LEWIS W. SHANNON,

We should be unjust to allow this oc casion to pass without praising the energy and ability of Dr. Smythe in organizing methodical and vigorous conduct the operations of the conservative party would have been unsuccessful. His assistants, also, Messrs. Donald McIntyre and C. F. Smith were untiring in their zeal, as indeed were all who worked for the party.

A very annoying mistake came out in a few copies of last night's News, which will, we are told, be made a handle of by a grit writer. In correcting the proof, the compositor made us say the battle had been "bought and won" instead "fought and won," a mistake which sny casual observer would easily recognize and smile at, but which some thick heads may attempt to convert into "a damaging confession.

themselves and to their good sense. The majority of nearly 1,000 by which Mr. Curran has been returned shows that the efforts of the agitators succeeded only in doubling the majority which he had at the previous election.

Our grit friends, moreover, are great at pretending to favor the extension of the franchise, but in giving the advice which they tendered on Monday they deliberately attempted to deprive hundreds of highly intelligent electors of their votes. But need we express surprise at that? Did they not do their best to de prive hundreds of electors in St. Thomas of their votes in the provincial election, by preventing the county judge from completing the voters' lists there in time for the election? Such is the policy of the hypocrites who pretend great anxiety to submit themselves to the verdict of the Well, that is extracting sunbeams from cucumbers. It reminds us of the boast made by a poor sportsman who after firing at a flock of birds without hitting one, as he saw them fly leisurely away, cried out, "Well if I didn't hit them, I made them get out of that." So it is with our confrere; if it has not overturned the government it has at least succeeded in making a "beginning of the end, etc." We have not the slightest doubt that in the course of time the conservative party will be beaten But the public are not alarmed at the distant prospect seeing that the present generation is likely to pass away before the advent of the second era of roup kitchens. Such a prophesy is like the calculation made by certain scientists, that in the course of some hundreds of thousands of years all the water on the face of the earth will have disappeared.
