To provide for the Safety of Her Majesty's Subjects and, others on the Highways in Upper Canada, and to regulate the Travelling thereon.

[Assented to 14th of June, 1853.] WHEREAS it has been found that the the regulation of Travelling on the Highways therein, are inadequate to the protection Her Majesty's subjects and others, and to the prevention of the numerous and fatal accidents which have so repeatedly occurred and it is therefore expedient to amend the same : Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United authority of the same, That so much of an burgh :-Act or law now in force in Upper Canada, as may be inconsistent with the enactments hereinafter made, shall be repealed by the passing of this Act. II. And whereas it is expedient to make better provision for the regulation of travelling on the said Highways, Be it therefore enacted. That all persons travelling upon the Highways of Upper Canada, whether in charge of stage coaches, waggons, carriages, sleighs, carioles, or any other vehicle to which exen, horses or any other animal or animals shall be attached, or on horseback, shall, when meeting each other on the said Highways, turn out to the right hand from the centre of the said Road, and give to each other one half of the said Road.

III. And be it enacted, That if from the extreme weight of any load the driver thereof shall find it impracticable so to turn to the right hand as aforesaid, by reason of the centre ruts or waymarks on the said Road, he shall on meeting any coach, waggon, carriage sleigh, cample or other vehicle as aforesaid, immediately stop, and if required so to do, shall assist the person or persons so met quietly turn to the right, giving one half of the Road to the person so overtaking him, or if unable to turn out as aforesaid, the person so overtaken shall stop and allow the other to pass, giving assistance, if required or neceseary to effect such passing.

V. And be it enacted, That every person in charge of any stage coach, waggon, carriage, sleigh, cariole or other vehicle, horse the same with care through drunkenness. shall, upon due proof thereof, be liable to the penalties imposed by this Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That any person riding or driving on the Highways aforesaid, shall, on meeting or overtaking any person persons on foot, carefully pass the same by giving them a portion of the track or other-
