

REMEMBER GREAT CHEAP SALE IS NOW GOING ON

Felix Shaw's! Clouds, Dress Goods, Black Cashmeres, Ulsterings, Black Silks, Satin Merves, Men's Underwear, Ladies' Vests, Fascinators, Colored Cashmeres, Shawls, FLANNELS, BLANKETS, VELVETEENS, PLUSHES, HOSIERY AND GLOVES, CARPETS.

A CALL SOLICITED Glasgow Warehouse CARPET ROOMS. BLANK BOOKS.

Henderson & Co's NEW BOOKSTORE.

The "Comet" Toboggan

PRICE LIST. LOW RAIL. HIGH RAIL.

The "Star" Toboggan. John Henderson & Co., Princess Street, Kingston

MASONIC. The next regular monthly meeting of the No. 1000 M.C. Lodge will be held in the Masonic Hall, King Street, on Friday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m.

ROYAL ARCANUM. The regular meetings of the No. 1000 M.C. Lodge will be held in the Masonic Hall, King Street, on Friday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m.

REMINDERS. The regular meetings of the No. 1000 M.C. Lodge will be held in the Masonic Hall, King Street, on Friday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m.

Weather Observations. At sea level, Temp. Wind. Bar. Humidity. Direction of Wind.

Kingston Daily News. The Country Roads Blocked. The country roads are completely blocked but we are well fortified with 1 lb. prints butter 25c, 1/2 butter 23c, fine dairy packed butter 20c, turkey 10c, lb., fennel radishes 10c. James Crawford.

A Popular Affair. Mr. Sherlock's concert has been indefinitely postponed but an influential committee has secured Miss Howden for the same date, Feb. 1st.

Religious Notice. Joseph Duval, of Renfrew, who has gone crazy about religion, had to be chained to the wall in the jail here as so violent. Efforts are being made to get him admitted into the Kingston asylum.

10,000,000 New Business. The Equitable life assurance society did new business last year to the extent of upwards of one hundred and ten millions of dollars.

Patients Eject. Last evening a number of patients were being driven from Rockwood asylum to the asylum in the city when the horses ran away, throwing the box of the sleigh off.

The Sidewalks. Several sidewalks on Bagot and William streets are in most disgraceful condition. Large holes are cut in the snow, which was left to be hardened on the walks, making it very dangerous for pedestrians, especially on dark nights.

Races on the Ice. During the second week in February arrangements have been made to have two days' races on the ice.

A Narrow Escape. A young lad named Newman was engaged this morning to chop ice from the roof of D. F. Armstrong's store.

Acknowledgements. The secretary of the poor relief association acknowledges with hearty thanks, a donation of $50 from his worship the mayor.

The Market. The market this morning was very large owing no doubt, to the state of the roads. Buyers were plentiful, and sellers disposed of what they brought to the market at the following prices.

A Narrow Escape. Yesterday afternoon, a team of horses driven by a young man, ran away from the Cataragui toll gate, and started for the city at a breakneck pace.

St. Andrew's Literary Society. St. Andrew's hall was the scene of a large and brilliant gathering last evening, the occasion being a conversation under the auspices of the St. Andrew's Literary Society.

The "Star" Toboggan. Of this Toboggan, the manufacturer says: "The Original Patent Star Toboggan, with its latest patented improvements, stands unrivalled for durability and speed."

THE CIVIC BUSINESS.

MEETING OF THE STREETS COMMITTEE. The streets committee met yesterday afternoon in the engineer's office, when present were Ald. Thompson, (chairman), Drennon, C. Robinson, Hobart, Muckleton, Downing and Wilson.

LETTER DATED DECEMBER 30TH. The letter dated December 30th, and signed by Francis Summerville of Upper Colborne street, was read, in which the writer said corporation employees had improperly covered a drain they had been fixing on the above street, and that his wife, who was sitting across it, put her foot in a hole and broke her arm.

OTHER WORKERS' SPEAK. Mr. S. Kilpatrick alluded to the progress the city had made of late years, and to Sir John's policy, and said that he was sure that in the coming contest Frontenac ward would do her duty for Sir John. (Applause.)

MR. R. T. WALKER SAID THAT HE HAD LEFT A SICK ROOM to attend the meeting to show how deeply he was interested in the coming election. He asked the audience to compare the two candidates, and Mr. Gunn, he said, was a decent and good citizen but he was not fit to represent Kingston in parliament.

MR. HARMER MADE BRIEF REMARKS saying that while he did not believe Sir John was a god, there was an indefinable something about him which fascinated men. (Cheers.) Sir John was now an old man, and it was generally supposed that men as they grew old became conservative, but such was not the case with Sir John.

MR. WHEATON, who made the meeting cheer and cheer again, said that if he were a girl he would rather face four Gathings than John Gaskin. He was glad to have the opportunity to assist in electing "the grand old man." (Cheers.)

MR. WILSON, druggist, pointed out to the manufacturers of the country, grit which would go for Sir John, because they knew if he were not returned, factories would be full blast would suffer. (Cheers.)

MR. ISAAC OLIVER SAID HE WAS A mechanic and in favor of the chief, and that although he had been voting for sixteen years he was on the platform for the first time. He alluded to the new houses being built in the city to accommodate those who had secured work under the N.P., and then sat down amid cheers.

MR. CROGG SAID THAT WHAT WAS done for Jim would be repeated for Sir John, and Mr. Jno. Hewton, of the knitting mill, spoke strongly in favor of the chief, pointing out that the manufacturers and workmen of England had supported Sir John, and if the workingmen of Kingston would be good for them they would support Sir John and the N.P. (Cheers.)

DR. SMYTHE ANNOUNCED THAT THERE would be no more speeches, and asked those present to give cheers for Sir John. He said that the cheering would be good for the N.P. Prolonged cheering occurred, and then one of the most enthusiastic meetings that was held in Kingston broke up.

PROMINENT GRIT—You have got us this time, but still we can keep you down Sir John's majority. When a speaker at the conservative meeting last night said that Sir John was a planet and Mr. Metcalfe a comet, a voice replied: "The grits could not smother Sir John."

GRITS SET IN THE GLADSTONE CLUB ROOMS last night and listened to their death knell, the routing cheers which were issuing from the place in which the conservatives held their meeting.

THIS MORNING SOME CIRCULARS IN THE city an election card, on which were the words, "Having accepted the nomination of the reform party in Kingston I solicit your vote and influence. Yours faithfully, A. Gunn." Now the question is who signed Mr. Gunn's name to the original document? When he comes to the city, either before or after the election, he will make enquiries as to who made such a free use of his name.

THIS MORNING AN OFFICER OF THE Gladstone club asked a citizen if he was in on the Kingston election, and after a little badgering, the latter said he would be even; so, finally, to see if the grit really meant business, he said he would bet $30 to $20 on Sir John. The grit said, "What?" and away he went and brought a booby back with him, whom he said had lots of money. The speaker pulled out a roll of bills, expecting to bluff the conservative, but when the $30 were planked down, the former laughed, jammed his booby into his pocket, and started off, saying "I'll see you again."

MR. JOHN MELBYRE ON BEING ASKED, "What about Ridout ward?" said he felt sure she would vote for Sir John, and she did for Metcalfe and gave Sir John a majority of 113. (Cheers and cries of "We will.") The speaker then pointed out to the workmen that it was in the interest of their wives, homes, families and children that they should vote for Sir John and rise in their might for the champion of the N.P. (Cheers.) He, the speaker, said he had read in the Wagon the report of the speech made in the

THE CIVIC BUSINESS.

MEETING OF THE STREETS COMMITTEE. The streets committee met yesterday afternoon in the engineer's office, when present were Ald. Thompson, (chairman), Drennon, C. Robinson, Hobart, Muckleton, Downing and Wilson.

LETTER DATED DECEMBER 30TH. The letter dated December 30th, and signed by Francis Summerville of Upper Colborne street, was read, in which the writer said corporation employees had improperly covered a drain they had been fixing on the above street, and that his wife, who was sitting across it, put her foot in a hole and broke her arm.

OTHER WORKERS' SPEAK. Mr. S. Kilpatrick alluded to the progress the city had made of late years, and to Sir John's policy, and said that he was sure that in the coming contest Frontenac ward would do her duty for Sir John. (Applause.)

MR. R. T. WALKER SAID THAT HE HAD LEFT A SICK ROOM to attend the meeting to show how deeply he was interested in the coming election. He asked the audience to compare the two candidates, and Mr. Gunn, he said, was a decent and good citizen but he was not fit to represent Kingston in parliament.

MR. HARMER MADE BRIEF REMARKS saying that while he did not believe Sir John was a god, there was an indefinable something about him which fascinated men. (Cheers.) Sir John was now an old man, and it was generally supposed that men as they grew old became conservative, but such was not the case with Sir John.

MR. WHEATON, who made the meeting cheer and cheer again, said that if he were a girl he would rather face four Gathings than John Gaskin. He was glad to have the opportunity to assist in electing "the grand old man." (Cheers.)

MR. WILSON, druggist, pointed out to the manufacturers of the country, grit which would go for Sir John, because they knew if he were not returned, factories would be full blast would suffer. (Cheers.)

MR. ISAAC OLIVER SAID HE WAS A mechanic and in favor of the chief, and that although he had been voting for sixteen years he was on the platform for the first time. He alluded to the new houses being built in the city to accommodate those who had secured work under the N.P., and then sat down amid cheers.

MR. CROGG SAID THAT WHAT WAS done for Jim would be repeated for Sir John, and Mr. Jno. Hewton, of the knitting mill, spoke strongly in favor of the chief, pointing out that the manufacturers and workmen of England had supported Sir John, and if the workingmen of Kingston would be good for them they would support Sir John and the N.P. (Cheers.)

DR. SMYTHE ANNOUNCED THAT THERE would be no more speeches, and asked those present to give cheers for Sir John. He said that the cheering would be good for the N.P. Prolonged cheering occurred, and then one of the most enthusiastic meetings that was held in Kingston broke up.

PROMINENT GRIT—You have got us this time, but still we can keep you down Sir John's majority. When a speaker at the conservative meeting last night said that Sir John was a planet and Mr. Metcalfe a comet, a voice replied: "The grits could not smother Sir John."

GRITS SET IN THE GLADSTONE CLUB ROOMS last night and listened to their death knell, the routing cheers which were issuing from the place in which the conservatives held their meeting.

THIS MORNING SOME CIRCULARS IN THE city an election card, on which were the words, "Having accepted the nomination of the reform party in Kingston I solicit your vote and influence. Yours faithfully, A. Gunn." Now the question is who signed Mr. Gunn's name to the original document? When he comes to the city, either before or after the election, he will make enquiries as to who made such a free use of his name.

THIS MORNING AN OFFICER OF THE Gladstone club asked a citizen if he was in on the Kingston election, and after a little badgering, the latter said he would be even; so, finally, to see if the grit really meant business, he said he would bet $30 to $20 on Sir John. The grit said, "What?" and away he went and brought a booby back with him, whom he said had lots of money. The speaker pulled out a roll of bills, expecting to bluff the conservative, but when the $30 were planked down, the former laughed, jammed his booby into his pocket, and started off, saying "I'll see you again."

MR. JOHN MELBYRE ON BEING ASKED, "What about Ridout ward?" said he felt sure she would vote for Sir John, and she did for Metcalfe and gave Sir John a majority of 113. (Cheers and cries of "We will.") The speaker then pointed out to the workmen that it was in the interest of their wives, homes, families and children that they should vote for Sir John and rise in their might for the champion of the N.P. (Cheers.) He, the speaker, said he had read in the Wagon the report of the speech made in the

THE CIVIC BUSINESS.

MEETING OF THE STREETS COMMITTEE. The streets committee met yesterday afternoon in the engineer's office, when present were Ald. Thompson, (chairman), Drennon, C. Robinson, Hobart, Muckleton, Downing and Wilson.

LETTER DATED DECEMBER 30TH. The letter dated December 30th, and signed by Francis Summerville of Upper Colborne street, was read, in which the writer said corporation employees had improperly covered a drain they had been fixing on the above street, and that his wife, who was sitting across it, put her foot in a hole and broke her arm.

OTHER WORKERS' SPEAK. Mr. S. Kilpatrick alluded to the progress the city had made of late years, and to Sir John's policy, and said that he was sure that in the coming contest Frontenac ward would do her duty for Sir John. (Applause.)

MR. R. T. WALKER SAID THAT HE HAD LEFT A SICK ROOM to attend the meeting to show how deeply he was interested in the coming election. He asked the audience to compare the two candidates, and Mr. Gunn, he said, was a decent and good citizen but he was not fit to represent Kingston in parliament.

MR. HARMER MADE BRIEF REMARKS saying that while he did not believe Sir John was a god, there was an indefinable something about him which fascinated men. (Cheers.) Sir John was now an old man, and it was generally supposed that men as they grew old became conservative, but such was not the case with Sir John.

MR. WHEATON, who made the meeting cheer and cheer again, said that if he were a girl he would rather face four Gathings than John Gaskin. He was glad to have the opportunity to assist in electing "the grand old man." (Cheers.)

MR. WILSON, druggist, pointed out to the manufacturers of the country, grit which would go for Sir John, because they knew if he were not returned, factories would be full blast would suffer. (Cheers.)

MR. ISAAC OLIVER SAID HE WAS A mechanic and in favor of the chief, and that although he had been voting for sixteen years he was on the platform for the first time. He alluded to the new houses being built in the city to accommodate those who had secured work under the N.P., and then sat down amid cheers.

MR. CROGG SAID THAT WHAT WAS done for Jim would be repeated for Sir John, and Mr. Jno. Hewton, of the knitting mill, spoke strongly in favor of the chief, pointing out that the manufacturers and workmen of England had supported Sir John, and if the workingmen of Kingston would be good for them they would support Sir John and the N.P. (Cheers.)

DR. SMYTHE ANNOUNCED THAT THERE would be no more speeches, and asked those present to give cheers for Sir John. He said that the cheering would be good for the N.P. Prolonged cheering occurred, and then one of the most enthusiastic meetings that was held in Kingston broke up.

PROMINENT GRIT—You have got us this time, but still we can keep you down Sir John's majority. When a speaker at the conservative meeting last night said that Sir John was a planet and Mr. Metcalfe a comet, a voice replied: "The grits could not smother Sir John."

GRITS SET IN THE GLADSTONE CLUB ROOMS last night and listened to their death knell, the routing cheers which were issuing from the place in which the conservatives held their meeting.

THIS MORNING SOME CIRCULARS IN THE city an election card, on which were the words, "Having accepted the nomination of the reform party in Kingston I solicit your vote and influence. Yours faithfully, A. Gunn." Now the question is who signed Mr. Gunn's name to the original document? When he comes to the city, either before or after the election, he will make enquiries as to who made such a free use of his name.

THIS MORNING AN OFFICER OF THE Gladstone club asked a citizen if he was in on the Kingston election, and after a little badgering, the latter said he would be even; so, finally, to see if the grit really meant business, he said he would bet $30 to $20 on Sir John. The grit said, "What?" and away he went and brought a booby back with him, whom he said had lots of money. The speaker pulled out a roll of bills, expecting to bluff the conservative, but when the $30 were planked down, the former laughed, jammed his booby into his pocket, and started off, saying "I'll see you again."

MR. JOHN MELBYRE ON BEING ASKED, "What about Ridout ward?" said he felt sure she would vote for Sir John, and she did for Metcalfe and gave Sir John a majority of 113. (Cheers and cries of "We will.") The speaker then pointed out to the workmen that it was in the interest of their wives, homes, families and children that they should vote for Sir John and rise in their might for the champion of the N.P. (Cheers.) He, the speaker, said he had read in the Wagon the report of the speech made in the

THE CIVIC BUSINESS.

MEETING OF THE STREETS COMMITTEE. The streets committee met yesterday afternoon in the engineer's office, when present were Ald. Thompson, (chairman), Drennon, C. Robinson, Hobart, Muckleton, Downing and Wilson.

LETTER DATED DECEMBER 30TH. The letter dated December 30th, and signed by Francis Summerville of Upper Colborne street, was read, in which the writer said corporation employees had improperly covered a drain they had been fixing on the above street, and that his wife, who was sitting across it, put her foot in a hole and broke her arm.

OTHER WORKERS' SPEAK. Mr. S. Kilpatrick alluded to the progress the city had made of late years, and to Sir John's policy, and said that he was sure that in the coming contest Frontenac ward would do her duty for Sir John. (Applause.)

MR. R. T. WALKER SAID THAT HE HAD LEFT A SICK ROOM to attend the meeting to show how deeply he was interested in the coming election. He asked the audience to compare the two candidates, and Mr. Gunn, he said, was a decent and good citizen but he was not fit to represent Kingston in parliament.

MR. HARMER MADE BRIEF REMARKS saying that while he did not believe Sir John was a god, there was an indefinable something about him which fascinated men. (Cheers.) Sir John was now an old man, and it was generally supposed that men as they grew old became conservative, but such was not the case with Sir John.

MR. WHEATON, who made the meeting cheer and cheer again, said that if he were a girl he would rather face four Gathings than John Gaskin. He was glad to have the opportunity to assist in electing "the grand old man." (Cheers.)

MR. WILSON, druggist, pointed out to the manufacturers of the country, grit which would go for Sir John, because they knew if he were not returned, factories would be full blast would suffer. (Cheers.)

MR. ISAAC OLIVER SAID HE WAS A mechanic and in favor of the chief, and that although he had been voting for sixteen years he was on the platform for the first time. He alluded to the new houses being built in the city to accommodate those who had secured work under the N.P., and then sat down amid cheers.

MR. CROGG SAID THAT WHAT WAS done for Jim would be repeated for Sir John, and Mr. Jno. Hewton, of the knitting mill, spoke strongly in favor of the chief, pointing out that the manufacturers and workmen of England had supported Sir John, and if the workingmen of Kingston would be good for them they would support Sir John and the N.P. (Cheers.)

DR. SMYTHE ANNOUNCED THAT THERE would be no more speeches, and asked those present to give cheers for Sir John. He said that the cheering would be good for the N.P. Prolonged cheering occurred, and then one of the most enthusiastic meetings that was held in Kingston broke up.

PROMINENT GRIT—You have got us this time, but still we can keep you down Sir John's majority. When a speaker at the conservative meeting last night said that Sir John was a planet and Mr. Metcalfe a comet, a voice replied: "The grits could not smother Sir John."

GRITS SET IN THE GLADSTONE CLUB ROOMS last night and listened to their death knell, the routing cheers which were issuing from the place in which the conservatives held their meeting.

THIS MORNING SOME CIRCULARS IN THE city an election card, on which were the words, "Having accepted the nomination of the reform party in Kingston I solicit your vote and influence. Yours faithfully, A. Gunn." Now the question is who signed Mr. Gunn's name to the original document? When he comes to the city, either before or after the election, he will make enquiries as to who made such a free use of his name.

THIS MORNING AN OFFICER OF THE Gladstone club asked a citizen if he was in on the Kingston election, and after a little badgering, the latter said he would be even; so, finally, to see if the grit really meant business, he said he would bet $30 to $20 on Sir John. The grit said, "What?" and away he went and brought a booby back with him, whom he said had lots of money. The speaker pulled out a roll of bills, expecting to bluff the conservative, but when the $30 were planked down, the former laughed, jammed his booby into his pocket, and started off, saying "I'll see you again."

MR. JOHN MELBYRE ON BEING ASKED, "What about Ridout ward?" said he felt sure she would vote for Sir John, and she did for Metcalfe and gave Sir John a majority of 113. (Cheers and cries of "We will.") The speaker then pointed out to the workmen that it was in the interest of their wives, homes, families and children that they should vote for Sir John and rise in their might for the champion of the N.P. (Cheers.) He, the speaker, said he had read in the Wagon the report of the speech made in the Double Leaded PRINTS AND GINGHAMS. J. C. Hardy & Co., One Price Store, 88 Princess st., two doors below Wellington.

WINTER SALE OF DRY GOODS AT WALDRON'S. All Jacket and Ulster Cloths reduced. All Winter Dress Goods reduced. All Wool Cloths, Fascinators and Shawls reduced.

REDUCED TO 40 AND 50 CENTS. A FEW PAIRS OF MISSES AND CHILDREN'S Carpet Slippers. Haines & Lockett.

NEW GOODS Murray and Taylor's. Now Open and Ready for Inspection.

400 pieces Print, choice patterns. 100 pieces Gingham. 100 pieces Elegant Oriental Lace in Coffee, Cream, Tuscan and Baise. All at our well-known Low Prices.

JUST ARRIVED AT ALEXANDER ROSS. Black and Brown Jersey Cloths, Black and Brown Astrachans for Jackets and Coats.

Jubilee Lace, Jubilee Lace, Jubilee A. O. Net, Jubilee A. O. Net. Jubilee in Cream, Pink, Natural Sky and Coral.

THE BIG MILLINERY ROOM B. DORAN & CO., 126 Princess-st. DON'T BOTHER YOUR HEAD

SO IS W. MOORE'S, 59 BROCK STREET, Just the place to leave your order for a Suit now that the Big Bonanza Sale is going on.

Prices so low that everybody can be suited, AND A PERFECT FIT EVERY TIME. William Moore. AT COST PRICE!

Jas. Richmond & Co. Off all Cloths at cost—White, Black, Blue, Cardinal, Maize Apricot, Cream, Pink, &c. Also, Mantles at cost. Also, Cloakings at cost.

GREAT STOCK-TAKING SALE. Liberal Discount to Ladies' Aid Societies. Spence & Crumley's. Opposite the City Hotel. 132 and 134 Princess street.

City Property for Sale. FURNITURE. THE SUBSCRIBER offers for sale his house and lot on Albert Street.