Axminster, Brussels and Tapestry Carpets,

AUCTION SALE

Bar Fixtures, Brunswick & Balke Pool | 15c. a dozen. James Crawford.

and Combination Tables, etc.

to sell at the Brunswick Hotel on May

Sale of household furniture, etc., on May 2nd, and bar and billiard room on May 3rd. Sale each day, at 10:30 o'clock sharp. Terms J. E. HUTCHESON.

Albert street, and south side of Earl Court. These lots have a frontage on Earl 921; Lot No. 6, comprising Lot 925; Lot No. 7. letter from the manager of the Pastimes, comprising Lot 926; 66 x 165 feet, being one of Ogdensburg, who are willing to play in quarter of an acre, more or less. All on plan drawn by D. Williams, P.L.S. The land is well the city on that day, situated, lies high, and is drained by corporation drains on Earland Albert streets. Shade The street cars run with a hundr Title perfect. Sale at 12 o'clock sharp made known at time of sale.

J. E. HUTCHESON.

NEW AUCTION ROOMS, City Buildings, Market Square, Lingston. MESSRS, DAVY & MARTIN have opened commission business. Goods solicited for sale on commission. All sales carefully attended to and returns promptly made. Sales attended in Frontenac, Lennox, and Addington. R. MARTIN, Residence 24 Sydenham-St.

REWARD.

REWARD of Ten Dollars will be paid n the public streets and highways.

UNITED STATES MAIL.

will close at this office at 2:40 p.m. JAMES SHANNON.

WILSON BARRETT | fund, to give again, and give increased

The Tragedy of Chatterton,

Woather Observations.

Lingston Baily Mews.

Don't Forget! Jubilee singers in city hall Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26th and 27th. advertisement on 1st page. Their Room is Worth More than Company.

FURNITURE | That is why we are selling those very | 1871-72 | fine California hame at 10s. and those fine | 1873-74 | That is why we are selling those very rolls of bacon at 10c a pound. Fresh eggs Purchased the Cattle.

Mr. Robert Atchinson, an enterprising farmer of the township of Bedford, has | 1881-82 . purchased from Mr. B. W. Feiger two Holestein cattle paying for them the aum

He Was Assaulted. Frank Bissonette, formerly of Kingston, but now-of Brockville, was assault

Go to the Pautry Grocery. For fresh butter 18c. per lb., tresh eggs 124c, per dozen, cut loaf sugar 8c. per 1b., fine potatoes, oranges and lemons 25: per dozen, choice prunes 5c. per lb., 13 bars of soap 25c.

A Very Bad Son.

Mrs. Daly, mother of Hiram Daly, re-VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS. ported to the police this morning that her he fiercely attacked her and put her out HAVE received instructions to sell at the on the street. Hiram will be requested Mart on WEDNESDAY, May 4th, the following valuable building lots, situated on the east to answer for his conduct at the police

A Good Game Expected. It is expected that on the 24th of May the citizens will have an opportunity seeing a good game of baseball. sixth of an acre, more or less. Lot No. 4, secretary of the Park nine has received a Thieves at Work.

The Conversat. The annual conversazione of the Alma Mater society of Queen's college will be hold this evening. It is said that a division has taken place between the arts and president on Saturday stated that only $2 had been collected from medical students towards the conversat.

Scott Act Cases. brook, charge dismissed; J. Laidley, Collinsby, decision reserved.

At convocation hall, on Sunday after | now, not only 'Faint heart never won fair lady."

POST OFFICE NOTICE. K. Row, who also acted as critic. Mr. be a crisis, when the table I have sub given by Mr. How and Miss Chown | the discussion of the university question congregation within a few days.

Who are Depended on.

AFTERNOON

accordingly it is my duty now to present | we have a right to expect that some at. R V. Rogers, Senator Sullivan,

"One blast upon his bugle hown ... Is worth a thousand men-."

In 1877, the future of Queen's was as- subscribe to the jubilee fund should be sured, although its revenue was small and | inscribed on a shield of appropriate design its buildings mean and utterly inadequate set in the wall of convocation hall. to actual necessities. I shall never for- These proposals will be submitted t get the enthusiasm with which I was the board of trustees to night and arrange greeted on my arrival at the close of that | ments have been made for a general year, the warm greetings from east and conference to be held to-morrow at west, the hopes that brightened every a.m. in convocation hall, when definite face, and the pledges of support that the and authoritative action of some kind sons of Queen's, in particular, volunteered must be taken. on behalf of their beloved Alma Mater. Look at the second half of the table and too, for the purpose of assuring the $1 50 in American money and four bottles that will be needed in the next thousand Such spontaneous and hearty action

the colonial committee of the church Alfred Brown, justices of the peace, tried | would have regretted the loss of the pro | educational resources of the country. several Scott act cases at Barriefield. The vincial grant had I been here at the time. will complete our equipment along al grant had been given was utterly vicious and | the permanence of the oldest university cost; Jas. Lee, Murvale, found guilty and | continued dependence on a church in Ontario, -Laus Deo ! fined $50 and costs; A. Snider, Verona, mother country was out of the question. The principal closed with words decision reserved; G. W. Ashley, West- Canada is quite able to do her own eccle- greeting to the graduates, of whom a sooner we understand that dependence country were present, and to the students of any kind is loss and not gain, the who filled the gallery.

better for us as a people. We stand noon, when the preacher, Prof. Ross, rock but in our own boote, and we never began the words "Faint heart never were in such a position for doing the Mr. G. M. Macdennell Makes a Most Satis won-" young ladies smiled, but when country the service it most needs, and he concluded with, "the great prizes of without which it would be classed this world," the students gave the young | with Siberia and Patagonia. I be adies triumphant looks, and a slight buzz | lieve that Canada is just beginning passed over the audience. Evidently the awake, and that the next decade will beladies expected to hear the quotation: Lold a quickening of life and a wealth of Those present were: Messrs. G. M.

wards be counted from it rather than The teachers of the city held their re- from the year of political confederation. We have been told of a crisis in the last evening. The chair was filled by Mr. | history of the university. How can there Balmer gave a series of extracts from mitted shows steady progress, and proves Vocal music was supplied by the glee with which we have been harassed for four club assisted by Mrs. Chapman and Miss or five years, is over, and that the time has for $10,000. It is gratifying to friend come to prove whether we can hold the position we took up and can fill the gap that has been made by the removal west

MISS KASTLAKE and the Lon- amounts. The firm of Carruthers & Co. douce" of Ontario. We are the natural Three Complete Plays in One Evening. 3. to come forward with increased sums also. which, just because it is intelligent yet the City of Kingston Water Works Company "police" and "murder," and Officer Meo'clock p.m., for the garry heard the cry. When he arrived, to spend a quarter of a million of dollars. election of a committee on the 18th of was proven and the prisoner fined $20 protest against being robbed, but when benzie. and coats, with the option of going to our graduates and old benefactors everyfavor of absorption came from Toronto k with a choice and varied assort state of affairs. Printed statements will But, if it benefits any university, it is so Mrs. L. B. Spencer, Mrs. Waldron, Tweeds and Worsted Coatings, be sent around to the members of the far good. Whether it will do so or not is, Robertson, Miss Spangenberg,

St. Paul's adjourned vestry meeting To split up university college into two reconsider the scheme of heating the church was carried. Last fall it was decided to heat the church by steam. This the provincial university must have a restricted to constant at the church by steam. This the provincial university must have a restricted to constant at the church by steam. This the provincial university must have a restricted to constant at the church by steam. This the provincial university must have a restricted to constant at the church by steam. This the provincial university must have a restricted to constant at the church by steam. This character is not the way to ensure the church shows and have been trained and equipped for the search of its division will come to the city at an early shows a constant at the church by steam. This constant at the church by steam. This is the constant at the church by steam to come to the city at an early shows a constant at the church by steam. This is the constant at the church by steam to come to the city at an early shows a constant at the church by steam. This is the constant at the church by steam to constant at the church by steam to constant at the church by steam. This is the constant at the church by steam to constant at the church church by steam to constant at the church church at the church church by steam to constant at the church chur portrait, delivered the following inter- Queen's university to staff and students. day afternoon when the university council They will meet some who consider them to you the customary review of the year. | tention will be given to this matter. At this important crisis in the history of | We, however, cannot afford to delay. | R. W. Shannon, M. A., John the university, you will bear with me if I Therefore the university council, after M.D. J.S. Muckleston, B.A. A.P. Knig ditional science hall, and to meet loss of James Carmichael, Strange; Rev. income owing to the lapse of our five McLaren, B. D., Brampton; Dr. K. Fer years list of subscription and the steadily | wick, Kingston; R. A Scott

CONVOCATION

$ 34,507 | the jubilee of the Queen and of the uni ster, Brockville; Dr. Preston, M. 78,978 | versity; inasmuch as the movement to es- Newboro'; Dr. McTavish, Lindsay; 92,399 tablish Queen's commenced in 1837, Gibson, Belleville; Rev. M. McGillivray 105,824 though the first money was not collected Perth, Judge Fralick, Belleville; 114.815 for it till 1839. (2) That it should con- Kincaid, Peterboro'; Jas. Burgess, M.A. 118,207 sist of 500 shares of $500 each, and that Sydenham, and H. Rathbun, Deseront 117.388 a subscriber should be responsible for the The council has power to discuss share or shares taken by him, not sooner questions relating to the college and its manly life. We must be manly not only 153,440 than December, 1888, but not at all un welfare, to make representations of its on occasions of display, but always. True 152,147 less the whole 500 are taken; and that views to the senate or the board of trus-175,178 from that time he should be responsible tees, to decide on proposals for affiliation for the interest, until he pays the capital and to arrange all matters pertaining t 211,156 Thus, the subscriber for a share would the installation of the chancellor, its own 214,294 have to pay $30 of interest on or before meetings and business, the meetings and 1st December, 1888, unless he had paid proceedings of convocation, and the fees his $500, and so on from year to year— for membership, registration and voting. Kingston. This table is significant. Ten years interest being paid on the amount of At the meeting yesterday Mr. A. B. on Saturday evening in Brockville by a lafter the withdrawal of the provincial capital unpaid (3) That a certain McCallum and Dr. K. N. Fenwick were grant, the revenue, it will be seen, was number of the shares should be divided elected to fill the places of Rev. W. A. represented by Mr. M James, of Centrelittle more than it had been in 1867-8. | into fifths, each representing stock in Lang, and Mr. George Gillies. Mr. A. | ville, who, after craving the indulgence of But, the small interest bearing capital had the jubilee fund and the university to the P. Knight, principal of the Kingston col- his hearers, and making preliminary rebeen more than trebled, and universal amount of $100 or $6 a year. (4) That legiste institute, was chosen represental marks, alluded to medicals being called confidence had taken the place of despair a number of persons or a congregation tive of the council on the board of medical midnight marauders, ghouls, bone-pick. in the hearts of some, and the doubts that may become responsible for a share or studies. were everywhere expressed, except when shares. (5) That contributors to the The council sanctioned the proposal to was no doubt the human intellect was en-McKerras and a few like him were pre- jubilee fund should be en officie members raise an endowment of a quarter of a nobled by the discipline obtained in the another all but impure dross Given the | scriptions as the by-law of 1869 and 1878 hero in an institution, a community, a on the subject secured. (6) That the name of a benefactor who becomes reaponsible for any one of the objects spec fied above should be connected with it I

In the meantime, the people of Kings

consider what has been done in the last university authorities that they can be This morning about three o'clock, some ten years. The figures do not tell one half depended on to do their share of the person or persons forced an entrance into of the story. To understand it aright, work, have appointed a representative the store of Wm. Pipe on Princess street, one should see our beautiful campus, committee to raise from fifty to seventy Rev. Mr. Laidlaw of Hamilton, who yet become convalescent an carried away $3 in English shillings, large enough now for all the buildings thousand dollars of the proposed sum. of ale. Evidently the theft is the work years, should share in the life of the uni titles them to grateful acknowledgments. Versity, note how its work is differ All that is excellent in the community is entiating year by year, feel the pulse of | behind the committee and success is certhe students, talk with the honor men, tain. This and the fact that I am daily appreciate the aims and the devotion of in receipt of letters from Montreal, To the professors, and inquire how it is pos- ronto, Ottawa, Renfrew, and elsewhere, sible to effect so much with means so assuring me of a willingness to co-operate scenty. The expansion has taken place, in the proposed effort, has filled me with notwithstanding heavy expenditures for feelings too deep for words. No other new buildings, the best of their kind in educational institution in Canada will be Canada, a reduction in the grant from the poorer for this quarter of a million the temporalities fund, and the with given to Queen's university. The money drawal of the large grant so long given by | will not be used to start a new university. of the necessity for the existence of which is Scotland. I did not regret the with loudly disputed even in the house of its Yesterday Messrs. H. A. Calvin and drawal of that grant any more than I friends. It will be so much added to the

The principle on which the provincial the main lines of study and will ensure siastical and educational work, and the large number from various parts of the factory Report-A $10,000 Donation.

The Queen's endowment committee met at eight o'clock last evening to hear the report of the sub-committees regard-Ing their canvass among the citizens. intellectual and spiritual production so Macdonnell, R. V. Rogers, Jas. Minnes, memorable that our birthday shall after R. M. Horsey, J. H Hendry, J. B. Carruthers, the Rev. Dr. Jackson and Dr.

Ruskin, Lowell, Carlyle and McGlynn that the roots of Queen's must be living Saturday by first interviewing Mr. John on the "Social problem." Readings were and multiplying? What is meant is that Carruthers, who has always been a most liberal friend and supporter of Queen's.

don Princess Theatre Company, presenting the had given $5,000 years ago. He depended centre of a country larger than many a be well to wait to see if any $5,000 grants the best seen in Kingston. The majority Assist, treasurer-Mrs. Waddell. Cor. Sec'y. - Miss Penner.

But, the legislative gate is narrow, and met. The council consists of the chanobliged to make this "Speech day," and | that the university bill is out of the way, | The elective members are John A. Mudi love and peace. Endowed with lofty hope they feel assured the truth, will be begin by giving a bird's eye view of the full consideration, has come to the con- M. A. and Wm. Anglin, M. D. of Kingprogress of Queen's for the past twenty | clusion that a quarter of a million dollars | ston; J. J. Bell, of Brockville; Rev Jas. must be raised to endow chairs, lecture- Cumberland, Stella; Rev. G M. Milligan ships, and tutorships, to build an ad Toronto; P. C. McGregor, Almonte; Rev. It is also proposed. (1) That this en Killop, Pembroke; Rev. J. C. Smith downment should be known as the jubilee | Guelph; Rev. R. Campbell, D. So., Rep

briefly scanned the missionary work of

preach could obey the order by sending | botany before entering the college the out missionaries. During his address he student would be greatly benefitted. alluded to his having met the chairman | the matriculation were raised to third year seven years ago, when he intended to in arts or equal to first-class teachers' study medicine in McGill. He spoke to certificates the burden of the medical ages that Queen's afforded, and the result | better prepared for immediate advance was he was one of the foremost in the in | ment in practical work The usefulness stitution, and was about to go to China of the hospital, with Drs Dupuis and as a missionary. He closed by giving him | Irwin as professors of clinical surgery and good advice. The next speaker was Rav. John Hay, approve of its poor supply of medicines,

Campbeliford, who made a brief but lack of surgical instruments and the poor pointed address. He pointed out that at | quality of those it possesses, the uncleanformer convocations the thoughts of the liness of some of the rooms in the base students were about themselves, but now | memt, the untidy and apparently unclean that missionary conventions had been hospital dress of the patients, the lack of a begun, the thoughts of those present were | waiting room for the students, and the il'the first convention would be sympathy, At this important crisis, when it is claim purses and prayer.

A. H. Scott, of Owen Sound, followed | thorough medical training cannot be rein eloquent remarks, sympathizing with that God would bless Queen's graduates the institution and then make an appeal in foreign fields. Judge Macdonald, on for some one to follow the example of Sir being called from the audience, remarked | Donald A. Smith, and donate a few thou-with reciting an appropriate poem. The last speaker was the Rev. H. Parsons, of Toronto, who delivered a most able and elequent address, which held the close attention of his audience fully an hour. He dwelt principally wit the baptismal power of the Holy Ghost, showing that it was necessary to have it before any great good could be accomlished in the mission field. He also explained that that power could be secured missionaries through prayer by the cople, and that any person in this country could be a factor of great results Y.M.C.A. would receive the baptism in which was a collection of pictures. of the pictures were in water colors, and held a concert in McLaren's hall, Wolfe the valedictories will be found below:-

There is so much work to be done at | it may not be possible to drive two mea. cellor, the trustees, the members of the they are responsible only for the harm to-morrow's convocation that we are sures through it at the same time. Now senate, and thirty three elective members. done to themselves, and others who say they are responsible for nothing. This unfits menfor the gospel; yet it is to these

> The graduates will also meet social and commercial difficulties. The present an age of great excitement; wealth and pleasure reem to rule. Under the influence of these secondary causes, the great first cause seems to have been for gotten. This spirit seems even to be creeping into the church. To tals class they must reveal the first cause.

that they have to deliver the message

Yet there is in men the faculty that will certainly respond to the truth of the Father. "Our greatest fear is that we may not show that the truth is prerely on success; manly and noble must character is the product of the trivial acts of every day life. It is this character

THE MEDICALS FAREWELL Tae graduating class in medicine was

ers or body snatchers, and said that there not taken a short course, that of 1887 The audience which assembled at the would be the la gest graduating class in missionary convention in convocation hall medicine in the history of the college. He last night was much larger than was ex- strongly denounced the three years pected, every seat being filled. Shortly | course; and, after saying that these were after eight o'clock Mr. J. Smith, presi- the graduates' happiest days, he gave; dent of the college Y. M. C. A., took the | "John" credit for seeing that no student chair and after a hymn had been sung and | had anything on his finger nails that would the Rev. Mr. Houston had offered prayer, contaminate the examinations, even if the chairman extended a welcome to all some of them did go under their vests present, and then introduced Rev. George | now and again. During the past year McArthur, of Cardinal, a recent graduate, the Royal was fully equipped and who reviewed the steedy progress of the now aff-rded superior facilities to any college Y. M. C. A., notwithstanding the other medical school in Canada. The difficulties it had to encounter. He wished system of training nurses is appreciated their coneme of sending missionaries to by the students of the Royal, who return foreign lands every success and hoped God | thanks. To the trained nurses is due a would bless it, and to the graduates in great deal of the success of the hospital, theology he gave the advice that his little | in which many sick students have been girl gave to him:- "Study and mind treated and have speedily recovered, likeyour preaching." He was followed by wise many well students who have not

Mr. James next urged that the matricumedicine, will be increased. but all dised by members of parliament, that a ceived here, an effort should be made to put the hospital on a better footing. -Let the governors make known the wants of is pointed out that more than one life has hung upon such a weak straw, it can be perceived that a change is badly needed. If it had one good knife, one whole pair of scissors, one probe, one unrusted needle or one pair of scales that d not need doctoring, it might be said his statements were unjust. He hoped improvements would be made, and that an attending student would not be com the house surgeon's room for two or three consecutive nights, with a stick of firewood for his pillow, his overcost for a blanket, and the growling of the weary bidding good-bye to the citizens and pro-

CONCERT AT WOLFE ISLAND. A Sail Over and Back on the Chieftain-The Programme Rendered.

The members of Harmony division No.

the best possible education more than a them that they would be called on by the bition was a success and very much The steamer Chieftain belonging to Calvin One Price Store, 88 Princess st., two doors below Wellington. canvassing committee, and to prosecute appreciated. The missionary convention & Co, was kindly placed at the disposal court this morning the charge of assault home, Not ouly did Eastern Ontario Fraser, Mrs. Strau- students, and to hear Dr. Grant's address. | dislogue, "Appearances very deceitful," The principal occupied the chair, and six characters; song, "The man behind and Miss Dugdale; dialogue, "The The class in divinity was represented | vassing agent, . five character; quartette has become acquainted with some of the Holmes; recitation, "Paddy's sea voyage." BENEFIT OF MY PURCHASE. think some of thethoughts of God. Ignor- | dude," F. H. Ferguson; solo, "The lightance, which is the curse of tood, has been house light," Miss Dugdale; dialogue, part islly displaced by knowledge the wings "Too greedy by half," three characters;

elegant line of Dress Goods at 15 cents. Call and see them. E Goods shown which attended the ceremonies connected with the opening of the new buildings. Since then they have seen the remarkable C. Livingston&Bro's ANNOUNCEMENT

We take pleasure in announcing the completion of our Spring and Summer Stock, which consists of the very latest designs of Imported Fabrics. We would state that for variet, style and finish we lare in this season's selections far excelled any previous efforts.

Our Ordered Clothing Department has grown to such an extent as to necessitate our engaging an Extra Cutter. In addition to Mr. J. J. Crawford, we have secured the services of Mr. Sutherland, late of Toronto, and customers can rely on perfect satistaction and prompt attention.

We will not enter into a detailed description of our New Goods, but we cordially invite you to our Establishment, 75 and 77 Brock street, where we shall be pleased to show you through, whether you leave an order with us or not.

The valedictory closed with bidding fare well to the professors and citizens of

KINGSTON.

WANT TO CATCH YOUR EYE

And Bring to Your Notice the Fact that McKerras and a few like him were present. We are sometimes told that one man is as good as another. I have not man is as good as another. I have not bri ileges be connected with their sub for the fuller equipment of the institution. The first considered necessary study of medicine. He then went on to sociation, and that the same educational for the fuller equipment of the institution. Said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had said that if many of the class of 1886 had

WE WILL OFFER OUR IMMENSE STOCK OF

JERSEYS

At a Reduction of 20 per cent: Black Jerseys, Colored Jerseys, Plain Jerseys, Braided Jerseys, Vest

Front Jerseys, Jersey Jackets,

Christ, and called on all to comply with this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard, and pointed out that by learning this command to preach the gospel to standard the gospel to him of the ministry and of the advant course would be lightened and the student The Reliable and Close Priced Dry Goods House.

Jubilee Exhibit CARBEIS shout the welfare of others, thus proving that the new departure cultivated unselferon At the same time the resident Richmond, Orr & Co.

This firm, having extended its regutation throughout Centrel Ontario for importing beautiful latterns of Carpets, determined this seas in to surpa's previous attainments. Consequently their present immense stock of Velvet Carpets, at he was an "all fifty-niner," and that sands to the hospital. Often the success of an operation is not guaranteed for the Art Squares, Rugs, Mats and Matting will be found unexcelle to

Not only is this the Great Central Canadian Carpet House but also the headquarters for Flor Oil Coth, Linoleum, Lace and Madras Curtains, Curtain Poles, and all House Furnishng Go ds. Remember that Richmond, Orr & Co. take five er cent. off all cash purchases and thirty day accounts.

RICHMOND, ORR & CO.

fessors and returning thanks for kind. You can buy your New Lace Curtains, Curtain Nets, Window Hollands and Shades.

Stair and Hall Oil Cloths, Carpets, and General Furnishings, CHEAP AND GOOD AT A proposition to call a public meeting was discussed, but no decision was arcived at. It was decided, however, to send a pictures contributed by citizens were very over, among whom were a number of the art axis.

It was decided, however, to send a pictures contributed by citizens were very over, among whom were a number of the over.

was a feature of convocation, and in years to come it will be looked for ward to with great interest. of Harmony division in conveying their city friends over and back. The following is the programme of the evening's entertain. Bargains, Gallagher had his long, bony fingers on the windpipe of Mowat and was endeavoring to wind up his existence. At the oring to wind up his existence. At the wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my we wished to die we had better die at Directresses—Mrs. Macaulay, Mrs. H. Come where my waledictories read, to see Dr. Williamson and Morton, Misses Holmes and Dugdale; CLOTHING, CLOTHING.

Having purchased the stock of Tweeds and Ready-made Clothing, and replenished with a "Frier of orders grey," Messrs Raymond large and varied assortment of goods suitable for CARD.

C. F. Smith were appointed auditors. The financial report was received and adopted, from it, we shall rejoice. Our protest fine stock in trade and book debts of William Moore. Having repient william Moore. Having repient of the finances showed a very satisfactory of the finance of the separation that takes place for the separation that takes place financial report was received and adopted, for the separation that takes place financial report was received and adopted, for the separation that takes place for the s

Remember the Old Stand, 59 Brock Street:

Thomas Moore.

Carey occupied the chair. A motion to ste large enough to make a respectable when the doctor saw it he began to come knowledge and are allowed to explore its with the evening's entertainment It is to Another Choice Lot of Chambroy Lace and Lawn Robes church with hot air. The meeting de cided to hold a church picnic at Channel grove on the first of July. A School of Natural Economy. A School of Natural Economy. A School of Natural Economy. A School of Natural Economy.