This inner skin of lead was thinner and got through the job more quickly, though not nearly quickly enough for the impatience bystanders. At last the front fell and disclosed a small cabinet made of solid pieces of black oak, and having a hinger door, which was fastened by a tiny latch of casp of the common pattern, that is probas old as doors are. From this cabinet there came a strong odor of spices.

The excitement was now intense, seemed to be shared by everybody in the house. Grice had come in through the swinz door and stationed herself in the background Sampson and the groom, were peepi through the windows and even old Atterleigh, attracted by the sound of the hammer ing, had strolled aimlessly in.

"What can it be?" said Eva, with a gasp. Slowly Jeremy extracted the cabinet from as leaden coverings and set it on the table. "Shall I open it?" he said, and, suiting the action to the word, he lifted the latch, and placing his chisel between the edge of the little door and its frame, pried the cabinet
