LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Reply to." Bezekiah" [To the editor of the DALY NEWS.]

Sir, -In your same of yesterday I see a letter signed "Hezekiah Hayseed," and with him and "Independent" I fully agree with regard to our esteemed and respectchieftain, but I take exception to "Hezekiah's" last clause, in which he sage, unthinkingly I am sure "Only let the young electors take up the matter and not leave it to the old fossils to lament and blather (wherever he found that phrase) about what they would have done in their youthful days." Could he have seen me (an older man than our chieftain) leave the couch of indisposition last evening to attend a conservative meeting and meet there a host of men whose heads have grown gray in theservice, and whose strength seemed renewed like the eagle's at the return of another campaign. I am sure he would change his mind and not detract from the merits of well tried friends, who stood faithfully by their leader in many a hard fought field, and who are now only too eager to again take up arms in defence of truth and justice against false pretension. I do not in the least under-rate the value of our young men in whom we have the greatest confidence and to whom we stretch the righthand of fellowship, feeling confident that they will fully appreciate the act of the man who has secured them the right of the franchise. Yours truly, THOS. MILLER, SR.

It appears you are not as good a man as Mr. So and so who was selected." Now, what the object of such remarks was I shall not pretend to say, but it would appear to me most unmanly if it was for the purpose of making capital or inciting enmity against the gentleman last chosen as councilmen on account of the very first act which it became their duty to perform. Blessings will certainly be the reward of the peacemaker, but disappointment appears to
