THE ROYAL MAIL STEAMER

F. A. CARRELL, MASTER,

INSTEAD of leaving Kingston in the Afternoon, as heretofore, will during the next fortnight (say until Saturday the 26th Instant) leave Kingston for Picton, Belle wille and Intermediate Ports, every Morning. [Sundays excepted] at 7 o'clock, and

[days excepted] at 3 o'clock, and arrive in 100 boxes Tobacco, 5's, 8's, 10's, and half | Kingston the same evening. By this arrangement persons may leave Kingston in the Morning, and transact their business at Picton, Belleville, or elsewhere. and return the same evening. Or, if travelling for pleasure, may, by taking the Bay of Quinte in the morning, spend the greater part of the day at the celebrated Lake on the Mountain, or any other of the different stopping places on the route, [thereby avoiding the heat and dust of the Town and return home in the cool of the evening. As an inducement for persons to travel during the hot weather, a considerable reduction will be made in the Fares to PLEA. sure Parties-returning the same day.
