A very interesting and exciting base ball match took place in the cricket field vesterday afternoon between two teams known as the "Strikers nine" and "Rushford's nine, the former proving themselves the better team of the two, and winning the match by a score of 10 to 0. Some very sharp fielding was done by both sides. Mitchell, the first baseman of the winning team, was a sure man in his place. The batteries were Thos. Elmer and T. Anderson for the "Strikers" and J. Rushford for "Rurhford nine." Both batteries were good. The winning team are anxious to engage in a contest with the cotton mill team on next Saturday afternoon.

THE OLD GRAVEYARDS

Dr. Cleary Makes a Magnanimous Offer and the Council Accepts it with Thanks, While the council was in session last night Father McGrath entered the chamber and handed the clerk a communication from the bishop of Kingston, which read as follows:

I have much pleasure in acquainting your honorable body that after consultation with the members of my congregation whose deceased friends are interred in the disused cemetery on Ordnance street, I have decided, with their concurrence, to grant the use of the catholic division of that burial ground to the city council for its conversion into a people's park. My congregation join heartily with me in this act of kindness to our fellow-citizens. We ask nothing in return, but their accept ance of our good will and loyal friendli ness. As it is absolutely necessary to exhume the remains of the dead and convey them in solemn religious form to our present cemetery, I anticipate a couple of weeks delay before the transfer of land to your council. Manwhile you may order the requisite deed to be prepared, and I will execute it in due time. Ald. COUNCIL TID BITS.

Lonfers In the Artillery Park-The Tent the Cricket Field-Other Matters. At the council meeting last night Ald. Drennan asked the mayor if the streets could not be watered on next Sunday, when the guards and the 14th would have a church parade, Ald Thompson said they would be watered well on Saturday night, and that he would not like to see the city on Saturday, the Montreal Star says: to her when an attempt was made to sully third reading, and was signed and sealed. he would attend to and that was, the removal of all surplus building material and rubbish off the streets, so that the city will look its best on the 24th Ald Shannon thought it would be well to water the streets on Sunday, as it was on that day pedestrians went abroad, especially the ladies with their best dresses on. Ald. Wilson said the city men and horses should be allowed to rest on Sunday. The matter was then dropped. LOAFERS IN THE PARK. Ald. Drennan pointed out that Co!, Villiers had allowed the artillery park to be used as a public thoroughfare, but it resignation as a representative of Onfario the by-law should be printed for the place was made a rendezvouz for loafers. who gathered around the military sheds and smoked. In the sheds at present was moved, seconded by Ald. Shannon, that be better if the commissioner would be half-million dellars worth of goods. If the council place on record their regret at on the look out for light coal as d seize it the city did not take steps to prevent loafers from hanging about in the park probably the military authorities will close Breck & Booth and S. Anglin objected to | the gates. The mayor said he would see that a policeman visited the park occa-

Ald. Robinson thought a by-law should be passed providing for the picking up of dead dogs and cats, as a large number of them are lying about the streets at present He was informed that such a bylaw was in existence

Ald. Redden, chairman of parks, wanted to know who gave the Plymouth brethren authority to erect a tent in the crieket field. It came out that the mayor referred one of the brethren to Ald. Hiscook, chairman of the city property comthe tent being erected if his colleagues had not. Ald. Redden said that if the city property committee controlled the parks he was glad to hear it, because he Ald. Thompson said that the tent was will be on the 1st July (Dominion day.) near young trees, which were being dea-The salute at Quebec and Kingston will troyed by boys, who should be warned that they must not tamper with the trees. He also said that the boys caught playing "hole" on boulevards should be punished Ald McIntyre thought it was a good move to have preaching on the cricket field, and that if any persons should at tend the services oftener than others, they were the members of the city property committee. No more was said about the
