Of failing Bealth, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sursapariffa. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfectled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching. and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.

Ten years ago my bealth began to fait: was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousress. I tried various remedies prescribed Lot different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever. - Mrs. E. L. Williams.

I have used Aver's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradiente this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an altertive, and must say that I bonestly believe is to be the best blood medicine ever compounded .- W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., M. D., Greenville, Tenu.

would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Hendache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary reof. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for short time, my headache disappeared. and my stomach performed its duties more parfectly. To-day my health is comelely restored .- Mary Harley, Spring-

I have been greatly benefited by the compit use of Aver's Sarsaparilla. It ones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. LEWIS W. SHANNON

One of the readiest evidences that the Mail has ceased to be a tory paper is the fact that grit organs are queting with entire approval its recent utterances.

The new conservative newspaper, the Standard, has commenced work and gives good -promise of being an intelligent and able exponent of conservative views. It is edited by Louis P. Kribbs, a well known journalist, gifted with a ready other citizens of the dominion. and trenchant pen. It comes, as Mr. Kribbs says, "to close the gap left in the conservative ranks by the course of the Mail

If Sir John were the hoary scoundre that grit orators and organs love to depict him as being, is it not remarkable that after nearly half a century of public life, during half of which he has been the object of organized and systematic slander of every kind at the hands of most unscrupulous opponents, he should still be the most popular statesman in Canada Yet his popularity is beyond questioneven our contemporary is forced to allude to 'his own undoubted personal popularity." If the people believed one-thou sandth part of what grit papers have said of him, instead of flocking in thousands to wolcome him wherever he appears, they would assemble in their might and drive him away. The only explanation is that the public do not believe the very long .- Com. landerous utterances of the grit libellers.

SUGGESTING VIOLENCE

Bad men prophecy the thing they hope will happen. The Globe, speaking of the probability of a prorogation of the Que bec legislature in order to allow Mr. Taillon to form his government, says, threateningly, "it is scarcely to be hoped that to-morrow's sun will set in peace should constitutional usages be strained in order to keep a rejected party in power. This is a direct incitement to a breach of the peace, to a course of mob law and violence unless Mr. Mercler is allowed to have his own way. It knows the ex tremely uncertain and unstable nature of the alliance at present existing, or supposed to exist, between the rouges and the "bolting conservatives." That unholy and unnatural partnership may be dis solved at any moment, hence the mad haste displayed to get into power. The utterances of the Globe indicate that the idea of a coup d' etat, of seizing on the house by force of an armed mob, has been discussed by Mr. Mercier and his desperate horde-has even, perhaps, been resolved upon. And yet these are the men whom the people are saked to entrust with the destiny of this fair dominion.

On various occasions we have drawn attention to the notable fact that these who were best acquinted with all the facts connected with the North-West rebellion and the alleged causes of it, and especially those catholic priests and missionaries who resided and had labored for years in the very theatre if the trouble were unanimous in declaring that no just cause existed for the rebellion, and that the government was not to blame in the matter. The opinions of such men are extremely valuable as their religion and nationality alike inclined them to aympathize with the Metis and to take a friendly view of their side of the question And n w the favorable testimony thus referred to has had a climax put to it by the appearance of two most im portant letters from two of the highest French catholic dignitaries in the dominion, Archbishop Tache and the bishop of Three Rivers. The archbishop's letter is addressed to the bishop named and is dated March 13th, 1886 during the bebate on the motion of Mr. Landy to condemn the government for permitting the execution of Riel: "In the course of the letter his grace says : "You will easily understand the effect produced on the French members by Mr. Landry's motion. Alas, why? Must party spirit overrule every other consideration? I see men whom (referring to the grit leaders) I know have not the slightest sympathy or regard for the half-breeds, display nevertheless, an apparenreal which utterly fails to cover, the genuine motive of their conduct. For the same reason and with the same hopes they are playing the counterpart of what hey did connected with the North West affairs in 1873 Now they are pretended friends of those whom they made victims of their vengeance because it suits their purpose." In another place his grace says : Several of my friends who are members of the house have asked me this question: Shall we overthrow the government?
