Death in the Head. The essential requisites for a sound and clear mind are few, for, given a nerve that will properly perform its functions, and a healthy body, a sound and good health is assured.

To retain so desirable a blessing resort should occasionally be made to Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. They tone the liver into healthy action, expel the bile by expelling all venous germs, and thereby remove leath from the blood. Hamilton's Pills are purely vegetable. Sold by Polson & Co., and dealers everywhere.

Holloway's Pills.

Weakening weather.—The sultry sun days strain the nerves of the feeble and decrepit, and disease may eventuate unless the body is kept in a state of purifying. Pills, to be found to correct the disordering tendency. Holloway's medicine gives potency to the nervous system, which is the source of all vital movements, and provides over every action which maintains the growth and well-being of the body. No one can over estimate the necessity of keeping the nerves well-strung, or the ease with which the Pills accomplish that end. They are the most unfatiguing antidotes to indigestion, headache and catarrh, and have therefore attained the laurels of the best medicine.

A MISTAKEN CELEBRATION.

Glorifying an Interesting Event that Has Not Yet Evaporated.

COLUMBUS, Ga., May 12.—There is one distinguished congressman in town, and a whole city River convention has brought together several hundred distinguished gentlemen, among them Senator Brown and Congressman Cross of Georgia, and a company from Alabama and Florida, and a number of merchants from a distance. The party was tendered a banquet last night at the Hotel Hilde, which was a magnificent affair. Mayor Grimes was the master of ceremonies. The toasts were drunk with great enthusiasm until they were interrupted by the toastmaster, who said that Congressman Crisp had a special announcement to make. The congressman, blushing to the ears, stood up and said:

"While we are here enjoying the lavish hospitality of the citizens of Columbus, the news comes to us that in the house of our father a son is born; let us all unite in the hearty congratulations."

The band at once struck up a lively air, and three cheers were given for Mrs. Cleaveland, while the health of the baby was drunk in sparkling champagne. It was not until today that the loyal Columbus adherents of President Lincoln discovered that their toast was vain, and that no heir to the White House had been born.

The Anniston Hot Blast, which has just come to hand, shows that the rumor also reached that point. The editor, who is the poet J. R. Randall, says:

"We congratulate the President and his wife upon the fortunate arrival of a national baby." As soon as the news was received at Anniston, the people, the locomotives celebrated the adoption of a national baby with unusual whistles; the great blast furnaces sent up screams of rejoicing, and their funnels spouted flame, painting the dark background of the sky and hillsides luminously.

The fires on Blue mountain flared suddenly; and the ladies at the inn expressed their congratulations in melodious chorus. How would Alabama do for the little one?"—Courtier-Journal.

A Rushing Business.

Drugist (to customer)—There you are, sir; a two cent stamp. Can I do anything else for you?

Customer—Well—er—would you cash a small check? Save me the trouble of going to the bank.

Drugist—With pleasure. Anything else, sir?

Customer—I believe I will put one of these almanacs in my pocket, and that is all, I think, this morning.

Drugist—You won't have a glass of soda water with me?—New York Sun.

The Poodle's Erratic Course.

This young lady enjoys the wintry air very much, of course, with her French poodle, if his hair over his eyes does make his course erratic.
