The Montreal Fire.

In the hurried notice of the Fire yesterday we could only give a hasty and somewhat imperfect notice of it; to-day we are able to give a more general and correct statement. Between one and two o'clock the fire broke out, the whole range of wooden stabling facing on St. Henry and St. Maurice Streets and Longeuil Lane was in a few minutes in one mass of flame, the heat of it combined with that of the overpowering sun, showed that it demanded the whole energy of our firemen to be brought to bear. With one or two exceptions we are enabled to repeat our yesterday's commendation of the zeal of the firemen. The Union and Queen Companies took excellent positions, and to them is due the saving of all the property on Longeuil Lane, Lavender's and the Church. If they had given way when it was impossible for only such as them to stand at the risk of their life, the fire must have destroyed the whole range of McGill Street down to the siver, taking with it the Potash Store, &c. | port, and proved to be the Firebrand, Capt. | The Protector, Neptune and Hero drove it back from entering the St. Joseph and St. Ann's Wards when the danger was great,) and also Grant's Hotel. We shall give the most Political and Commer cial Intelligence from every part of the Britis Possessions in America, and the United States. The leading feature of dur Paper will be, however that a very large portion of each number will be devoted to news from England, Wales, Ireland and Scotland, so that every reader may expect to see obcasionally some intelligence from the neigh borhood which he has left, and where his friends still reside We thus propose to make our paper a voice-aye, and that a cheerful, grateful and hopeful voice-from our adopted home here, to the old house at home, a "silver cord" to bind more closely the thriving Child here to her Great Mother beyond the sea; in a word, we promis news for and from the lordly halls and cottage homes of "Merrie England"-news from th banks and brace of " Bonnie Scotland" - news from the ancestral castles and the lowly cabins of "Ould Ireland,"-and such news there are tens of thousands of "leal" and loving hearts on both sides the Atlantic to welcome and to give.

The matter from the Old Country will be collated from upwards of 100 metropolitan and provincial papers, and the best periodicals of the day; in addition to which, much original matter will appear on various subjects.

A large amount of influential support has been already promised from among the Nobility, Gentry, Bankers and Merchants of the old country, where a circulation of five hundred copies weekly will be guaranteed from the first, by which means a more accurate knowledge of British America will be afforded, the importance of which Wednesday the 13th instant, Mr Thomas cannot easily be over estimated; and also, an as-Fishburn, Innkeeper, a native of Pickering, surance that advertisements connected with our Yorkshire, England, aged forty-two years. wishes and wants will obtain a wide publicity in soon be finished. the Parent Country.

We shall carefully eschew all mere party politics -the party we desire to serve is the whole family of man-the policy we wish to advocate is that of steady, well-considered, Conservative Pro-
