The Election in Frontenac.

[To the Editor of THE DAILY NEWS.] Sir,-I see in the Kingston papers of December 29th, a letter purporting to be a challenge from John Doyle as to the way in which he and the Roman catholics of the county of Frontenac voted at the last election, when I was returned. I feel certain that John Doyle voted for me both in 1883 and 1886 as he has been a life-long conservative, and I never stated that he voted otherwise. As to what I me, I may say, that I was asked at the At a meeting of the I C. B. WEEK OF PRAYER

ome Wholesome Advice to People Both in and Out of the Churches The Meaning

"Prayer, for the church" was the subset of the address at the Third meeting I the week of prayer, held last evening n St. Andrew's church. The attendance was very large. The pastor, Rev. J. Mackie, opened the meeting: 'The first speaker was the Rev. R. Whiting, who commenced his remarks by asking what They have just received a fine assort- posed of various parts, viz., the confessment of X mas novelties at the City drug ion of manifold sins, thankegiving for store. Don't neglect to call and examine blessings received, and petitions, for wants to be supplied. Prayer offered to God must be offered through Christ. In tercession must be made through a meditator. The name of Christ should be on the lips of everyone, for He as men's advocate is pleading above and interceding for mercy for sinners. The importance of prayer may be seen by looking up what was done in the church. Heaven was the property of those who prayed and those who did not pray would go below. Prayer should be offered up for the church, not the presbyterian, methodist or baptist church one church. The speaker then related the story of a soldier who was wounded for a week this morning. He has become asked by a clorgyman what church he belonged to, said: "I belong to the church of the Lord Jesus Christ." "But, said the clergyman, "to what persuasion do you belong?" "To that one which things present, things past or things to come can not separate me from," was the reply. Offer prayer, said Mr. Whiting, for the prosperity of the church. What was truly wanted was the baptism of the Thomas Dodds, who spent New Year's Holy Ghost. Grand sermons might. in the city, was entertained at supper in | be preached, but unless people had the Brunswick house on Tuesday night. the baptism of the Holy Ghost they were jost. No soul would or could be brought out of darkness unless such baptism was received. What was largely wanted was prodigals brought in and converted. He hoped souls would be con verted everywhere for a soul, if converted, might be the means of 'converting thou sands; but if left unconverted it might draw thousands down-wi h it. True prosholiness, representing one heart and one soul. True prosperity consisted in furthering the interests of the church. Re-
