My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete. W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

An idea of the disreputable taction adopted by the rouge organs in Quebec may be gathered from the comment made by La Justice on the fact that Sir A. P. Caron, finding it impossible to wait around the court house for several days until his turn should arrive, in the ordinary way, of being called as a witness in the Amyot-Tarte libel case, asked the privilege of naving his evidence taken before the trial. La Justice remarks that the true reason was that he was afraid to show "his orange phiz" before a Quebec jury. "Brother" Caron must be a recent addition to the order.
