NOTICES ABOUT TOWN.

From the Mill of Permalizing Reporters—Little Bits of Local News. Sam Jones in the city hall to-night. Tomorrow will be St. Patrick's day. Captain Dix's rink is yet open for skating. "A" battery had a march out this morning.

A scheme for the celebration of the queen's jubilee is on foot. The band of "A" battery, plays on the battery square every morning. Be sure you hear the great Sam Jones in the city hall to-night.

Mrs. J. Harrington of Gt. George, died yesterday with hemorrhage of the lungs. The Kingston baseball club is about to re-organize. A meeting will be held next week. Members of Sydenham street church will act as ushers at Sam Jones' lecture to-night.

Go and hear the home rule question discussed by Rev. Father McGrath on the 17th of March. It is probable that the queen's jubilee will be celebrated on the 24th of May, June 20th and 27th.

Do not forget the assignee's sale of E. Chatterton's chattels to-morrow at 2 p.m., at Tracey's blacksmith's shop. W. Robinson, boat builder, to-day shipped two yachts to an engine builder in Carleton Place, per the C.P.R.

Seven thousand yards of new dress goods already arrived. The only place you can buy an all wool cloth for 15c. is at R. McNeil's. A member of Chalmers' church committee states that the rumor that he had agreed upon a pastor is without foundation.

For anything you want in the way of books, charts, trunks, valises, and bags, go to Lindsay's, No. 172 Princess street. A letter was received yesterday from W. Irving, city engineer. He expects to arrive home by the 1st of April.

A resident appeared before the magistrate this morning to answer to a charge of depositing ashes in a dangerous place. The Recorder says that Brockville is to have another coal yard, and that a member of the firm will be a well known Kingstonian.

The salvation army captain, Frank Forster, was taken from Oswego to Pulaski yesterday to stand trial for seduction under promise of marriage. Some new award facts at the I.C.B.U. concert on the 17th of March.

A meeting of the committee on wharves was called for this afternoon at four o'clock to consider several important matters. The forward chain which was beneath the Myles, snapped last evening about 11 o'clock, and consequently work was delayed about half a day.

We have lots of full butter at 22c, a quantity of fine butter 18c, plenty of pie peaches, 3 lb. cans for 15c, oranges and lemons 20c per doz. at James Crawford's. Be sure and see the Irish minstrel and R. Tompkins at the I.C.B.U. concert.

Fresh roll butter, fine tub butter, 18c per lb., Early Rose potatoes, dried raspberries, blackberries and peaches, oranges, and lemons 20c per doz. at Jas. Crawford's. For bargains in boots, shoes, trunks and valises, go to Lindsay's.

The I.C.B.U. concert on St. Patrick's night will be one of the finest musical entertainments of the season. The Kingston curling club have made several attempts to prevail upon a team from Belleville to come to Kingston and play a match without success. The rink is now thrown open for skaters.

For weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, consumption, night sweats and all lunging coughs, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Superior to cod liver oil, by Druggists. The season of lake navigation for 1886 was the most profitable American vessel owners have experienced in many years, showing a net profit of 30 per cent on the capital invested, and enhancing the value of vessel property thereby 10 to 15 per cent. During the year 57 vessels were lost, destroying $1,500,000 worth of property and 138 lives.

Hundreds of people weekly extol Wilson's cough balm. We really believe it to be the best cough reliever ever sold. It is truly a "long cure" and should be kept in every household. Only sold at the pharmacy. At the races in Sydenham yesterday, two drunken men who were in company with the village wanted to fight. Both started out looking for gags, when they suddenly met and at that moment they were allowed to pummel each other until both were exhausted. When they separated they presented a sorry spectacle.

Engraved. P. B. MacNamara, dry goods merchant, Brockville, Ont.—As an instant relief for cold in the head and catarrh, Nasal Balm is unequalled. The effect is noticed as soon as it is used.
