THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE

roccedings of Yesterday's Session of the Assembly.

TORONTO, March 28. The Legisla ure accomplished in two hours and a half yesterday afternoon what in other years has frequently consumed a week. All of the estimates, except three items, were passed through Committee of the Whole (Mr. Har court in the chair; and adopted by the House pefore it adjourned at 6.10, just as Mr. Conmee had concluded a rattling speech on that national and provincial obestaut, the boundary award. An hon, member having duestioned the propriety and good taster of Mr. Conmee going over once more the beaten path of the disputed territory wrangle, the Proincial Secretary, with much seriousness. the House that a boundary award speech, like a motion to adjourn, was always in order. on Private Bliff, Rollways and Public Orders. The Provincial Secretary also submitted sev-the House. Among the bills read a first time were: By Mr. Leys, to should the Act of Incorporation of the Girls House. Marter; to provid or the erection of a new court house in the City selling the city to parry out its agreement with the county real idet court houses. Dr. Widdi-field, to amond the Division Courts Act to abous ish imprisonment for debu, Mr. Gibson, Hamil-ton; to amond the game laws, Mr. Balfour. Those bills were read a third time: To amond he act incorporating the Ontario Railway Co. Mr. Mack); to impurporate the Town of Thorn bury. (Mr. Rorse); respecting certain lands mortgaged by John D. Roland to the Village of Brussels, Mr. Gibson, (Huron): to remove doubts as to the location of certain park lot-adjoining the Township of Derby and the Town of Owen Sound (Mr. Creighton). The Provincial Secretary's notices of motion of grant aid to the Belleville Hospital and the eterboro Protestant Home, under the Charity Aid Act, were passed. This resolution was introduced on March 4 and delayed until yes erday to allow the Opposition members to onuire more closely into the amounts that are ing paid by the province to these charitable would move the House into Committee to-day (Wednesday) to consider the "Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park" scheme. The House went into Committee of Supply 2.30 and passed all the estimates except thre Mr. Creighton and the Opposition had the annual fun over the gas and water accounts for Government House and the plumbing accounfor the Parliament Buildings.

The Commissioner of Public Works wa badgered about in a rather lively manner in ex laining these expenditures, and he solemnly old the House that a new functionary, bear the startling title of "The Official Plumber, with a H-year-old boy for A.D.C., has been appointed. "This new official." ommissioner explained in effect, "would co the fat and fancy sums which have beepaid to various city plumbers for patching a Mr. Oreighton was loth to believe that

The Commissioner of Public Works had never heard His Honor Governor Robinson se express himself. However, he did not know then the fence would be removed. There was considerable debate on the item of 109,500 for colonization roads, especially the $24,950 set apart for "general purposes." The Opposition are not slow to declare that this is he Government's corruption fund. Mr. Meredith made an appeal on behalf of the struggling settlers of North Bruce for a share of this expenditure; he thought about $30,000 should be spent on the roads in that

The colonization road expenditures in Mus-koka, Parry Sound and Algoma brought out Mr. Clancy: "How many lababitants are there in these three districts? Mr. Pardee: "About 70,000

Mr. Meredith: "How many does Muskoks dr. Pardee: "About 30,000." Mr. Contage (from behind): "Dawson say there are 60,000 people in Muskoka alone."

Mr. Marter (Muskoka) said the fairest way t to the townships to be expended The Minister of Education and the Attorney leneral were kept busy for half an hour exenditure, particularly the sums paid Dr. May s Provincial Commissioner to the Colonial Exhibition and the $5000 asked for to defray expenses re boundary litigation.

Then it was that Mr. Meredith and Mr. Conmee handled this interesting subject without The House adjourned at 6.10. defore adjourning Mr. Meredith asked Mr. Mowat if he were ill, that he did not want to aid: "Not at all, but I want to attend a meeting of the Revised Statutes Committee." Other nembers wanted to attend the reception at the Work in Committee.

It was expected that yesterday would be a star day in the Railway Committee meeting. but the proceedings were quite uninteresting. It was understood the Sault Ste. Marie Railway Bill would be considered, and Mr. Van Horne and other rallway magnates were on The bill was not taken up, and in the neaptime it was announced that the C.P.R. and Grand Trunk had decided to refer their ifferences regarding this road to arbitration or to settle the matter between themselves. Thus a hig railway sonsation was suddenly withdrawn from the public 22%. The bill to neorporate the International Ferry Railway

The Private Bills Committee considered sill to amend the act incorporating the Home for the Friendless at Hamilton. They also considered the bill from the city of Ottawa which provides for the negotiation of a further loan of $100,000 for waterworks purposes, Another clause of the bill provides that a consideration of the city's agreeing a keep in repair certain bridges which have een hitnerto under the control of the Dominion lovernment, the city police force will be taken over and managed by the Federal authorities. This clause will probably be pitchforked by the umlittee when it comes up again.

Foster and his family lived in a log cabin on a ranch. In a corner of the room sat a can of powder. Foster observed a mouse come up through the floor and run around the can, when he secured a small pistol and fired several times at the mouse. Finally one shot struck the can and exploded the powder. The house was almost entirely wrecked. A two year old boy was killed outright, a ten-year old girl was mortally wounded, and Mr. and Mrs. Foster were very badly wounded.
