The Result of a well Contes'ed Match-Excellent Butting.

A Kingston cricketer, after stating that he would like very much to see a ladies cricket club formed in this city, suggested that the following be published to see if it would result in Kingston ladies following the examples of those alluded to below; -The Lishfield Mercury publishes the following interesting description of aladies' cricket match :- The picturesquely situ ated and perfectly kept cricket ground at Patabull was on Tuesday the scene of a very interesting but not very usual match The Counters of Dartmouth invited two teams of ladies to play a friendly game The contest was between an eleven of ladies captained by Miss Talbot, and eleven of the Sandwell Hall ladies' school, who were captained by Miss Gifford, one of their number. The first named team arrived at the half on Monday and had some preliminary practice on that day, being the guests of the Earl Counters of Dartmouth The Sandwell ladies come by an early train Hosiery and gloves, at tremendous re- Tuesday morning They brought their ground man, Shepherd, as umpyre, the umpire for the Patshull team house Sergt.-Major Pateton. Play was commenced at eleven o'clock. The Sandwell ladies won the toss, and elected to bat, Judging from appearance, it was evident the Sandwell young ladies were quite outmatched. They were all of school age, and most of them young even at that Their opponents, on the contrary, were of "society" age, and their perfect assurance made their chances of a victory doubly sure. The Sandwell ladies batted very nervously in their first inning, only two of them making any stand, and only succeeded in putting together 35 runs. The bowling of the senior team was excellent, Lady Margaret Kerr, in particular, vary ing her pitch with great judgment The fielding was good, only one bye being recorded. The Patchull team then went in, and were not out at luncheon time, when all adjourned to the hall. Play was resumed at three 'clock. The Sandwell young ladie their cricket dress, which consisted of a navy blue skirt, white bodice, and blue and white cap to match. Here they seemed more at home and settled down to work determined to do their best against their older opponents. Their fielding was remarkably good, and al though there was some all round hard hitwas never once refused. The most The Toronto cricket team plays Napa- notable score of the Patshull team was

THE MEETING'S OF TWO CIVIC COMMITTEES YESTERDAY.

What Tran pired at Them-Gibbard sons Le ter to the Mayor . The Water works Vote And the Aldermen.

The city property committee was called Eigether yesterday afternoon by Chairman Hiscock for the purpose of examining the dome of the city buildings, the hallway leading to Ontario hall, and a room in the fire station. He had received a report from the caretaker of the city buildings to the effect that rain comes through the edge of the dome, and is destroying the ceilings of the rooms in which the students of the Ladies' Medical college receive their lectures . The committee met, when Ald. Hiscock, Snowden, Robinson and Rees were present. They examined the rooms referred to, and, after Thursday night's rain, found the ceilings in s bad condition, and the planter liable to fall at any time. Ald. Snowden, as a practical man, said that the dome needs to be covered with sheet iron. The hallway leading to Ontario hall, will be kalsomined and painted, as at present it is in a very dirty condition. Some of the party went out boating Maud, a young daughter, went out bathing, and getting beyond her depth, the other ladies of the party, Mrs. Mills, -the mother; the elder sister, Miss lielena Mills, and the aunt, Mrs. Har per, of Philadelphia, went to the rescue A panic must have ensued, as the last three named were drowned, while the her, who was first thought to be in danger, reached the shore in safety, and finally succeeded in bringing in the body of her aunt. The event is one o the saddest that has ever occurred in this county. The family are well known throughout this entire section, and are held in the highest esteeem. The whole community has been thrown into excitement over the very direful event. Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Harper were daughters of Mr. George Miller, of Napanee. Mrs. M ller is now in a very precarious condition through illness, from which she is not expected to recover, and the news is withheld from her, by order of her physician Miss Mills was a student at Napanee high school, and only last week was a candidate for university matric ulstion. She was a very intelligent and loveable girl, and those who made her acquaintance are thrown into deep sorrow over her sad death. The sorrowing relatives have our deepest sympathy.

Id-altring. Were you a gentle Zephyr. And I a Summer Rose, would woo you to my bower, You should kiss no other flower. And when weary you should rest, By my fragran' breath caressed, Hidden deep within my breast. Were you a Zephyr, darling, And I a Summer Rose.

Were you the Wind of Autumn, And I, your love, a Leaf. From the home tree I would sever And float with you forever Down the autumn's golden tide, would never, never chide; For your maddest freaks would be Summer sephyrs soft to me, Were you the Wind of Autumn. And I, your love, a Leaf. If I were Queen of Summer, And, you were Winter's King.

would gather into posies

All my violets and roses,

All blossoms fresh and sweet And lay them at your feet. At your cold and ley feet, . It I were Queen of Summer. And you were Winter's King. If I were Twilight's Lady And you were Lord of Day We would walk the dewy meadow And mingle light and shadow ou would smooth my dusky hair. I would kim your brow so fair, if I were Twilight's Lady And you were Lord of Day. Were you the Ocean, darling. And I, your love, a Star. On your bosom I would glisten, would bend me down to listen the great throbs of your heart light and wave would never part. Vere you the Ocean, darling. And I, your love, a Star.

An American Cutter. Mr. Provest has secured the services of Mr. D F. Sherman, who has been cutting for some leading establishments in the United States. As Mr. Prevoet does not feel disposed to carry over any summer goods to next sesson, he now makes a reduction of $2.00 per suit of Mortons pickles, in plats and quarts the balance of this season's goods in stock
