AN UNPROVOKED MURDER. A Volunteer Stabbed to Death at London.

LONDON, June 18.—Last night about 10 o'clock a party of volunteers, who had been in the city during the evening, while proceeding up Abchurch-lane, on their way back to the city, had a couple of shots fired from a house quite close to the street, and the voice of a man and a woman seemingly in a heated quarrel. They halted to see what was wrong, and when suddenly a knife was brandished and a large butcher knife was thrust into the chest of a man, who fell to the ground.
