONS. On the evening of April 7th, in reply to John Russell said, in the House of Con mons, that the Borneo pirates had recommenced their deeds of blood, and that the Admiralry had sent out such instructions as were necessary. From the tenor of the question, it appears that on the 3rd of Feb ruary the Dyaks, in Sakarran, under were formerly chastised, had attacked the forts at the months of the rivers Sakarran others, and by the magnitude of their operations had placed the whole commerce the coast in jeopard?. It will be remembered that these are the tribes against whom, several years ago in 1849 they recommenced their piratical practices, with greater cruelty and on a state of suspense; at length about 9 o'clock paid to the several Revenue Inspectors in proportion to the Income which each may Goden's Lady's Book, for May, (E.
