"JESS."

UNCONDITIONAL.

NOTICE.

THOMAS MOORE.

SELLING OFF.

CLEARING SALE OF

HORSEY'S HARDWARE HOUSE,

R. M. HORSEY & CO.

OOCOANUTS,

Tomatoes, Oranges, Lemons, AT THE BAZAAR.

MUSIC.

MRS. W. L. BAXTER AND DAUGHTER May have returned to Kingston, and are pre

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Latest Success.

RUDDIGORE; or, the Witches' Curse.

Welhave the first and last of these three and expect the Piano Part in a few days.

New Novel by Clarke Russell, THE GOLDEN HOPE. Price, 20 cents.

e are still selling a great many of H. RIDER

MAGGARD'S King Solomon's Mines

Books of the Times.

"Ben Hur," by Lew Wallace. 'Ben Hur," cloth binding. Little Lord Fauntleroy, by Frances Miss Jones' Quilting, by "Josiah Allen's Life of Late Henry Ward Beecher 25 cents Peck's Sunshine ... Peck's Bad Boy .. Marjorie, by Bertha M. Clay A. Wicked Girl, by Mary Cecil Hay ...

No. 3. Ballad Poetry of Ireland

No. 4. Hours with Eminent Irishmen and a Glimpse of Irish History, by Justin McCarthy

No. 5, For the Old Land-a Tale of Adoration, Romance and Patriotism, No. 6. Charles Kickham's Most Popular Story, "Sally Cavanagh," with Poems and Sketch of the Author's BOOKSELLERS.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Harry Lindley at the opera house.

hours are: Winds shifting to north and i Just Think of It. butter, 18c. lb; roll butter, 22c. lb fresh sausages, 10c. lb. James Crawford them fresh and good at Hendry & Thomp-

A Large Collection. cathedral last evening. The collection during the day, Easter Sunday, amounted

Left for Borel. This afternoon, Masters Francis Arthur Macnee, Norman and Gordo Gunn, Francis Upper and Willie Waldron left for Sorel, Que, to attend

A New Professor.

Mary Carr, a member of the noted be re-built and enlarged. Come | Carr family which was found in destitu tion in Williamsville some years ago, was sentenced to the Mercer reformatory two years by the magistrate this morning She was charged with vagrancy.

> meeting on the market square yesterday morning the battery band made its apliberal patronage pearance on King street, playing a hymn

> > Found Dead in a Well.

An old man named James Currie, reing to draw water. Deceased was 70 years | where the Terpsichorean art was indulged Fined $10 and Costs. Two young men had a fight on Thursday evening last. One of the young men came out of the contest with a beautifu pair of black eyes. At the court this morning they were fined $10 and costs each, with the option of going to jail for one month for their fun.

Nothing to Fear. Mr. White, assistant general freight agent of the G.T.R., attended the meeting of the railway commission this morning, to take notes of, and answer, any that road. Becoming satisfied that there would be no complaints he left for the west this afternoon.

To be Consecrated Bishop. bishop by Archbishop Lynch, and Bishop | moved that Mr. Gandier's motion Bishop Carbery, of Hamilton.

Go Ep for the Plates.

At St. Paul's church yesterday the rector announced that in future those who took up the collection would require to go forward to the railing and receive plates from him. The new system was adopted immediately after the announce ment. The church decorations were very pretty, especially the seven lilies in bloom on the front and the ivy which enthroned

St. James' Church, the feast of the resurrection. The serv- they voted were roughly handled. Morine was the preacher, and his theme | Wright, but he was non 25 cents | "The resurrection" was ably treated.

The Propeller Myles.

.50 cents | harbor. As the vessel was being raised | clety's arnual conversazione, that she reeled over and sunk, and is in a much | rooms be prepared and two string bands worse position than ever. Several per- engaged. The motion was carried unani sons were on her at the time, among them | mously. A committee to assist in the de two sons of the Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, tails was then appointed and the adjournwere participated into the water and nar | ment ensued. rowly escaped with their lives." The Thus ended the liveliest meeting the 25 cents | foregoing is news indeed.

Disorderly Houses Cases. .25 cents | charged with keeping a disorderly house, | their came up at the police court this morning struggle. She pleaded not guilty. Officer Timmer-25 cents | man and John Dougherty gave evidence. Timmerman said he knew the house to be after hearing all the witnesses state that lee bright and happy. they had no complaints to make, remarked "You all seem to be satisfied regarding railway rates, at all events." The testimony, which was taken by Mr. Geo. Holland, of Holland Bros., senate Hans- | ably well with them. The secret form in the NEWS office.

All Contented.

Beautify Your Homes.

lag-A Lively Discussion on the Rule of Order Voting Inder Difficulties The Non-Dancers Win.

society again discussed dancing at the goods, the duty is to be paid to the pur conversazione. The boys whooped it up ser, provided the value of in fine style before the meeting opened, goods does not exceed $500; if and made the corsidors resound with their the baggage will minutes had been read, discussion of them | the mail clerk, when there is one, activ

Mr. W. J. Kidd took exception to the mail clerk the conductor of the train clause regarding dancing at the coming will act. Buying your tea and coffee here, there | were many present who were not mem- | interpreted liberally. If the passenger | was the first witness, and he alluded to and everywhere, when you might get bers of the society. Then crowds came does not care about having his progress the through bills of lading from Liver-Bishop Cleary preached in St. Mary's board, and prepared to record the votes dutiable articles, heretofore the only way ly if a reduction were required appli-Mr. O. Lillie, ex-principal and founder for the opposite faction. At last the list duty would be passed by had no complaints whatever to make in the Brockville business college, has was concluded, and the ruling of the presi- the train offices. been engaged by Messrs. Wood and Mc | dent was sustained by 70 to 42. Then there Kay for the next session of the Dominion | was a furore; the non-dancers and their business college to assist in the theoretical | friends cheered themselves hearse, while. over thirty, whose names had not been called, claimed vehemently their right to

MORE EXCITEMENT. Finally a semblance of order was restored, and Mr. E. H. Horsey demanded attention. He said that the motion previously passed by the society to the effect that dancing be not recognized in the pro gramme of the conversazione had been published all over the country, and it had gone abroad that Queen's university was adverse to dancing. He wished, therefore, o move that the Alma Mater society recognizes dancing as a perfectly legit motion. He said that although Dr. Grant for the past five years had been trying show that Queen's was not a presbyterian. university, those opposed to dancing siding in Admaston, a few miles from the conversat are doing their best. Renfrew, was found dead on Saturday in spread an opposite impression. These

The students in favor of dancing, though apparently in the minority, were powerful, and had the money with which city hall; but if such were done it would be damaging to the college and the society. In the interest of the college there should

Mr. Gandier moved in amendment seconded by Mr. Whiteman, that the so-ciety do not give its opinion on denoing blow on the back of the head with his could see no reason why one man should Now ciety do not give its opinion on dancing in the abstract. Mr. Horsey then with drew his motion, saying as he did so that the non dancers had packed the meetings and had not given the other students British fair play. On being called to order, Mr. Horsey withdrew this statement. All was not yet "quie" along the St. Lawrence," however, as Mr Cameron brought forward another motion: that dancing be carried on at the coming The elevation of Very Rev. T. J. Dowl- | conversazione in the same manner as at ing, of Paris, to the episcopate as bishop previous ones. Dr. W D. Neish was the of Peterboro' will take place on Monday, seconder. This motion was subsequently May 2, in St. Mary's cathedral, Hamilton, withdrawn. Mr. J. Cochrane who had Father Dowling will be consecrated voted with the majority, then arose and Walsh, of London, and Bishop Cleary, of Saturday, 3rd inst., be reconsidered on Kingston, will be present, as well as next Saturday evening. The chairman was asked for his ruling on this motion

but reserved his decision. RIVALLING DONNYBROOK FAIR. At this point an attempt was made to pass the adjournment. Excitement reigned supreme as Mr. Chown, the treasurer. made the motion. The secretary counted the hands and the motion was declared carried. Uproarious yells greeted this statement and twenty voices were heard through the din objecting to the count. Mr. H. V Lyon, in stentorian tones, proposed division, which was agreed to. The rivals closed to the different sides of the room The church was well filled yesterday at | and some who seemingly cared little how ice in the morning was commenced by were seized by excited men on both sides the choir singing the Easter hymn: and dragged this way and that until "Jesus Christ is risen to day." During the landed on the right or left. In the offertory Mrs. Birkett sang "There is a midst of the confusion, ten o'clock rang green hill far away," and in the evening out, the gas was turned off and the meet-25 cents | the choir sang very sweely: "Jesus I am | ing broke up in wild disorder. But the resting, resting." The music was hearty | dancers, nothing daunted, re-assemble .25 cents and congregational. The Rev. Mr. Mc- on the campus and called for Presider mitteeman V. Sullivan was elected chairman and the boys decided that as there had been no adjournment, whatever busi-The following appears in the Ottawa ness they transacted would be perfectly Free Press as a special despatch sent from | legal. Mr. C. J. Cameron then moved, Kingston: "An effort was made to day seconded by Mr. E. H. Horsey, that to raise the propeller Myles, sunk in the there be dancing at the Alma Mater so-

Alma Mater ever held. It is asserted that the non-dancers will make an attemp to have Mr Cameron's motion declared The adjourned case of Amelia Davis, | illegal; they will certainly not relinquis present advantage without

Easter at Odessa

The usual Easter services were held at I

A Splendid Assortment. A 1 fit guaranteed.

Pleased to Learn. abolish the troublesome and vexations exblank form, to be filled up and signed Saturday evening, when the Alma Mater | tains. Should there be any dutiable jovial songs. At 8 o'clock Mr. President to the custom house on reaching port Wright took the chair, and after the The same system will obtain on railways

conversazione; he did not think that it | Under the new system blank forms appeared on the secretary's book in the entries will be furnished to each passer form upon which it was voted. He | ger by the custom officers on the train, then moved that that portion of and the officers will give the passengers the constitution requiring a week's notice all necessary information relative to the of motion be suspended for the evening, filling up with a specification of the arbut the chairman ruled him out of order. | ticles, which, under the Canadian laws, Mr. Kidd appealed from the ruling of the are dutiable, will be sworn to and the chair and wished to put the question to duty paid, the passenger going on his way the meeting, which the president allowed rejoicing. In cases where a family trave him to do on making a motion to that together the senior member may make effect, seconded by Mr. C. J. Cameron. the required atatement, including all the After much discussion and hot words baggage in one entry. It is also provided hastily spoken and as quickly that in the case of travellers arriving in retracted on the admonition of the chair- Canada with the intention of passing man, the vote was called for. Mr. Gan through or only remaining for a dier demanded the yeas and nays, as there | limited time the regulation is to be | Mr. Muckleston, hardware merchant, | beautiful. forward to tender their admission fee, thus facilitated, the old method of search | pool, saying that the board of trade had after much bickering about what consti- ing the baggage will be adopted. The been told that neither the G.T.R. nor C. tuted a member. Mr. Poble, secretary of object the customs department has in view | P.R. controlled the rates. The steamship the society, took his stand at the black is to obviate the unpleasant search for had a say in the matter, and consequentas given. The utmost confusion reigned; of finding out what dutiable articles cation for such would have to be made the members stood up on the seats, some passengers had in their trunks or valises. at Liverpool. He quoted a case in which with hats on, some without; as the names | Another benefit which the travellers will steel had been shipped from Liverpool were called and answered, opponents derive from the new system is that, in through to London, Ont, at 23s. 6d. per angrily demanded to see the voter—the stead of having to wait for a proper ex- ton while it cost him 25s. to have crowd was so great; shouts of defiance amination, classification or appraisement same goods delivered in Kingston. rang out from every corner, and of the articles, the passenger can now thought that this difference in rates was the scene was as tumultuous as a stock bring in goods, not exceeding $500 in owing to American competition. He had exchange. The scorer was badgered and value, by means of the entry proposed. tried bringing the goods up the river worried, as each side tried to persuade | Under the old plan, only small amounts, on barges but it was unsatisfactory. The him that he was putting down too many not in excess of the amount on which $5 | railway service here was first-class, and he

TO BE HANGED.

Gogolin, the Murderer, Sentenced at Pem broke-His Awful Crime.

Gogolin, the murderer, was finished and he was sentenced to be hanged on June The murderer is a German settler and his crime is one of the most cold blooded in the history of that hitherto peaceful district. It occurred last October about 30 miles from Pembroke. Gogolin was the father of a large family. and had but recently taken up lands he back district of the Upper Ottawa, Some months after another German family arrived and rented a small caoin on Gogolin's place in which they lived nearly a year, while the new comer was clearing a piece of bash land, and erecting a dwelling for himself and family. Gogolir had several times quarrelled with his tenant and ordered them to leave the shanty. It appears they were unable do so, and frequent bickerings were the Finally one morning Gogolir the door upon his murdered victim and from sending goods to that country. their burning prison and dragged the

WILLIAMSVILLE CHURCH.

at Palmer's rapids in October last.

Anniversary Services Yesterday-Sermons by Rev. T. G. Williams.

Anniversary services were held in the Fifth methodist church yesterday. The Rev. T. G. Williams, of Pembroke, preached both morning and evening. the evening he took for his text the sixteenth and seventeenth verses of the thirty-second chapter of Numbers. The rev. gentleman delivered an instructive mon on "Moses and the children of Ruth and Gad." In speaking of the pible, he said that there is nothing the inspired book but has a use. every text there is some great principle of life, and in these texts there are great fluences. Speaking of duty, Mr. W iams said that there is no Christian which man is called upon to perform that would prove an injury to the country Leave your families and attend to it." stor. Mr. Williams made a few remarks reprotect himself from temptation was a plaints were made by his customers. moral coward. No man can live unto himchildren of the Sunday school.

Committed for Trial. that Mrs. Davis was proprietress. above the average, which is good at all morning with wilfully defrauding one would be placed on an equality. dismissed. It is expected that the cases is risen," in red and blue letters. On will come on again on Thursday.

It is expected that the cases is risen," in red and blue letters. On the altar were arranged several vases of paying for the animal, found that it was In winter the railway rates were even bedien the formula of the formula flowers. The effect was very handsome what is known among horsemen as a higher. and much admired. The Easter anthem, "roarer." Wolfe pleaded not guilty, and Mr. Morgan Shaw, druggist, alluded the benedictus, and the hymns, as sung elected to be tried by a jury at the pre- through bills from England, and stated were in favor of the appointment by the by the choir, were nicely done. The sent assizes. Witnesses were examined, that the rate was less to London. sermon brought out many excellent including Dr. Sine, veterinary surgeon. than to Kingston. American government of a permanent board of com- points in the story of the resurrection. He said that the animal was unsound and caused this result. The rates, he under missioners to regulate and fix railway In the afternoon a litary service was unfit for heavy work such as a carter stood, were made in England. This d held and an address given to the chil. would require. Wolfe was comitted for crimination prevented his firm from exwould satisfactorily regulate the dren of the Sunday school. Altogether trial, and admitted to bail in two sureties tending their business. The railway freight rates. Mr. Burpee, chairman, the day was a beautiful one and the serv- of $100 each and his own bond for $200. freights here were satisfactory to him.

Free Grant Lands.

During the past year, James Reeves, 34 patents issued. John Whalen, agent at Brudenell, 66 persons on 8,364 acres. and the host of painful affections, internal battalion, Brockville rifles. Lieut. H. Just received from the mill, rolled He cancelled 39 grants and issued 28 or external, arising from inflammatory Jackson, of No. 3 company, has been seeds and we guarantee that in no other wheat, rolled oats, gold dust meal, granu- patents. J. D. Kernedy, agent at Pem- sction. A 10 cent sample bottle of Nerviting at the City drug store. H. H. Second Lieut. Geo. H. Funnell Sausages, 10c. per lb. Thos. H. Johns, Second Lieut. Geo. H. Funnell Nerviline. Large bottles 25 cents; trial becomes first lieutenant, and John Kee is 1 15 patents issued chamber this morning at ten o'clock.

Testified-The Hauling of Cotton.

There was a large attendance of prominent citizens. Mr. E. R. Burpee, who pleased to sit at Kingston, after which | Savage, the painter, is doing the work ing the meeting, which appeared in the Trumpeter Lamothe's thigh on Saturday Kingston papers. Mr. J. S. Muckles He alluded to the building of the K. & the Port Hope public schools was lost onand to the proposal to extend the a tie vote. Napanee & Tamworth road, and then It is expected that the Pierrepont will railway companies, who would no doubt to day. It was unsafe to attempt to cross take advantage of the information given to Barriefield. and rectify anything that required to be made right. He closed his remarks by treal conference will meet in Kingston on a hearty welcome to the THE FIRST WITNESS.

that connection. He thought Kingston paid heavier freights than her geographi cal position warranted. He did not know were treated alike. As the railways were | mates. built by the money of the country in gentreal" or "all Toronte," but different and roll butter, 22c. James Crawford. places should be liberally treated. Railways should give special rates in cases in which the Americans competed. thought that a dozen cars should be ship- granted. ped at a lower rate than one, but he could not say that such a system would be of benefit to the country. He did not think it would be advisable for the government to appoint a permanent board of commissioners, as the boards of trade generally dealt with the matter of freights. If there were no boards present. He would be afraid, if a per- | field, this evening. A good programme nament board were appointed, politics | has been prepared for the occasion. might creep into it, and then its usefulness would be gone. If permanent commissioners could be appointed as the judges are, they might do good. MOST SARISFACTORY.

uarrel. The settler was away from satisfactory and that the railway service cans for 25c. Jas. Crawford. home at the time and just as his wife | was all that could be desired. He had no came out of the house, Gogolin struck special rates. Regarding a large shipper of Southern Asthma Cure, is a common club, dashing her brains out. He then | have an advantage over another, but he dragged the still quivering body of the | thought that long distance rates should woman into her cabin and heedless of the | be lower than short. The recent increase piteous wails of the affrighted children, In frieght from $1 06 per cwt. to British threw her on the floor; then, after closing! Columbia to $2 80, almost prohibits him her screaming children, set fire to the had not heard that a reduction had been shanty. The murderer's wife and family | made to $1 45. The cause of the advance. were mute spectators of the crime, not he heard, was owing to an increase being daring to interfere. Having washed him | made on an American road. He would self, Gogolin made for the woods. As not favor the appointment of a permanent soon as the murderer had departed his | board of commissioners, as the present wife released the screaming children from | competition was sufficient to regulate rates. Mr. Allan Chadwick, of Rathbun & have examined them as the best value corpse beyond reach of the fire which | Co, said he considered the winter rates | the city at R. McFaul's. soon reduced the cabin to ashes. The were altogether too high. They should > pointment of a permanent board of com- ing, City hall ... Captain Crawford, coal and wood merchant, said, generally, he had no fault find with K. & P. railway freights. One so much per ton, while dry soft wood was brought in by bulk. There were 8 or 85 cords of soft wood on a car, and 5 to 6 of hard word. Wood should be brought either by bulk or by weight-one thing the other. But for this discrimination would have no complaint to make.

permanent board of trade, he thought Mr. G.E. Sabre, hay dealer, said he shipped by railroad wholly, and that he had no complaints regarding rates. When the Boston market dropped the railways afternoon. generally met him with a lower rate of freight. They had to do so, or he would have to take the amount out of the farmers, and that was a pretty hard thing Semetimes he took a dollar out the farmers and a dellar out of the roads sometimes engage in public duties, when their attention should be turned towards their families. A man's country does not their families. A man's country does not their families. A man's country does not the country does not does not the country does not does n demand any duty of him, which says: ances than through a permanent commis- church last evening. The lessons were

Mr. Geo. S. Fenwick said he was garding moral cowards. He said that the satisfied with freight rates, which were a good impression on the congregation of man who went to a cave or monastery to regulated by competion. Very few com- Chalmers' church yesterday. Mr. Jas. Richardson, grain dealer, said after an absence of two weeks in Troy, self. He called upon the congregation he got special rates on the railways, and returned to the city this aftermoon. never to think of hiding themselves from | that he gave all he could for grain. like men," said the preacher. In the af- | the farmers higher prices. He presumed ternuon Rev. Mr. Sparling addressed the that other dealers got special rates also. He did not think, because he shippe large quantities, he should have lower lillness caused considerable apprehension rates than small shippers. When grain on the part of his friends, is now in a was taken out of the country it should be fair way to recovery Zachariah Wolfe, of Amherst island, carried long distances at as low rates as .. 25 cents a bad place, but he did not know for sure Odessa yesterday, the attendance being was charged at the police court this short, because farmers all over the country Dougherty said the house was rented by times. Great pains had been taken with Patrick Lawless out of $65 Lawless had would not approve of a fixed tariff He Mitchell, returned to Kingston on Friday Ford's National Library. Mrs. Staley from him. The cases of Mrs. the decorations. They consisted of a purchased a horse from Wolfe, which the next spoke of the cotton mill produce, last. Davis for keeping a disorderly house, and large cross of flowers suspended over the latter claimed was a good sound animal, saying that it oost 23c. to send goods to On Rev. Father McCarthy's return to Mrs. Staley for being a frequenter, were altar, over which was the text: "Christ and capable of drawing a cord of wood Toronto by rail, and by water, 12; to Brockville from Kingston on Thursday.

The board then adjourned.

of remedies known, Nerviline cannot fail to

The K. & P. train was four hours late

The small boy is now in his glory play-Be sure and secure your seat, for Will The Brightest,

The royal commission sat in the council Get your new hat for Easter at Page's, various Anglican churches to-night. Dr. Sullivan extracted the bullet from The hen that lays the fresh egg has

The motion to expel the Ross bible from that the evidence printed make an attempt to reach the island on plied valuable information to even the The ice was in a very bad condition the 25th of May. On the 20th instant the license com missioners decide who will have liquor licenses during 1887-88. imported Irish setter worth $100. The animal died of mange. On Good Friday morning the drug store of L. W. Yeomans & Co., Belleville, was destroyed by fire.

He | May, three days later than last year D. Millan, purchased a three-year-old heifer from Jas. Norris, of Howe island, on Thursday weighing 800 lbs. dressed.

The prop. Myles will not be raised any higher by means of chains. Three pumps will be set at work on board to morrow. The salvation quintette club gave an entertainment at the asylum on Saturday of any individual getting special rates; all afternoon which highly delighted the in-

Struck it at last, said the weary woman eral, they should not discriminate against | as she cast her eye over our roll bacon at i asked the school board to have all this He week as holidays, and their request was

Geo. Bonnie, who was injured at Mc-Ewen & Son's foundry on Thursday, stil very low. His back and arm were seriously hurt. The case of an hotelkeeper, charged with disposing of liquor within prohibited hours, was adjourned at the court this management of the railways as it is at entertainment in the town hall, Barrie

> "A Basebawler" writes to the Ottawa Free Press suggesting the formation of a baseball league between the cities of Montreal, Ottawa, Kemptville, Brockville and

Of a sound mind, is the person who takes advantage of this offer. Roll bacon with a stout stick went back to renew the of freight on the Iron he received were 10c. lb; sugar corn, 15c.; and salmon, 2 Asthma cured by the double treatment

> Nowhere---We say nowhere will you find evaporated raspoerries, blackberries, cherries, peaches, California plums, apri cots and rie peaches, but at James Craw-James Cummings the G. T. switchman while attempting to save the life of a little child, died on Friday. He was buried by the knights of labor. All the new shades of grey, old gold and heliotrope and biscuit brown in wool dress goods acknowledged by those who

of Belleville, who was struck by a train

Will Carleton lectured and recited his murderer gave himself up a couple of days | be as near the summer rates as possible. | poems to immense audiences in England afterwards, confessed his guilt and calmly | Long distance rates should be lower than | a few years ago. In May he goes again awaited the inevitable punishment of his | short, to afford a means of getting rid of | to Britain on an extended lecturing tour. awful crime. The murder was committed surplus stock. He did not favor the ap- Be sure to hear him on Wednesday even-

> The Lindley dramatic company arrived in the city this morning, and will open a week's engagement in the opera house toseme time. He promises an enjoyable evening to all who may attend.

Catarrh, when chronic, becomes very offensive. It is impossible to be otherwise healthy, and, at the same time, afflicted with catarrh. This disagreable day accounts. disease, in its most obstinate and dangerous forms, can be cured by the use o Ayer's sarsaparilla.

Personal Paragraphs.

Geo. F. Henderson left for Ottawa this Jas. Bermingham, late of Kingston, but now of Montreal, is in the city. D. I. K. McKinnon, barrister of Belleville, died on Saturday morning at the age Henry McGuire, marble cutter left for read by Mr. Geo. Creeggan. Rev. Mr. Hunter, of Orangeville, made

Michael Walsh of the knitting mill, Rev. Mr. Houston leaves for Ireland them Special railway rates enabled him to give next month. He will take a spin through England and Scotland before returning Rev. G. J. Low, of Brockville whose

> Joseph A. Newman, who has been in charge of Murray & Taylor's branch store He in Renfrew, during the illness of Mr > > ladies of his former congregation there. Mr. Maberly, a member of the royal commission. was formerly a lieutenant in the second administrative battalion of which Chief Horsey was sergt. major in attending the dental department of the university of Maryland during the winter. 4,908 acres of free grant lands. At his posed of the most powerful pain subduing the western states, where he purposes

gia, cramps, pain in the back and side, has been appointed adjutant of the 41st POTTINGS ABOUT TOWN. SPRING ARRIVALS First From the Mill of Perambulating ReDorters—Little Bits of Local News. SPRING ARRIVALS The assizes opened this afternoon at Actual Bargains!

The Largest, The Handsomest, The Finest, The Cheapest pleased to sit at Kingston, after which Savage, the painter, is doing the work Secretary Lonergan read the board's on the steamers Maud and Pierrepont. SPRING STOCK OF DRY GOODS IN TOWN.

ton, in behalf of the board of trade, said been captured by Hendry & Thompson. that owing to Kingston's situation it was O. F. Telgmann has a pupil at Brock-

When you need anything in Seasonable, Reasonable, Fashionable

Dress Goods, Jacketings, Tweeds, Prints, Ginghams AND HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Bread made from that flour which Minnes and Burns', The Reliable and Close Priced Dry Goods House.

Hinds Bros. on Thursday last lost an Millinery Opening!

The water will not be let into the Lachine canal this year before the 5th of May three days later than last year

To-Morrow, Wednesday, Thursday, April 12,13,14.

cents per yard.

We show to-day a job lot of All Silk Surahs in eight colorings, at 50 cents per yard. These Goods are worth 80 cts to 90 cents per yard, and will make a Handsome, Durable, Spicy Dress.

TRIMMINGS TO MATCH ALL DRESS GOODS AND CLOAKINGS

HARDYS One Price Store, 88 Princess st., two doors below Wellington.

MCMAHON

Large Lot of Embroideries and Dress Goods ON TUESDAY, 12TH APRIL.

Something new-Pique Embroideries in Edgings, Insertions and All-Overs. Also, a choice lot of Hamburg and Swiss Embroideries. Call and examine them.

A: J. McMAHON.

LACE CURTAINS. Richmond, Orr & Co.

point, however, he wished to state, was pany is the best that Harry has had in that the green hard wood was brought at the green hard wood was brought at the pany is the best that Harry has had in the green hard wood was brought at the promises an enjoyable 400. FOUR HUNDRED PAIRS 400.

Of Cream Lace Curtains direct from the manufacturer. Also, a splendid range of Madras. Chenille, Tapestry and Crete Curtains. An inspection of these goods will repay intending purchasers. N.B.—Five per cent. off all cash purchases and thirty

THE GRAND UNION CLOTHING CO.

ANOTHER SWEEPING REDUCTION MADE ON ALL GOODS.

Men's Tweed Suits for $3.75, Youth's Tweed Suits for $3, Children's Tweed Suits for $1.50. A good all wool Tweed Pants for $1.25. All Collars for 15 cents. In fact, everything must go, Call and see us, Remember the Place: Rockwell's Old Stand, 122 Princess street.

Long Waist-Beauty, Venus, Broadway, Jowel, Granda, Lucy. Short Waist-Iona, Hodice, Lotta.

B. DORAN & CO., The Big Millinery Room, 126 Princess street.

REMEMBER THE GRAND MILLINERY OPENING Mr. Maberly had not met in twenty-one

Robertson is well known in the city, having been in the office of Dr. Sparks for Spence & Crumley's TO MORROW!

SPENCE & CRUMLEY,

132 and 134 Princess street.

Opposite the City Hotel,

RICHMOND, ORR & CO.