FARMERS AND THE N. P.

The Montreal Witness had some comments on the national policy as it affects farmers, and our local contemporary adopted its remarks. It is inslnuated that the farmers suffer because agricultural implements, wagons, &c, are taxed 35 per cent., furniture 30 per cent., clothing 30 to 60 per cent., sugar 2c. a pound and cotton 2 to Sc. a yard. Do these papers really think that the farmer is so simple as to believe that he has to pay that much higher for the above several articles Even if he used imported goods, at most, he would only have a portion of the duty to pay. But what farmer imports from the States or any other foreign country, agricultural implements, or his clothing, or his furniture, or his cottons, or his sugar ! Does not Canada supply him
