THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

MRS. CASSE WARD, MEE'S LECTURE LAST NIGHT.

Labor Must be Appreciated by the Wealthy—How Capital Depends on the Workingman—She is an Oddfellow and a Knight Also.

Mrs. Casse Ward-Mee lectured in the city hall last evening in behalf of the knights of labor of this city.

The audience was very large. Mayor Carson occupied the chair and introduced Mrs. Mee in a few well chosen remarks.

Members of the tract of the knights of labor in this city, headed by Mr. W. Nicholson, occupied seats upon the platform.

The lecturer said that the object of the meeting was to pay tribute to the great sovereignty of the knights. The laborer and his family depend upon the workingman for their food, clothing and shelter.
