Order Office Last, as the public convenience ces where the necessary facilities are four It is desirable that all cases of complain which may follow upon the commencemen of a system so entirely new to the officer intrusted with the business may be commu nicated without delay to the Post Maste Post Master General. ALECTURE

BY JOHN LANKTREE, Botanical Medicine, in the City of Kingston Doors open at half past 7 o'clock, precise Tickets of Admission, 5s., to be had at the Drug and Book Stores. "PROFESSOR" Lanktree, begs to assure the public, that this is not intended as a puff or advertisement of himself, for his transcendent talents are sufficiently well known to every man, woman and child in Kingston, nor is it a trick to raise the wind, for his lecture will be worth 20s at least; thus he will be presenting those who may do themselves the honor of attending with 15s. But his sole object is to impart to the benighted natives a portion of his redundant light, which he cannot longer hold in. J. LANKTREE,

"PROFESSOR" of Hydropathy Kingston, Jan. 19, 1866.
