GREAT CHEAP

GOING ON

Felix Shaw's!

Clouds, Dress Goods, Black Cashmeres Ulsterings,

Black Silks, Satin Merves,

Men's Underwear,

Ladies' Vests,

Fascinators,

HOSIERY AND GLOVES, Colored Cashmeres,

FLANNELS,

BLANKETS

VELVETEENS, PLUSHES, CARPETS.

We are offering Great Bar gains in above goods.

A CALL SOLICITED

Felix Shaws

Glasaow Warehouse

CARPET ROOMS. BUSINESS IS BUSINESS

And there's lots of it at

Henderson&Co's

NEW BOOKSTORE.

What more acceptable Present could you give to a friend at this GAY AND FESTIVE SEASON than a set of any of the

Tollowing Popular Authors:

8 Tels. $12 60 7 vols. $10 00 .12 vols. $15 00 Parkman's History Hume's England Macaulay's England Macaulay's Essays Knight's Shakespoar Goethe's Works. C. M. Yonge's Works Hudson's Shakespear

Carlyle's Works. We have a beautiful stock of HYMN BOOKS AND PRAYER BOOKS For all denominations,

WE HAVE THE LATEST NOVELTIES!

Bra s Urus, Brass Candlesticks, Brass Whink Holders

Plush Ladies Companions, Plush Brates, Comb and Mirror Sets, Plush Shaving Sets. Plush Jeweler Boxes. Plush Perfume Cases. Plush Writing Portfolios. Plush Scissor Sets

Plush Whisk Holde Plush Stationery Cabinets, Plush Glove and Handkerchief Boxes Plush Photograph Albums"

FANCY GOODS

at are at present displayed in our spaci and well-lighted store. We invite you all to come and see them. | Do not purchase unless we can "please you."

Fraphic, 30 cents. London News, 50 cents. Yule Tide, 50 cents. Frank Lealie, 30 BOW BELLS, 60 URNTS.

Booksellers,

Princess Street, Kingston Birnord's ginger wine, raspberry, atraw-berry syrup, raspberry vinegar, Labatt's London ale. Jan. Orawford.

The cart Regular Monthly Mastings of the City office will be held in Masonic Irail, King street as Minden, No. 252, on Monnay, Jan. 3, ab 7:50 p.m. Ancie. 3 St. John's, No. 5, on Thumbar, Jan. 5, at

The Regular Meetings of the Anolest and Accepted Smithish Rits of Freemasonry are beld in their bull, of mer of Brook and Weilington street, as follows: Kragston Lodge of Perfe ion third Thursday, and Re se of Sharon, Sov. Chap Rose Crotz first Weines-

ROYAL ARGANUM-DHE Begular Meetings of the St. Lawrence Council Mondays in every month, at 8 p.m., in the Cateraq O. F. Hall Princess street. Dec, 1

REMINDERS.

At sea level, Temper-Wind,

The probabilities for the next twenty-four hours are: Southwest and west winds, partly cloudy or cloudy weather, with high and local snow falls; slowly rising temperature.

· For those who Indulge. Old Ifish whiskey, Scotch whiskey, Canadian whiskey, 5 year old rye, fine ginger wine, old port and sherry wine. Jas. Crawford.

The Bath stage driver had his hands temperature in Bath was 30" below zero.

The Best in Ontario.

Simcoe, in renewing his 'subscription' to the CHRONICLE AND NEWS writes: "I consider the CHRONICLE in its present shape to be the best paper published in Ontario. and wish you a happy and prosperous

Mrs. Dandy, mother of Captain Dandy while going to her home, at the G. T. R. outer station, on Friday last, slipped and fell, breaking one of her legs in two places. The fractures are just above the ankle. Dr. T. M. Fenwick says it will be some time before Mrs. Dandy will be around again.

The Roller Bink.

The Customs Returns.

Import duties received during Decem ber, $12,530 70; value of goods imported $57,575; value of goods exported $32, 399. Duties received for the quarter end ing 31st December, $36,264 31, an increase over the corresponding period in 1885 of $2,495.73. The duties received during December exceeded those of the same month in 1885 by $3,172 87.

St. James Church.

On New Year's eve divine service was held at St James' church. The service was read by the Rev. Mr. McMorine after solemn address on the duties and responon benalf of the Shingwank home.

fore, entertained their friends at dinner in the barracks on New Year's eve, when a large number partook of their hospitality and spent a very pleasant evening. The old year expired while the guests were at the table, and when a cannon at the fort boomed forth announcing that it was 1887-15 vols. 822 50 those present arose, sang "Auld lang exchanged greetings and then de-

5 vols. 87 50 others, while Mr. Martin made a stirring 20 vols. $25.00 | and cloquent speech, wishing those pre-6 vols. 89 00 sent a happy new year. Mr. Martin's .10 vols. 815 00 oratorical power surprised those who

> One of Whiting's most prominent supporters in the recent election attended the Baptist church on Thursday evening ast and drew a large rooster from the anxious to know the perpetrator of the joke in order that he may return the

> > A Ruman at Large.

On Saturday evening about eight o'clock a gentleman entered a house on Barrio street for a few seconds leaving his wife at the door. When he returned he found her in a fainting condition, a drunken soldier having come along and seized hold of her. The fellow learned by the husband, who said he would see that the ruffian was punished.

of Tamworth, by that fell disease diphwas taken ill while spending his Christmas holidays with his grandmother. The sad event has cast a gloom over the entire both old and young. Friends extend actually giving away a bottle of Mamis

Watch Night Service.

Watch night service was held in the anthems suitable for the occasion. dresses were made by the Rav. J.

The World has no Setter Than our old port wine, fine sherry wine, GOSSIP OF THE STREET.

WHAT OUR REPORTERS FIND TO KEEP

the Central New York League - Drowned at Muttawa, etc.

The R.M.C. opens to-morrow.

The court of revision meets on Wednes-Lady voters drove to the polls to day

The stage is running between Cape Vincent and the city.

James Moore, a drunk, was dismissed at the court this morning. The band of "A" battery played out the ld year on Friday night. Discount off all dress goods over 20 cts per yard, at Hardy's.

On New Years' day Mr. T. Doolan entertained a large number of friends. Wm. McIntyre, of Bromley, aged 19 years, was killed last week by a falling

Prof. Lalonde, the ventriloquist, gave an exhibition in the barracks on Friday

The public schools of Watertown, N Y. coat the city the sum of $26,000 for the Commencing to morrow the K. & P. express will leave at 9 p.m. instead of 8 p. m., as heretofore. Liberal discount off closkings,

There was very little "calling" indulged in on New Year's day. The custom seems to be losing ground.

At the residence of Mr. M. Doran, King street, the thermometer registered 28 below zero this morning. Kirkpatrick's is the only place in the table baby sleigh for $2. The curling match between the president and secretary of the club did not take place on Saturday as expected. The 14th P. W. O. R. band as is their citizens on New Year's morning. Watertown baseballists are determined to have a winning club next season.

league. The thermometer at the residence of Joseph Baker, Cataraqui, registered 31 been elected by acclamation was the

"A" battery gave an assembly to their friends on Friday evening. An enjoyable time was spent. Daniel Quinlivan was picked up dead drunk on the street this morning by a constable. He was very nearly frozen to death when discovered. They have just received a fine assort- being still your triends. ment of Xmas novelties at the City drug store. Don't neglect to call aud examine their stock before purchasing. H. H. Curtis & Co. Ten per cent, discount off wool goods at Hardy's.

wear at reduced prices, at R. McFaul's. The man Pringle, at Davis' corners, who was stabbed by his wife with a pair of scissors, is slowly improving and the indications are now favorable for his final

Discount off tweeds and underwear at Hardy's. statement that dominion elections will take place about the last week in Janu-ant Sunday in the methodist church, and an appropriate service was held in the The business college evening classes will re-open Thursday 6th inst., at 7 p.m.

Subjects taught, book-keeping, writing, arithmetic, shorthand and telegraphy. Malaga grapes 15c. 16., oranges 25c. per dozen, lemons 25c. per dozen, table apples, wall nuts, almonds, table raisins, dates, figs, etc , at James Crawford's. tended. Prof. Byrnes' orchestra furnished the music, and Mr. Thos. Elmer was the director of ceremonies. mill prices, at R McFaul's.

Gold spectacles, opera glasses, ode cases in plush, leather and wood. Presents cases, dressing cases, cigar cases, etc Oil water color paints in boxes at prices never before heard of in Kingston, at having served three years in "state's Wilson's Pharmacy. All wool blankets and comforters at wholesale prices, at R. McFaul's. A young Englishman named Wm Heeney, lately out from the old country, got the worse of liquor at Mattawa last drowned before a rescuing party could The best quality of pea coal, $4,50 per ton; grate and egg, $5.75 per ton; number of smith's coal always on hand at Swift's; See the fast color unshrinkable dress goods, 15%, at Hardy's. church at Napance has guaranteed a 1874. He served as such till 1877, and to you, and wishing you many happy reliberal salary for a curate to Archdeacon during that time he attended courses at turns of the season, we are, dear sir, Jones, and now a committee is in communication with a gentleman in the east

The women's Christian temperance union will hold a devotional meeting in went on down the street and entered a connection with the week of prayer on second hand shop, where his name was Tuesday (to-morrow) afternoon at three o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, Clarence street. All ladies are cordially invited to attend. A. McRossie, corresponding secretary

The death of Angus Heath, of Cornwall, which occurred on Surday week, following as it did the death of his wife, who died only the Tuesday before, after an illness of three days, is sad in the extreme, 'as it leaves three orphan children,

The City drug store is the right place village as he was a general favorite with to buy your X mas cards. They are sympathies to his parents in their sad celebrated friple extract perfume with every 50c. worth of cards. Call and be convinced. H. H. Curtis & Co. Ladies fine kid mitts 50 cents, at

All Night in the Ice. Last Monday afternoon, Frank Sey- than ordinary ability in the more tragic were completely encased with ice.

The very best value to be had in Canada in wool dress goods, is at R. McFaul's. McFaul's.

RECEIVING A GIFT Thomas Harrold Estertained by Numerous Friends-The Speeches. Last Thursday night a number of Mr Thomas Harrold's friends; with Mr. Bateson as chairman, met at the Brunswick house and presented him with an address and handsome signet ring. After justice had been done to the good hings provided the following tosats were given: "The queen and royal family," "The army, navy and volunteers," responde to by S. Angrove, who referred to the fenian raid and other times when the volunteers were called out to do duty. They were always ready and willing to respond to the call and defend their country. He wound up by referring to the noble character of Mr. T. Harrold, who is about to leave us. "Dominion and local houses of parliament," responded to by

W. McCammon, who referred to the old fire brigade and the members connected with it. Mr. Harreld was a member who was always ready and willing to further the brigade's interests. H Hunter then lang a song entitled "Laddie Dah." "The mayor and corporation! was toasted, and "The guesta" was responded to by Messrs, Alex Harrold, W. J. Arniel and J. Kelly. "The chairman" was responded to by M. Bateson, referring to Mr. Harrold's ability 'as a mechanic and wishing him every success in the new home he is going to make for himself in the far west. Mr. and then pointed out that no human Spencer sang, "You've been a friend to sympathy could reach the depth of the me," and Mr. Newton "When I think of sorrow. The brethren who were present the days of my youth" and "Maggie May." | manifested a fender sympathy, but it re-Mr. H Hunter sang "Red light," and quired a different sympathy to reach the then the teast of "The ex-fire brigade" heart, and if the cloud of gloom did not was responded to by ex Chief Bateson in lift during life, it would when the morn; an able manner. Mr. Thos. Harold, in ing broke bye and bye. It was a hard replying to the "Gueat of the evening" thing to die and to part with dear expressed his surprise at the proceedings friends, and it was in death that as he was not aware of what was going men realized what frail creatures to take place. The evening had been a they were. In death God changed of the Graveyard nine arose to watch the binding we present you with this signet evil ways before the shadow of death ring, as a slight token of our eateem and would break into morning. respect for you. In leaving for another land we wish you and your family every happiness and prosperity in life, and hope that as often as you look upon this ring your thoughts will wander back again to the old companions you knew in the limestone city of the east and think of us as

CAUGHT IN TIME.

Fully Equipped to Burgiarize and Plunder- A Good Capture.

On Friday James Walsh appeared in the police court on a charge of robbing one Stewart of a watch. The case was adjourned until Tuesday, and Walsh who has only been out of the penitentiary two months was taken to jail. When the watch was stolen there was another party in the company of Walsh, and Detective Craig was detailed to find out who this man was. He captured James Norris on Grit papers are the authority for the the street, not without a struggle. On the way to the station the prisoner, who is very victous, made several attempts to draw a knife. When searched on his person was found a full burglar's kit. Several bags covered with coal oil were found in his overcoat pocket, and a long knife, sharpened to such an edge that a key in the locks on the inside, from the to morrow. Mr. Couper represents J. D. outside. Further, he had seven breast | Mackenzie & Co. on the road. pins, apparently made out of five dollar quarters, which had been washed with gold. The work was cleverly done and the pieces had to be closely examined be fore the deception was discovered. A Cottons, shirtings and sheetings at string of rings of all sizes and kinds completed his outfit. He wore a penitentiary suit and it was found that he had only been liberated from that fratitution on Thursday morning last, having served three years for burglary. He pleaded no guilty to the charge of larceny at the court this morning, and was remanded to jail until Saturday. He acknowledged, > prison." In the station house he was very saucy and bewailed his hard luck in having been arrested again. Captain Brury. Woolwich arsenal. He also passed short yours, Winney Gallagher, Thos. Bryant of Canadian artillery in 1877. He was partment. appointed captain in 1881. He was appointed A D C. to his excellency the marquis of Lorne, governor-general of Canada, for the session of 1882 '83; served in the North West campaign, 1885, when he commanded the field division of A battery in the action of Fish Creek and Batoche. He was adjutant and second in command of this year's Shoeburyness

At the Opera House,

applause, her acting throughout being of who are brethren in Christ. the most acceptable nature. Her conception was perfect and she displayed more

All wool cashmere for 25 cents at

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

FUNERAL SERMON OF THE LATE

A Large Congregation in the Fourth M thedist Church-The Remarks of the Preacher Regarding Deceased's Life.

The memorial service of the late M. Wm. Hales was held in the Fourth methodist church last evening, when the congregation was a very large one, it being necessary to place seats in the sisles. The members of the A. O. U. W. wearing mourning badges, were present in a body. The pulpit, organ and the wall above the choir were draped in mourn ing, on the former being the words, "In memoriam" in . white letters, and on the highest folds was a descending dove, worked in white also. The preacher was verse of the 5th chap, of Amos for his text:-

night; that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the carth: The Lord is His name. After dealing at length with the text, he spoke of the sadness of some bereavements-the loss of a husband or father-

Personal Mention.

W. E. Hart, the mayor of Watertown, s a native of Picton day to visit her brother in Oshawa. Mr. James Norris, of Brockville, an old Kingstonian, spent New Year's in the city. Charles Eggleton, who is living in Belleville spent New Year's with friends the first part of the programme to a clore Mrs. Mary Boyle, one of Perth's oldest residents, died last week at the advanced | dinner, age of 97.

minstrels at Rochester. Thomas Dodds, an old Kingstonian, but now living in Toronto, arrived in the city on New Year's morning. Ed. Perry left for Toronto to day to attend the district convention of moulders, which meets to-morrow morning. The art treasures of Perth, Scotland are shortly to be augmented by a bust of Friends of Mr. Ed. Couper gathered gold pieces, but on inspection it was found of the Douglas public school, Renfrew, for the satisfaction of all. Mr. W. J. Belton, the popular teacher | Papa acted as director of ceremonies to The assembly of the true blues in the that the five dollar gold pieces were silver the past year, was banquetted last week before his departure for his home in Lanark county. After the holidays Mr.

Surprised Again.

On Christmas eve, Mr. George Gruber of Oberndorffer's cigar factory, was made the recipient of an easy chair by the cigar makers under him. The "outside de partment," composed of the female employees and smaller boys, not to be out done by their fellow workers, on Friday presented their foreman with a large hanging lamp. The lamp is of the latest atyle and very expensive, and is highly prized by Mr. Gruber. The following address accompanied the lamp: "Dear sir, -On the approach of the New Year, we, In the Montreal Star are the cuts of the employees of the 'outside departthe commanding officers of the Shoebury. | ment, desire to express our heartfelt ness team which visited England last good, wishes for yourself and your esyear, and among them is a good one of teemed wife and children for the coming Captain Drury. Beneath his cut is the year, and ask you to accept the accomfollowing :- Captain Charles William panying testimonial as a slight token of Drury, now of Kingston, is a son of Mr. | our interest in and esteem for one who W. C. Drury, St. John, N. B. He was has ever had our best interests most first connected with the militia as lieu. | warmly at heart. Trusting that the new tenant in the New Brunswick brigade of | year may be fraught with the richest The congregation of St. Magdalen's garrison artillery, which he joined in blessings for yourself and all dear and long courses with A battery, King- and Josephine Lalonde." The address with a view to securing him for the posi- ston, joining this battery of the regiment | was signed on behalf of the outside de-

The first meeting in connection with the week of prayer will be held in the Fourth methodist church this evening. when addresses will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Houston and the Rev. Dr. Hooper. To-morrow evening the meeting will be held in the First congregational church, and addresses will be delivered by the Revs. J. W. Sparling and J. Mackie on "Humiliation," dwelling on One of the best performances seen here the necessity of it for personal sins, for some time was given by the . Wilson family sins, and national sins; for the Day company on last Friday. The play spread of unbelief and of atheism in variwas the famous society drama "Forget ous quarters; for the fearful extent to me not," which abounds in the liveliest which "the lust of the flesh, the lust of wit and repartee known to the stage, and the eye, and the pride of life" still pregives ample opportunity for good acting | vail, for the large amount of intemper-Miss Osborne, as "Stephanie," again gave | ance, licentiouness, and all immorality; evidence of being an actress of more than for the formalism of many and the cold ordinary ability, and her rendition of this indifference of others; for unseemly of difficult role elicited round upon round of visions and the lack of love among those from Clayton in a boat. At the head of Sparling, pastor of the church, and Dr. Hooper of the baptist church. Both spoke of the solemness of the hour. While of the old year was passing away, and the new year coming in, the interval was spent in silent prayer, after which Mr. Sparling asked for a blessing on those present, and hoped that the new year would be a happy one to all.

The men were unable to get to shore, and spent the night and next forenoon bailing one to all.

Wilby, 'was all the most exacting critic could desire, as he looked and acted the drifting of the dayspeptic. Care exercised in the selection of food, which is all important to the dyspeptic. Character to perfection. Little Annie bird which is all important to the dyspeptic. Hamilton's Pills may be used with the formation of the host was ripped of the host was ripped of the host was ripped of the boat was ripped open. Letting the water in so rapidly that the new year coming in, the interval was spent in silent prayer, after which Mr. Sparling to shore, and spent the night and next forenoon bailing the boat. On Tuesday they were rescued by William and Orlando Latimer, who by William and Orlando Latimer, who were crowded to the doors, and standing stimulate the liver and assist in the more went in search of them. They were pretty room was at a premium. To night the perfect assimulation of food in the sotmach. well exhausted, and their legs and arms company play the "Creole," or "Article Dyspepties, try Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

RHMINDERI

to Save Money, secure some of offered by Minnes & Burns during their Sale, which ends This Month.

the Rev. Mr. Stillwell, who took the 8th We will consider it a favor it you will call and examine goods and compare prices. Everything reduced. Goods shown with pleasure

Corner Princess and Bagot Streets.

Nine Hours Enjoyment with the Grave The Graveyard nine baseball club held its first annual dinner on New Year's eve.

pleasant one, although he felt a sadness at parting with friends. The evening was pleasant to him because there were present many dear friends, particulary those been changed before he was taken. He attractive manner, while bunting of all of the old fire brigade. He could not ex- was glad that deceased was ready to go colors adorned the calling, displaying the press his feelings at parting, but the ring He had met him from time to time in emblem of the Graveyard nine in a most which he had received would bind him meetings, and found him to be a cheerful ingenious manner. At the back of the to his friends and always cause him Christian. He, the preacher, heard him platform were the words "Compliments of, to think of them when he was far give his last testimony for the Master, and the season," formed with bronzed and away from Kingston. He closed by wish- it was to the effect that the last three froated baseballs. Addresses, songs, reing all a happy new year, and every suc- months were the happiest of his whole citations, feasting and dancing formed the cess. After the "host and hostess" had life. God had been so good to him of late programme of the evening. President been toasted, Mr and Miss Cox sang a that he, the deceased, had told his friends Parnell, in his address, thanked the reduet, the company "Auld Lang Syne" in private about it. He, the preacher, surrectionists for the hearty response to and 'God save the queen' and then the festivities ceased at twelve o'clock. had sat beside his sick bed, and when he gave him a drink of water he replied most encouraging. He said the nine had The address which Mr. Harold received This is sweet; it reminds me of the not disbanded and gone south for the read as follows :-- We deeply regret the stream that makes glad." Deceased was winter, as "ball-players generally do." duty devolving on us this evening, that is, missed in the church. He was such a They had put up a good stove in the the parting with an old friend. In another | cheerful Christian that he must have had | vault, and while the neighbors' wood piles way it is a pleasure to acknowledge a a real good time on this earth, and there lasted they would stay right here. At friendship with one so highly gifted as was no doubt that he would have a good the close of the baseball season they had you are; but there is a sadness lurking time in the next, A cheerful Christian formed a band not of hope but of musinear when we think that we are in his family, he had many friends and cians, and the people would soon have the degrees below zero at five o'clock this compelled to part so, soon with one will be greatly missed at the church gather pleasure of hearing afew of their selections. so beloved by all. We cannot help ings, where he took as much interest in He then called upon the manager to Very few votes were polled in St. Law. taking this opportunity of showing our the work as in the were laboring for his speak. Geet then rolled to the front on, rence ward to day. The aldermen having appreciation of the gentlemanly way you own personal benefit. In concluding the baseballs and spoke of ball, ball playing, have always conducted yourself towards sermon the preacher pointed out that it and the new rules, which he approved of. us and to make our friendship lasting and was necessary for sinners to forsake their. He said he thought baseball would be more interesting next year than ever both to spectators and players, but as ball play ing was now out of season, with the thermometer 22 degrees below zero, he would drop the subject. He then rolled back to the stove with his mitts and overshoes on. The band played "An evening with the nine." Mark then sang an original solo, "From base to base," and being encored he gave his old favorite, "The day I played baseball." off," and sang the chorus. Nustler, Fat, Skee and Burthen sang "McNally's flat." Doc. gave a mouth organ solo, accompanied by Dick on the piano, kindly loaned for this occasion. This brought > room where justice was done to the Compared to feasting, song and mirth All other joys are but unstable,

The coolest heart that beats on earth Is melted by a smoking table. The president occupied the chair with the manager and treasurer as vice-chairmen. When the wants of the innerman had been satisfied, the president proposed "The queen" which was was honored with great enthusiasm. Reminis cences of former dinners were related, which caused great laughter When Papa gave, "Dooleys' party," the manager passed him the cake basket, and the boys threw in the roasted chestnut After dinner dancing was indulged in till the nine hours were up at 4:30 a.m. when every person skipped and the most plea sant evening of the season was brought to a close. The music for the dance was furnished by the nine's orchestra, and

Calls For Opposition.

A writer in the Napanee Beaver, in al luding to Kingston patitioning the legis. lative for permission to readjust its deb so that arrangements could be made, among other things for giving a bonus to the N & T. RR company, to bring that railway to Kingston, says:-"Now it seems very strange, if true, that any meur. bers of the government would pledge their support in advance to any scheme of that might be raised to it; but whether they did or not, I hope the people of Napanee will take the earliest opportunity of informing the government of the great inustice to our town that such legislation would involve, and doing all they can to oppose it. It is well known that the road would never have been built if our town had not fire given a large banus to commence it, nor would it ever have Boys' Suits beginning at $1.50, Boys' Overce ats at $2.50, been finished if we had not given a second large bonus for that purpose, both which were given with the understanding that our town would be the terminus of the road, and the outlet of all the traffic and trade brought in from the back Sountry. I trust, therefore, sir, that our citizens will ask the Ontario government to do us a simple act of justice by refusing the legislation sought, and to bestow on our town and country, at least a small share of the favors that are lavished so freely upon the neighboring towns both Harrowsmith Bappenings.

The methodist Sabbath school Christmas was literally packed with people. The sented by Mr. Philander Meyers on bethis place. - A new atore is going up on right-direction-putting up a fancy sign

AS IN THE PAST, SO IN THE FUTURE, we will continue to sell Clothing at the Lowest Prices. A call will convince. Suits to order, $12, $14, $18, $18.

C. LIVINGSTON & BRO.

Brock Street, Kingston. HET TA CARPET HOUSE

Jas. Richmond & Co.

You can buy Tapestry Carpets at 30c.

Special notice is given that several single-pieces, left over of different patterns, will be sold at cost. Several new and beautiful patterns in Brussels just received. The best selected stock of good patterns, in Wool, Tapestry and Brussels Carpets, ever we exhibited, and now selling at the lowest prices. Buy now, as Carpets are already up in England, For Carpets, Curtains, Curtain Poles, &c., go to

> J. RICHMOND & CO. 1887.

Grand Cash SCOUNT SALE

In order to close out all Fall and Winter Goods, we will during January sell at a liberal discount all Dress Goods, Wool Goods, Hostery, Underwear, Tweeds, Cloakings, &c. Each department will have over it a ticket naming the discount. We claim our prices as they are, without the discount, to be the lowest in the city Hardy OVERSTOCKINGS, All Sizes.

88 PRINCESS STREET.

THREE SIZES MILLINERY ROOM

B. DORAN & CO., 126 Princess-st. GREATEST SUCCESS

OF THE SEASON.

More customers served in one week than ever before in kind, without knowing what objections the history of the store, and every one going away pleased with extraordinary bargains. We have just two weeks in which to sell the balance of our large stock of Clothing and Tweeds. All Croths sold at manufacturers' prices, and cut free of charge. Our stock of Clothing is being fast reduced, the reason being low prices.

See our Men's Overcoats at $4 50, Men's Smits at $4.50, other line sold away down. A special line of Suits bought at auction, being sold for $9, former price $15, the best readymade Suit in the Dominion at the price.

Youth's Suits at $3.50, Youth's Overcoats at $3, and every.

Make your purchases now and save 25 per cent. at ROCKWELL'S

Great Clothing House, 122 Princess Street.

tree was a grand success. The town hall Store closes every night, except Saturday, at 9 o'clock: Compliments of the Season to All GREATER EVER TO CLEAR BALANCE OF STOCK Still Greater Reductions in Dress Goods. Still Greater Reductions in Plushes Still Greater Reductions in Tweeds. Still Greater Reductionwin Gloves. Still Greater Reductions in Underwear.

Still Greater Reductions in Ulsterings. Still Greater Reductions in Hosiery. Still Greater Reductions in Corsets. Murray and Taylor's

Monster Clearing Sale, 176 Princess street. with a VALUABLE TREATISK on thir disease to any

Branch Office, 37 Yonge St., Toronto

弱. BRA雅彩.

HEADQUARTERS FOR KEYS AND HARDWARE.

UNDREDS of different kinds of keys to choose from. Keys fitted and locks repaired. Sooper work made and repaired. Saws alled and set.

ISAAC DAVID. Locksmith and Champion Saw Filer. · 269 Princess street. FURNITURE.

March 3.

Assessment System .- Mutuall Reserve Rund Cla. a.

day in each month

Meeting of Minden lodge. Meeting of Rayal Arcsuyur. Vilson Day's theatre company at opera house Meeting of board of trade.
Wilson Day atheatre company at opera house

Weather Observations. Barometer, ature, Velocity, Weather

Lowest temperature registered this winter. The sign before the degrees of temperature A. P. KNIGHT, M.D., Observer.

Ringston Daily Rews.

Badly Frozen. and face badly frozen on his way to the city this morning. He states that the

A subscriber living in the county of Broke Her Leg.

The attendance at the roller ripk on New Year's day was large, and those present seemed to enjoy themselves. In the evening the band of "A" battery was in attendance, and, under the leadership of Trumpet-Major Carey, discoursed sweet music. The band will be present on Tuesday and Saturday evenings of each which the Rev. B B. Smith delivered a sibilities of the past year. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the Rev. Mr. Jones of Barriefield, was prevented from being present. A collection was taken up. Entertained Their Friends. The officers of "A" battery, as hereto-

An Oyster Supper. On New Year's eve Mr. W. C. Martin. owner of the opera house, treated his employees to an oyster supper in Mrs. Elmer's restaurant. The spread was got up in good style and a pleasant time was | for gentlemen - a nice range of shaving spent. Songs were given by Thomas Maxwell, D. Brannigan, W. Norris and Christmas tree. Around the rooster's neck was tied a piece of blue ribbon on which was neatly printed "What's the four and stove, $6 per ton. Best quality matter with Metcalfe." He is very

Diphtheria in Sydenbam, It is with regret that the sudden death heria is chronicled. He was a bright, ntelligent boy of fourteen summers and

First methodist church on New Year's eve, The attendance was large. The choir was present and rendered several

The public schools will re-open on Fri-

Hosiery and gloves, very cheap, at city where you can they a good comforasual custom, serenaded many prominent They will enter the central New York

The staff sergeants and sergeants of Cloakings, dress goods and wool under-

· Yesterday was what is known as coven-week, and walking out on the ice was aged twelve, nine and four years.

"Seek Him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into he morning, and maketh the day dark with Joseph Laird arrived from Chicago on Thursday last.

Capt. A. Milligan, of the Bismarck, arrived in the city on Saturday. Miss Nellie Derry left on New Year's | The band gave the selection "Now you're and an adjournment was made to another John Pogue, of Kingston, who is a fine vocalist, has joined Rankin & Wilson's me could be shaved with it, was in his the late David Kennedy, the vocalist. hip pocket. He also carried a key factory Friends of Mr. Ed. Couper gathered on a small scale with him, comprising around him in the Brunswick house on eighteen different keys, and a tweeser for New Year's eve and spent a pleasant the purpose of opening doors, that had a | time, prior to his departure for Montreal

Belton will attend the medical college at

The Week of Prayer.

east and west of us."

tree was loaded with presents for scholars and friends. The entertainment was all that could be desired. The children sang their pieces splend dly; and the methodist choir, as usual, called forth ejaculations DR of praise. Miss Griffith retained her celebrity as a singer. At the close of the entertainment Mrs G. A Bell was prehalf of the parishoners, with a beautiful China tea set, as an Christmas present.-The Sunday school continues $100 have been raised for school purposes alone at this appointment this year since last May. - Elections passed off quietly in the back street. - The proprietors of our new tin shop have taken one step in the mour and Toby Rowe were returning, scenes. Mr. Day, as "Sir Horace from Clayton in a boat. At the head of Wilby, was all the most exacting critic care exercised in the selection of food, —A large number of our young prople

Bulbs for Fall Planting.

Leading Undertaker and Embalmer. Hyacinthe, tulips, crocuses, lillies, etc. just arrived from the celebrated TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION nursery of James Vick, Rochester, will be sold at reasonable prices at Hobart's Openar of Princes and Sydenham streets

CALL AT H. BRAME'S

FURNITURE OF ALL KINDS.