NITRO-GLYCERINE EXPLOSION

A Farm Hand Receives Very Serious though not Fatal Injuries.

Hamilton, Feb. 24.—Yesterday afternoon a very serious accident occurred to Mr. Arthur Hunter, a young man resident on Burlington Heights.

He was working at the farm of Mr.
Char. Yakes, and while in the yard greatly shattering a wagon wheel, found that he might have a box of gunpowder in the box he was using.

He picked it up and tried to open it, but as it would not open easily he laid it against the wheel and struck the wheel with a wrench which he was using.

Immediately there was an explosion and it hit the foot of Mount Erie. The director of the Turin observatory telegraphs that the seismic instruments are now quiescent, and that no further disturbance is feared.

BREAD FAMINE.

Nice, Feb. 25.—At Mentone 250 houses were rendered uninhabitable. Several fires occurred, but they were speedily extinguished. Military guards are on duty to prevent the pillaging of wrecked houses. The Field telegraph is now working in many places. A bread famine is expected owing to the destruction of the ovens of the bakers.

General Foreign News.

London, Feb. 25.—In the house of commons, last night, Mr. Parnell moved the exemption from closure of measures increasing the stringency of the criminal law in Ireland. Sir Michael Hicks Beach declared emphatically that the government intended to entertain such a proposal.

The amendment was rejected by a vote of 264 to 155. Mr. Parnell moved to except from closure the committees on surgery. The debate was then adjourned.

THE DUKE OF ALBANY'S MEMORIAL.

Cannes, Feb. 25.—The fountain of St.

George erected at the foot of the Villa Nevea by the French residents of this town in memory of the duke of Albany, was unveiled yesterday. The prince of Wales was present. The duke de Chartres delivered an oration in which he said that the French colony was happy to offer the memorial as a pledge of sympathy to the British nation. The orator's statements were echoed by the mayor of the town in a short address. The prince will return to Cannes on Saturday.

THE EFFECTS OF THE SHOCK.

Nice, Feb. 25.—Some wells in this section have dried up as a result of the earthquake. Others have increased in volume.

A jet of hot water burst from the bed of the Pallon river.

Misa Leopold, an American, was buried in the ruins of the Villa Nevea but was recovered from the debris.

The total number of injured is 230. There were occasional tremors yesterday.
