Bitten by a Station.

Robert Covey was seized by the hand by a Clydesdale stallion in Pittsburg on Tuesday last, and had not been taken to contractors, from parties willing to enter into contracts to supply the institution with an quantity of meat, which was required for consumption at the prison, from July 1877, to 30th June, 1888, £100.

A cheque for £800, marked 'Good' by the bank on which it was drawn, was produced by him to prove his good faith. The cheque of the successor tenderer, should he be unable to supply the institution with a month's supply of beef when it has been delivered. It will be then returned to him, but payment for first month will only be made when he can produce a bill of lading.

Chances of unsuccessful tenders will be returned immediately after the 1st.

The subscriber, refusing when called upon to complete a contract, at the price he names in his tender, will forfeit his cheques.

If he does not accept the fair market value none may be accepted.

Forms of tender will be furnished on application to the Warden.

M. LAVELL,
Warden.
