neter 42 above zero.

Millers are in to make sales.

to 7s 10d on the street. Scarcely a load ar- three weeks.

The Conduct of the War.

bastopol? the second, how that condition whom we rent them, never got them - right honorable friend. He has done ad- known Lord Aberdeen long, and I must say came whistling past the ears of the men at had been brought about? With respect that is the point. The Duke of Newcas- mirably in sending 10,000 beds, but I do that I am friendly to him for his amiable their work. In war, at a given signal, sato the condition of the army there could the refused to allow officers of cavalry not believe they are put up yet at Scutari. and peaceful, but not for his belligerent, lutes are exchanged; on another the same not be two cpinions; all he had to do, regiments to take their four horses, be- Part are at one place and part at another- qualities. [Cheers.] therefore, was to submit to the House that | cause "Colonel Kinloch was gone to buy | like the Minie rifles, which were sent to one | inquiry was necessary to ascertain what mules in Spain." Well, Colonel Kinlech another. Why was there not a supercargo did buy mules in Spain. I believe that, on board the government vessels, who had had been brought about. We had sent for three months after they were bought, commanded of the things on board and who were unacquainted with the organization Could not Lord Hardinge have asked the not a tallow candle in all Balaklava. An- any more orders till all is over.' Such were of large bodies. The men, too, in this Duke of Newcastle whether be had any highly civilized country never learnt to do means of carrying these baggages? We giment might have potatoes on application. ment to provide adequate supplies of stores when on a sudden I found that it had left candles, except to humbug the people of En-He endeavored to show, upon various years afterwards, when he found that the grounds, the inexpediency of the motion, governments of Austria, Bavaria and Prustine and understandingly. The day on which the order was given, until that is enough. But as for bravery, the view with a sharp eye on the Quarantine of St. which was calculated, in his opinion, to sia had obtained the same kind of informa- a few weeks ago, I understand there was Crimea has proved that in them. Mark the batteries. At a distance the Church of tion; or it would be obtained at the expense of the army. He asked the House but that all the other Powers of Europe; that all the other Powers of Europe it was a matter of course, and say it is necessitive and the course of the sary to get accustomed to such scenes.

It is a new, clean edince. It is built on a very simple model—a right angle it as a matter of course, and say it is necessitive and the course of Europe it as a new, clean edince. It is shaded the House but that all the other Powers of Europe it as a new, clean edince. It is shaded the House but that all the other Powers of Europe it was a matter of course, and say it is necessitive and the first and the first and the first and stream of the course, and say it is necessitive and the first and the first and the first and the first and stream of the to avow it at once by a plain and intelligi
This appeared to me a very strong reason to a fellow of the Times by columns varnished white. The spaces to avow it at once by a plain and intelligi- This appeared to me a very strong reason tured Minie rifles for the Emperor of Rus- writes as follows :- "There are still some between the columns are windowed; a dou- Lemieux has been re-elected by acclamable decision. The government stood in a against our proceeding as we did. But it sia. Upon inquiry, I find that Mr. Filder few persons here who think that the Em- ble cross, the lower branches of which are tion. The procession escorting him to his precarious position; It had received a was still more extraordinary that the army is still at the head of the commissirist at peror of Russia sincerely desires peace. oblique, surmount the belfry on the root.— residence extended a mile and a half. heavy blow by the secession of one of its most important members, and he hoped the House, considering well the course it might that Lord Raglan had been directed in the Lord Raglan had been directed in the Duke of Newcastle was asked how to reconcile the allusion as to his real indicate that it is a church, with four small dicate that it is a church, with four small should have been sent into the Crimea with white and gold, principle out any of the interior is dazzling with white and gold, who was the man that Sir Thomas Picton wanted to hang. (Laughter.)

When the wooden had a sent into the Crimea with should have been sent into the Crimea with should have been regiment: had never seen a brigade, and 3 lb. less than before, promising that that for their use. They went together to the 3 lb. should be carried at the public expense. stores, where they were told that there was must lick 'em as best you can : don't expect anything for themselves. We had never | may remember, too, the debates in the House | Down the writer went to Balaklava, but rest of the Generals (with the exception ntered upon any great war, he remarked, of Lords in which Lord Ellenborough dis none could be get for his mon, although tons poor Sir G. Catheart, Sir De Lacy Evans, which did not begin with great reverses; tinetly alluded to this question of wagon but he the present instance there had been in England. The soldiers should have got the reward, from the scene of action or their inefficiency. The soldiers should have got the reward, the French soldiers got them for nothing.—

Interior and a few Brigadiers had been in England. The soldiers should have got the reward, the French soldiers got them for nothing.—

Interior and a few Brigadiers had been in England. The soldiers should have got the reward, the French soldiers got them for nothing.—

Interior and a few Brigadiers had been in England. The soldiers should have got the reward, the French soldiers got them for nothing.—

Interior and a few Brigadiers had been in England. The soldiers should have got the reward. The soldiers should have got the reward. The soldiers should have got the reward. also great military success. After detail- But I now pass on to the most extraordinary Why, then, the writer asked, were these for the army, be contended that it was Varna and gone to the Crimea. What ap- gland? The men, too, he added, were one at af Mahastopel itself, or the Russian force in the neble lord (J Russel) say that the alertain upon whom the fault rests. My by the Russian Ministers in those States Minister. I am sorry he has cost so much. d own defence; the only fault I find with it of the arrival of those reinforcements. The come the laughing stock of Europe. is, that it was too clever. It showed him [diplomatic department ought to have sup- hear.] The office of First Lord of the to be a very eloquent man. Eloquence | plied this kind of information, and the Minis- | Treasury is a very responsible one, and one is a fine art, the sister of poetry and paint- | ters at Berlin and other places ought to be | requiring upon occasion the exercise of much ling, and there is a strong family likeness. | asked what they have been about to neglect | firmness, and if the First Lord finds a mem-The consequence was, that when we got this information. I should like, also, to ber of his cabinet conducting a war which been translated. There was no doubt as Arnaud that it was his upinion that it was | won't do it, then it has to be done in an irre-Lord Derby invited to form a Ministry, to the propriety of sending troops to Var | impossible to expect success saless the for. | gular way, and more damage is done than on, for the assistance, as was said, of "the tress of Sebastepol was invested by an ar- if the man at the head of the government d. Turks and civilization," although how the my of 50,000 men, with another army of 50, does his duty. [Cheers from honorable Varua lies on the road from Russia to ders did not share that opinion. I remem- present ease is unfair, both to the govern Constantinople, and it was very natural to | ber hearing that a strong opinion was ex- | ment and to the colleagues of the individual intinual rain since twelve plant an army there; but, to my infinite pressed by an officer high in our service, to whom I have referred. [Hear, hear]arrived there, that one of the essentials of force which invested Sebastopol was not press upon the House. If we are to get out the past three or four days, and several discoved—three weeks ago—that a wagon to the judgment of an eminent engineer acts of Parliament if he wants them—let train was necessary, and accordingly tele- officer, whose opinion ought to have been ta- him be in fact, for the time, a species Flour is held at 40s., but a little less would graphed to Colonel Macmurdock to come ken. But while it would not be difficult to military dictator. That England is not a be taken for each. Wheat nominally, 7s 6d over, who, I believe, remained here for prove that several persons of high authority military Power is pretty clear from the exthought the force sent to the Crimea was hibition we have been making at Sebastoinsufficient, the course I shall pursue is to pol. But why do we cut our military force Mr. S. Herbert said a wagon train did give the government everything they ask in in two, and why do we not put our Indian exist, but it was under the commissariat, order to carry on the war, strongly objecting force into Queen's service? But so great ted himself at the point where the trenches by Mr. Ham, seconded by Mr. Ham, seconded by Mr. Ham, seconded by Mr. Benson, and rule of thumb-Everbody in general, and until the alteration to which the honor- to your whole proceedings from beginning has been the repugnance to this step. that end, with a flag of truce. The works and | Resolved,-That in accordance with the | the nobodies in particular Price young able gentleman referred had been made, to end. The landing of the troops in the | Mellington asked for firing immediately ceased at that point. The | Act providing for dissolving Counties, this | bachelors and maids to match; their filial Hr. H. Drummond-The army re- Crimea was, I admit, a well effected and Sir Thomas Munro to be his second in com- Russian approached, and the officer on duty meeting considers it expedient and necessary attention to the Old Folks at Home, &c., In the House of Commons on the 26th mained for a considerable time in that indeed, considerable time in that time of a letter for the Commander in Chief.—

Mr. Roebuck rose to move for a select why Sonding an army without a way.

Mr. Roebuck rose to move for a select why Sonding an army without a way. Mr. Roebuck rose to move for a select why. Sending an army without a wag people who think that the landing of such lication is in the hands of a friend of the ommitte to inquire into the condition of on train, is like sending a ship to sea an army upon the Duke of Wellington. [Hear, hear. | French, inquired how we got on in the cold Addington. our army before Sebast pol, and into the without masts or steam. But I am not a thing as going down to a whitebait dinner But no one is decrying the present war or weather. 'We don't mind it,' was the reconduct of those departments of the government the aid they re- ply. 'Well,' said the Russian, 'for our part | Roblin, that this meeting do adjourn to the government the aid they re- ply. 'Well,' said the Russian, 'for our part | Roblin, that this meeting do adjourn to the government the aid they re- ply. 'Well,' said the Russian, 'for our part | Roblin, that this meeting do adjourn to the government the aid they re- ply. whose duty it has been to minis | __ I shall take the vulgerest-looking view | culties of such an undertaking. (Cheers.) | quire; and it will be the fault of the gov. | we are tired of it.' ter to the wants of that army. The mel- of the whole subject-for I think that if I then come to the above Resolution, -Roblin, humor and satire, and in graphic sketches of anciply condition of our army, he observed, had been sense enough in the government to manage a private commercial who had confisced that he manage a private commercial who had confisced that he manage a private commercial who had confisced that he manage a private commercial who had confisced that he manage a private commercial siege artillery ready! (Hear.) Only this is the last man to be found fault with. But trenches, showed themselves to our soldiers

Only this is the last man to be found fault with. But trenches, showed themselves to our soldiers

Only this is the last man to be found fault with. But trenches, showed themselves to our soldiers Russell, who had confessed that he was concern, they would have got over this morning I received a letter from an officer if I am asked who is the true culprit, I and politely saluted them, which politeness in its report, for it is very difficult to disunable, as a Minister of the Crown, to re- | wonderful seven miles. There is no doubt | in the army, who says :-- "There was not should accuse, first, the total ignorance of was returned by our men. As soon as the this motion; yet, in the same breath, that my right honorable friend has fully one single 13-inch mortar for the army undertook in going to the Russian had left, and the flag of truce was he had declared that he should not support | discharged his duty, that he has sent out | months of the resolution to separate the motion by speech or vote. The question divided itself into parts—first, what was the condition of the army before Sebastemed I the second how that condition. I was no provision made for hospital accompandation. Aberdeen to rule a commissariat composed that but a few minutes previously at Balaklava nor at Seutari. And here, but the persons for whom we bought, and but the persons for whom we bought the persons for whom we be the persons for whom w

54,000 soldiers properly equipped, who they remained in Spain, and I do not knew what ought to be left at each place at the 33rd, writing from Sebastopol under Near the town there are not so many can. had done all they could to uphold the know whether they have ever been which the vessel stopped? There were date of Dec. 29, gives his ideas of the of honor of the country. At present there sent out at all. The inquiry we provisions without end at Balaklava, but the cers and battles as follows:-" I hear, there were not more than 14,000 bayonets be wish to make is as to how these army should not get them because no one is a very cutting article against the staff in fore Sebastopol. What had become of things came about. How was it again, the 40,0 of He believed the condition of the army had been brought about by give the Dake of Newcords about that the Commander in the Dake of Newcords about that the commissariat has been, as they say, in the believed the Condition that the commissariat has been, as they say, in the surdity of mentioning staff officers as a matof the army had been brought about by give the Duke of Newcastle a hint that he the head of the Treasury, and was it posthe incapacity, at home and abroad, of had forgotten the wagon trains? Does the sible that the whole feeding of the army was nothing (or less) towards the fate of an acthose whose duty it was to minister to its | Duke of Newcastle ever go to a friend's to | instrusted to Lord Aberdeen and the clerk of count in general, and of this one in particudinner by railway? If so, does he not as- the Treasury? No wonder if so, that the lar. No one would grumble if at the end of Mr. S. Herbert, in resisting the motion, before he arrives at the station troops could not get anything to cat. I have but mentioning them as distinguishing carry him the odd two miles to his house? Guards. The honorable member proceeded themselves, when they did not, and not alization of the army was to be found is If not, that two miles may not lose him his to read the letter, which stated that the speaking of inferiors who did, is unjust. the system we had pursued for the last dinner in the same way that the odd seven writer met the colonel of his regiment with One officer who was mentioned for Inkerforty years. The English army was a col- miles in the Crimea have lost the army their a pair of saddlebags upon the horse, with mann never left his tent all day—one menlection of regiments, in every one of which | dinner. But this is still more remarkable. | which he was going to Balaklava to draw | tioned for Alma, and promoted accordingly, there existed a perfect regimental system; Only last spring Lord Hardinge issued an tallow candles for hismen, which, it was was not present at all. If any one was to but the field officers in command of the order directing each man to carry in his kit stated in a general order, would be issued ask me what a battle is like, I should say, me wish to conceal any portion of their conduct in this matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in this matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in this matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in the conduct in the matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in the conduct in the matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in the conduct in the matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in the matter, and every inforthed should be ball upon the conduct in the matter, and every inforthed the matter, and every inforthed the matter, and every inforthed the matter, and the men were in rags. The writer of the faubourg; its thick walls, which are are regularly educated; they must serve so scarcely marked by the cannon-balls, fills skinned, and a "gentleman" might possibly been heaving Mr. Ambrose. mation required should be laid upon the the territory of Russia was one & the same caused by the country's neglect. I say it long in the school before getting a commis- up a gap in the trenches, which then con- have been hoaxing Mr. Ambrose. able of the House. He insisted that thing. At the end of the last war, the gov- has been caused solely by Ministerial incom- sion, and they know their duty at once, tinue, and stop at the old Genoese fort great delusions upon this subject prevails ernment desired the Duke of Wellington petence. (Cheers.) So, again, the militia English officers, you know, buy their com- Only one large tower of this fort remains ed in the country. He detailed the step- to draw up a statement upon the military clothing has been delayed, until the tailors missions, and learn their duties after they which served as target for the batteries of Fair will be held at Napanee on the first taken to remedy defective arrangements power of Russia, its power of aggression have jost £10,000, because Lord Hardinge enter the army. The French officer has Sebastopol. by the government, which had acted, he debroid as and we never heard or thought could not settle the cut of those ridiculous what the French call esprit; he is brave, "The Church of St. Vladimir is situate duke did so, and we never heard or thought German postboy costs. (A laugh.) An or- and he discusses military subjects well on high ground, about 300 metres distant said, upon every practicable suggestion. more of it until he came into office many der was sent to Gibraltar for the men there and understandingly. The English officer from the tower. To reach it, it is necessary became a cases abelian having a relation of the Court House block for the building of a Customs House and Post Office, and recommended to him a person who is great there, but derived no here there are the building of a Customs House and Post Office, and recommended to him a person who shift is asserted as a fact that, so convintable, several taking in exchange, some money, and three taking in exchange the taking in exchange the taking in exchange the taking in the total taking in the total taking in exchange the taking in the total taking in exchange the taking in the total taking i send this person to the Crimea, to obtain in- try, and people thought that Russia was a officers, and not of low rank either, are alnetead of which, the army was little, foolish, second-rate Power, that you ready preparing their equipments. of the country, the force in the town | you liked. (Hear.) I was sorry to hear I I should have thought the Right Hon, and ill-considered proceeding, and that a great Power. I wish you to the noble lyes would be the very the thing wanted was the information | lord | may remain great as long as the em - following letter :--Riest to thank us for coming forward and which the government had refused to take pire of Russia. [A laugh.] This kind of measures to obtain. It is all very fine now blustering has been frosted by your speech- the lines we are ready for the attack. The and barter made by the Government to the for his health in the East. system the morbid humors which reall functions, and bring paleness to the ring to the brow. They banish those

The appointment of the English, and the reform Club. The appointment of the English, doubt I have is, whether there has not been of the appointment of the English, doubt I have is, whether there has not been of the out of the special meeting.

To accept or reject this offer of the expansive enterprise of his countrymen, to and the Quarantine Fort, in front of us, are apon happiness, and restore the system to high and proper and right for all the gentlemen ment in the direction of the newspapers upon the House, because, when I put a ques- the three points the occupation of which is have reason to believe, that the effer of the ually in his path wherever he goes. I have ing there to put themselves forward in | (hear, hear,) and whether, if it had not been tion to the Government is a liberal one, but one not a not yet visted any considerable city of Turorder to screen their subordinates; but it for the newspapers, that expedition to Se- give us a Minister at War, was in the sense prepared for a vigorous defence. Mud bat- whit more than the Court House block is key where I did not find the Medicines order to screen their subordinates; but it for the newspapers, that expedition to Seis not satisfactory to us. Does any one bastopol would ever have been sent. (Hear in which the appointment had been recomteries and intrenchments, stare us in the worth, which cannot be estimated at less Pectoral. In Smyrna, Aleppo, Jaffa, Jep. mean to say that it is the fault of the hear.) You did not know, as I have said mended by Lord Grey, Lord Ellenborough, face. Traps of every description are pre-Right Hon, gentlemen that the army is the nature of the soil, the extent of the for- and the right honorable member for Cov- pared for us. But nature has done more Right Hon. gentlemen that the army is tifications, the number of men in the place, entry, [Mr. E. Ellice ] I am sorry to see than man to delay the ruin of this wonder-starving! No; but it is the fault of the or the disposition of the inhabitants; and so the number of men in the place, entry, [Mr. E. Ellice ] I am sorry to see than man to delay the ruin of this wonder-starving! No; but it is the fault of the or the disposition of the inhabitants; and so the number of men in the place, entry, [Mr. E. Ellice ] I am sorry to see than man to delay the ruin of this wonderbut it is the fault of the or the disposition of the inhabitants; and so the noble Lord on the fourth bench behind fully situated city.

Does any one say that it is ill-informed have you been, and so ill-informed have you been in a thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay." the fault of the noble lord ! Because he has been the fault of the noble lord ! Because he has not yet been able satisfactorly to as—

Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery there are the local as the local as thousand of the passers by can read. "Ay. Inus, benind the riagstall Dattery the local as the local R. McL., Camden; R. M., Napanee; T. right honorable friend has completely eva- - have from time to published statements I think he might have been got at a cheapded th. question. I thought his speech by the Emperor of Russia into the Crimea. and our whole military operations must be lard Ragian had no knowledge whatever the speech in plain black and white be- know the truth about the opinions of officers he knows no more how to manage than a The Asia has arrived.

The Asia has arrived.

Flour down 6d. Wheat lower. Corn force us, many things appeared very differforce necessary for this expedition. It has him to give him a month's wages and get the cannon is the only voice that is heard.

The Asia has arrived.

By the proceedings of a recent meeting in the cannon is the only voice that is heard.

All the bead of the ministry in the cannon is the only voice that is heard. two got together I know not. (A laugh.) should like to know whether other comman. The course which has been pursued in the o'clock yesterday noon. The snow is fast | astonishment, I found, after the army had | who was engaged in this expedition, that the | There is one other point which I wish to im-

The War in the East.

WHAT A BATTLE IS LIKE. - A captain in

A French Account of the Siege.

note the presence of an army; the voice of By the proceedings of a recent meeting in the Hospitals of the Empire." Yet prisoners assure us that there are battalions bivouacking in every square.

Sebastopol is seen in the distance; its enormous magazines, storehouses, and barracks General Lourmel, when he fell, consists of two parts, the one turned towards the land. Act in such case made and provided. the other towards the sea, and joined togethfor the attack are going on there.

The ground in the vicinity of the camp is strewn with cannon-balls and fragments of shells. In some places the balls lie as Near the town there are not so many can-| non-balls, but more fragments of shells and grenades. The clay soil is often marked with dark streaks of blood or gunpowder;

yet we have very few wounded. "In pushing forward the first parallel towards the Quarantine faubourg catacombs by walls of rock; they might be taken for the cells of a monastery. Many of them had tombs in them; one was of skulls and bones, but they were the skulls and bones of sheep. The atmosphere was oppressive These cells might be turned into powder magazines, as they are bombproof.

"The Quarantine faubourg, which has been recently abandoned by the Russians, has been ransacked by our soldiers. houses of this faubourg are neat, white- it, that the critique of the "Whig" on the washed inside and out. They all have a concert of the 8th, was shown to a gentledisagreeable smell about them, resembling man, and read over to him with the obserthe smell inside Turkish domiciles. It vation that he would see how nearly the WANTED at the House of Industry of does not suffice to let in fresh air; the very critic had hit it, before the concert commenfurniture is impregnated with it. All these ced; I am therefore quite unable to under- dent-also, a Matron. A man and his wife houses have been cleared out. We only stand how it could have been written after capable of executing the above duties would found a few wooden bedsteads, chairs, and it, and upon this authority I say that it was, be preferred. closets; the remainder had been carried as I first stated, written beforehand. off to furnish, the tents or to be used to keep up the bivouae fires. Kitchen gardens surround the nouses, and there are vegetables me, plainly and intelligibly, that I do iminformation he wanted. Why did you not pute it to the gross incompetence of some make our ambassador at Constantinople prothat some of them had arrived, and that they men for three weeks to draw them to the eamp. By the last accounts it was stated the most sanguinary struggle. Reinforcemake our ambassador at Constantinople prothat some of them had arrived, and that they wents are said to be already on their way side, at about six kilometres' distance.

Property. Though great hopes of success Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug were held out at the time by the then Minis- Stores in the United States and Canada. try, still nothing was done, until Mr. Roblin For Sale by E. W. Paters, Kingston, became a member of Parliament, when aided | C: W. The Moniteur de l'Armee publishes the doubtless by the good offices of the Attorney and Solicitor General West, justice was than £7,500-or perchance more. The Old Commercial Bank Building is on the door post of some bazaar, the pecul. the Quarantine Battery, and from part of the | condition of their bargain, that the Govern- | Consumption, Sold Here." On a shelf ba the Quarantine Battery, and from part of the condition of their bargain, that the Countries bind the cross-legged Mussulman are seen harbor, to enable them to establish a footing ment should allow the gratuitous occupation the bottles with their English, Spanish, on the plateau of the city. This plateau is of this Building for the use of the County French and German faces turned to the covered with defences, batteries, and obsta- Officers, until the new Court House is built; erowd, and on enquiring we are told that cles. The streets are barricaded. The town itself is deserted, silent melancholy, for we are told, that the Court House block foreigners are not the only purchasers, but the houses appear to have been all aban- is immediately needed for the purposes al- the true believers themselves waive their doned, and the windows are all open. At luded to. In this case, the Courts could be skill, when they find there is no other cure rare intervals a sentry may be seen on duty, held in the City Hall, and the Prisoners be for them." ing stirring to indicate that there are living | provided for in the Military Prison in the of Lennox and Addington intend shortly to "Passing by the second parallel to go to separate from Frontenac. Probably, the New Work, almost ready for the Press. the left, the Flagstaff Bastion is visible on cost of the intended new Court House and the right. This side of the works is de- Jail has scared the Lennox and Addington fended by various sorts of intrenehments. - Reeves. The following is from the Napa- Beine Sketches From Live. By a Cosmopolity.

Lennox and Addington: At a meeting of the Reeves and Deputy tion from the ruined tower which kept up so | Reeves of the junior Counties of Lennox and The Ningara boat left this morning as an army—namely, a wagon train—had sufficient. In the last edition of a work by of this measures. The sum of the captions is an army—namely, a wagon train—had sufficient. In the last edition of a work by of this meas it will require no ordinary enterpolately demolished by our batteries. Then we come to the Quarties of Lennox and Addington, held pursuant to notice at Harris's Hotel, Napanee, on the 10th February, and lay opinion that, to invade the Crimes, and lay opinion that the captions. Mills along the Northern Railroad for sent the army there in September have command, was a desperate and daring op- turn. Let them give the Minister of War and vice versayard is situated. This fort, the gates of nox and Addington, and of forming a provis- Feathering your Nest, an ode to a plucked which were almost touched by the brave ional Municipal Council for the aforesaid goose-Squirearchy & Respectability-The junior Counties, under the authority of the | Snobs of Snobville-The man who would be er by a crenallated wall. The operations Ham, Chamberlain, Wilson and Benson. retired publican-Beaux and beas, bugs Mr. Chamberlain was called to the chair; and buggies, with a cut upon cutters-The -"The other day a Russian officer presen- Mr. Benson appointed Secretary. Moved Mealy Mouthed Miller, or honesty by the 15th instant in Kingston. Motion lost.

cover what resolution was carried and which ----Contested Elections.

Tuesday occupied in hearing testimony as to course of a few weeks, he will be capable men try to kill each other; this is military | the facts and merits of the contested Muni- of entertaining comfortably upwards of one cipal Elections in Sheffield and Camden. | hundred and fifty visitors.

He gives his decision next Thursday. Several Quo Warrantos have been served including his worship the Mayor, and very tight and hard struggling work is anticipated. | the route between Hamilton and Kingston, Some of these Quo Warrantos are upon on the opening of Navigation, making two or the most trivial grounds, to wit, that on the three trips per week. Reports to the con-Mayor, because he holds stock in the Gas trary are in circulation, which we have been Thin Skinned Amateurs.

To the Editor of the Daily News. DEAR SIR:-I consider it perfectly un- | Shaw, aged 45 years. necessary to make any reply to the article in Monday's "Whig," headed Musical Ama- quested to attend the Funeral This Day, teurs, but I should wish for the benefit of the public to state upon authority, which I am (Thursday) at 3 o'clock, P. M., from his ready to give to any person who may require | late residence in Johnston Street.

> Yours, &c., R. S. AMBROSE.

Kingston, Feb. 13th, 1855. " Obstinate men persist in error, as the upjust, without information, to lay blame peared so extraordinary to me was, the war paring English and French officers. In the being undertaken for the defence of Turkey. Soutari for months, and it had been promispassage from Marseilles, I talked a great "The Lazaretto is a fine building, sur-"I have a pretty good opportunity of com Quarantine batteries on the other side of best way to get out of a difficulty. Why not

Tuesday in March next, and the following

Montreal, Feb. 13th. Hon. Francis Hincks and Hon. John St. Ross left Montreal for Quebec this morning paralyze the action of the government at tion, and the three reports were lying in not a Minie rife, I believe that Mr. West- I difference, however. The French speak Vladimir, painted green, like many Russian Carrier and Mossey Holmes Calt and Grant home and of the authorities abroad. The committee would either gain no information and incurred a great deal of trouble, to per- slaughter of Alma, while the English take in reality it is a new, clean edifice. It is executed at Portland the lease of the Atlan-rounded the country, would decide the country, would decide the written to Lord Raglan to procure information. They may be gettion at once and in plain language.

RE-ELECTION OF MR. LEMIEUX.-Mr. Terms-Cash.

Mr. H. Drummond.—The Right Hon.

Mr. H. Drummond.—The Right Hon.

Gentleman shall understand, at least from the barbarians into the sea." (A laugh.)

Writing to Lord Raglan did not give him the understand, and intelligibly, that I do important to procure in order the occurrence of the country of the written to Lord Raglan to procure information. They may be seen under the decidence of the country of the written to Lord Raglan to procure information. They may be seen the men can almost every day of the vast armaments prepared on every point of his empire.

There can, indeed, be little doubt that the country of the written to Lord Raglan did not give him the up." They are already overworked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the worked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the worked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the worked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the worked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the worked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the worked by other duty, and it has been calculated that it would take the labor of 2,500 of the wind the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containing a picture of the country of the wind a frame containi Extract from a letter by the Rev. Mr. "Before Sebastopol, Dec. 31.—All along done in the promises, and a fair offer of sale | Churchill, of Boston, who is now travelling

> "It gives one an ever present idea of the usalem and Constantinople, we see in each trust in fate to try this product of American

I was told here yesterday that the Cherry Pectoral had been presented to the Sultan. and is now in constant use in his harem, and SPECIAL NOTICE.

THE WORTHIES OF ERINGSON AND CAMPDOWN:

To all who follow honor's laws, From cradle to the grave, Give honor due and just applause-But never spare a knave.

a gentleman but couldn't come it-Tricks Members present : Messrs. Roblin, Perry, upon Travellers, being the confessions of a

. The MS. of the above intended pubamusing and interesting work, replete with Russell's Hotel.-The proprietor of Russell's Hotel at Toronto, is expending a considerable sum in re-furnishing the entire Building, and affording increased accomodation, in view of the removal of the Seat of Government to this city in the fall. Carpenters, painters, and upholsterers are daily The Judge of the County Court was all employed in making alterations and improvements, and Mr. R. expects that, in the > SPECIAL NOTICE. THE STEAMER EUROPA.

The Steamer Europa is to be placed on authorized to contradict. Full particulars will be given shortly in an advertisement.

DIED. In Kingston, on the 13th inst, Mr. Robert

". Friends and acquaintances are re-

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.

www the City of Kingston, a Superinten-Application to be made to the under-

JOHN SHAW, Kingston, Feb. 14th, 1855. ST. JOHN'S LODGE No. Tor

February 15th, at 7 o'clock By order of the W. M. E. H. PARKER, Kingston, Feb. 9th, 1855. THIS DAY.

AUCTION SALE, On Account of the Consignees,

FITHE Subscribers are instructed to sell without reserve, on Thursday next, Feb. 15th, on the St. Lawrence Wharf, at 11 o'clock, A. M., 200 brla. No. 1 Round Herrings, sent from Montreal in mistake.

BAKER & McMILLAN,