

For Toilet Use.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor was given me nearly half a year ago, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my hair is now well covered with new growth of hair.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. A case of the scalp caused by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. My scalp is cured, and I feel free from dandruff. - Mrs. E. B. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

MILITARY MATTERS.

Military affairs occupied the attention of the house to a considerable extent on Friday, a discussion arising in committee of supply on the item of $1,286,000 for militia. Lieutenant-Colonel Denison upon a misapprehension of a paragraph in Major-General Middleton's report, made the point that there were strong objections to any move which looked like the creation of a standing army in this country.

THE PROPOSED DRY DOCK.

A public meeting is called for Wednesday to discuss the building of a dry dock. It is, of course, impossible to know in advance just what direction the discussion will take, but this idea should be kept well to the front—the dry dock would be built here. There is no other point on the lakes where such an institution could be located with so much advantage both to mariners and the operators of the dock.

Mr. Langley, of Nova Scotia, has no love for confederation.

Mr. Langley, of Nova Scotia, has no love for confederation. He would rather be "the representative from Nova Scotia," than premier of that province. He is in favor of annexation if he can get it. And in order to secure this wonderful boon, he advises every Nova Scotian who has the interests of the province, and every Canadian who has the interests of Canada at heart to "grip the system of class-power and monopoly which has been developed by the manufacturing interests by the throat."

During the fishery troubles the Canadian authorities have shown as great an admiration for the alleged rights and privileges of American fishermen as a proper regard for Canadian interests would allow.

The advantage which our fishermen would obtain, if by the re-establishment of reciprocity of fishing in the inshore waters of Canada, is of very uncertain value, and during some seasons is worth very little. -New York Sun.

Our American friends are making a great fuss about something that is "worth very little."

Our American friends are making a great fuss about something that is "worth very little." Nevertheless advice from Shelburne stated that American mackerel fishermen were swarming around that neighborhood, but were unable to get any fish, while the Canadian fishermen were making inside the three-mile limit a very good catch. Still the privilege of fishing within the limit is to the Americans "of uncertain value."

The grangers held a picnic at Port Stanley last week. The farmers had a good time, and did not give evidence of the sad condition of men who are, according to the grites, taxed to death, and in a helpless and hopeless state. One granger made a speech in which he said that "the farmers of Ontario were the most prosperous of any class, and could send any other country in the world." But possibly Sir Richard Cartwright and Hon. David Mills knew more about farming in Ontario than this granger.

One of those scientific Germans has been looking into the military importance of Great Britain or the Canadian Pacific railway, and has published a pamphlet thereon, which has created a sensation in Europe. He is satisfied of the absolute Independence of England, in case of war with Russia or any other European power, in the matter of the use of the Suez Canal.

England could afford to ignore the canal altogether and send her troops overland through Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Divorce cases have of late taken up a good deal of the time of the Canadian senate. The opinion of the government with reference to foreign divorces has been declared thus: When parties marry in Canada, and settle here, and afterward obtain a divorce in the United States, a divorce is not held valid in Canada.

The grit organ declares that commercial union must not be made a party question.

The grit organ declares that commercial union must not be made a party question; but it cannot, in that connection, refrain from quoting a rabid attack made by Prof. Golden Smith upon the conservative administration. If commercial union is secured, the unionist organ may perhaps be satisfied; but, in the meantime, the conservatives must be abused first, last and all the time.

Citizens of London the less, in public meeting assembled, decided that the city council should spend $3,000 in celebrating the entrance of two new railways into that city.

Citizens of London the less, in public meeting assembled, decided that the city council should spend $3,000 in celebrating the entrance of two new railways into that city. The Londoners are wise; the celebration will be a gigantic advertisement for their town. When will Kingstonians get an opportunity to celebrate the advent of the Napanee and Tamworth line?

A Pretty Bad Case.

A Pretty Bad Case. Toronto Telegram. It seems that William O'Brien is telling some fairly tales in the United States relative to his trip through Canada. His misrepresentations have been so gross that even the grit organ in this city has felt constrained to expose them, and when things have come to this pass, we may be sure that the case is pretty bad.

Don't Want Canadian Competition.

Don't Want Canadian Competition. Canadian American. The Washington authorities should revoke at once the privilege granted the Canadian Pacific to carry goods in bond from San Francisco to Boston, Portland, New York, etc. Perhaps the Canadian Pacific, by some means or other, might be packed out of the United States.

The Words of a Patriot.

The Words of a Patriot. Rev. Principal Grant. All of us Canadians, whether living at home or abroad, owe a duty to Canada, which we shall be base if we neglect. Confederation was a costly mistake if we had not faith in its future, a mistake which has cost hundreds of millions of dollars. But, so far as I know, people do not think that any mistake was made. Every day their national spirit is rising, and we shall yet be proud of our country.

Mr. Goldwin Smith is a farmer. In common with other similar farmers, notably Farmer Ernest Wiman, of New York, Mr. Smith feels that he cannot make a living at plowing, and sowing and reaping and mowing, unless the markets of Canada are made free to the fifteen-cent-a-bushel corn of Illinois and Iowa, and the large manufacturers of everything that is made in the United States, and which is now made here, but won't be when Farmer Smith has his way.

This is Prairie Indeed. Ottawa Journal. It was very evident when the house was passing the items of expenditure connected with the office of high commissioner yesterday that the general sentiment on both sides was one of approbation of the way in which Sir Charles Tupper had discharged the duties of that position. That Sir Charles deserved the commendation there cannot be the slightest doubt. His conduct at various periods when the interests of Canada were involved showed the greatest of energy as well as the high ability which even his opponents admit him to be possessed of.

Astonishing Success. It is the duty of every person who has used Doan's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 50,000 down bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents.
